The Marlboro Free Will Baptist auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. C. G. Morgan Wednesday evening with Mrs. Clyde Brooks presiding.

A program based on the Free Will Baptist college was given with Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Cleve Westbrooks and Mrs. Nellie Allen taking part.

Refreshments were served after adjournment.

PRODUCTION CREDIT MEN AT DISTRICT MEETING

Directors John R. Carroll and D. F. Hardison, and F. L. Little, Jr., secretary-treasurer, who constitute the executive committee of the Greenville Production Credit Association, have recently returned from a district credit meeting of executive committees of 18 production credit associations in eastern section of North Carolina.

The agricultural outlook for North Carolina farmers, and some of the problems facing farmers were the principal topics of discussion at the conference.

Mr. Little said, "Indications are that farmers will have a satisfactory year in 1947. However, farmers should plan their operations for 1948 on a sound basis as the margin between prices received by farmers and the cost of production may not be as much as it has been for the past few years."

District Officer To Address Junior Club

The Junior Woman's Club will hold an interesting and informative meeting Tuesday evening featuring the annual training school for new members. Mrs. W. Jesse Moye, president of the Fifteenth District, N.C.F.W.C., guest speaker, will conduct the class.

Important business will be selection of a project for the year's work. Mrs. W. C. Garner, president, has appointed the following committees to present reports of several worthwhile projects suggested: Mrs. J. R. Harris, Mrs. James Darden, Mrs. Allan Drake, Mrs. Charles Edwards and Mrs. Sam Lewis.

Mrs. J. M. Gibbs will present a report of the recent District meeting held in Williamston.

Miss Elvira Tyson, treasurer, has announced that all members paying dues at this, the third meeting, will receive five points on their rating sheet.

BOOK AND BRIDGE

An afternoon of bridge was enjoyed by members of the Book and Bridge club and special guests, Mrs. G. L. Gilchrist, Mrs. Edison Moore and Mrs. Charles S. Edwards with Mrs. J. M. Mewborn as hostess Friday.

Hot tea, sandwiches, pickles, ham biscuits and candies were served upon arrival of the guests. Later coca colas and nuts were passed.

High score was compiled by Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Jr.

Do talkative women ever complain to each other that their respective telephone lines are "busy" most of the day?

NOTE OF THANKS

To the employers and employees of A. C. Monk & Co., may we extend our humble and heartfelt thanks to you for your loving kindness to us in every way during our hour of bereavement and the passing of our dearly beloved husband and father, May God bless each of you.

The Smith Family.

Hazel Garris is President Pitt County 4-H Council

Pitt County Council of 4-H Clubs held its first meeting Friday night, September 26, in the Agricultural Building in Greenville. Highlights of the meeting were centered around the election of officers for the coming year. Hazel Garris, president of the Langs club, was elected president of the Council. Included on her staff of officers are: Curtiss Lee, Paul Tolus, vice president; Fred Boyce, Grimesland, secretary; William Queens, Farmville, reporter; Jean Moore, Langs club, song leader. More interest was shown in the election of officers than at any time in previous years.

Plans for the coming year in club work were presented at this time to the 62 members present. By-laws of the council were amended in order that the council will meet every other month instead of every quarter. Much enthusiasm and interest in future work to be done was shown at the meeting. The usual recreation and refreshments were enjoyed before adjournment.

BURNETTE-ROUSE POST

The Burnette-Rouse Post, 9081, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met Sept. 25 in the lunch room at the school building.

A delicious supper of roast beef and all the trimmings was enjoyed by the members. The supper was prepared and served by Mrs. Flowers and her group. This was the first time the Post had met in the lunch room but until further announcement the Post will meet there the fourth Thursday of each month.

Members were told of the progress that has been made on their proposed building project—that of erecting a Post home sometime in the near future. No plans as to the type, location or size of building have been made. Members were also told of the donations and the help of local citizens so far on this project. The Barrett-Kelly Electrical Company, a new business owned by Robert G. Barrett, Jr., of Farmville, and Mr. Kelly, formerly of Wilson, now a resident of Farmville, made the post a generous donation by offering all the electrical labor and material required in the new home.

Attention of the Post was called to the fact that one of the most active members, Claude C. Tyson, popular senior vice commander, is on the sick list at Veterans' hospital, Fayetteville. The Post voted to remember him with a box of cigars.

The Post voted to meet during the winter months at 7 o'clock, one-half hour earlier than the present meeting time of 7:30.

October 15 is the deadline for getting the enrollment forms off to the Washington Cathedral and all members who have not signed their forms are asked to call by City Drug Company and do so. R. R. Newton, Jr., commander of the Post, has the forms and so far only about half of the members have signed theirs.
