

EMMANUEL EPISCOPAL CHURCH WILL BE HOST TO CONVOCATION OF EDENTON WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22

The convocation of Edenton comprising half of the churches of the Diocese of North Carolina will meet here Wednesday, October 22, at Emmanuel Episcopal church...

At The Kiwanis Club

A program in keeping with "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" was presented at the Kiwanis club Monday night by three officials of governmental agencies...

Farmville PTA Sets New Record With 682 Memberships

The recent membership drive of the Farmville Parent-Teacher Association resulted in an increase over last year's previous high. The paid memberships of the organization now stand for this year at 682...

Thrift, Hard Work Basis Hardy Fortune

These warm autumn days, Clarence L. Hardy of Maury sits beneath the shelter which projects in front of his big general store and watches his world go by...

Henry Johnson Recommended For Postmaster's Job

Henry D. Johnson, who has been serving as acting postmaster in Farmville, has been recommended by Congressman Herbert C. Bonner as a permanent appointee...

Thumb-Nail Sketches Of Farmville Folks

MRS. LLOYD SMITH An aptitude for nursing, a love for people and plenty of hard work have made Mrs. Lloyd Smith an outstanding practical nurse...

Agriculture Boys And Home Economics Girls Attend State Fair

On Wednesday of this week, E. P. Bass, head of the Farmville school's vocational agriculture department, took about 50 boys of his classes to the State Fair in Raleigh...

Carl Hicks Explains Parity's Meaning At Farm Bureau Meet

North Carolina Farm Bureau's Board of Directors last week unanimously adopted a resolution calling for continuation of the exchange price in parity and a 90 per cent support price...

At The Rotary Club

T. Ell Joyner, Jr., spoke about club service at the Rotary meeting Tuesday night after which he asked Ed Nash Warren, chairman of the program committee...

Farmville Gridders Defeat Warsaw For Season's First Win

The Farmville Red Devils posted their first win of the season last Friday when they defeated Warsaw, 19 to 9, on the local field...

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal The Altar Guild, which met Monday evening, devoted most of its meeting to pricing aprons and making plans for the apron and sweets sale which was held Wednesday...

Henry Johnson Recommended For Postmaster's Job

Henry D. Johnson, who has been serving as acting postmaster in Farmville, has been recommended by Congressman Herbert C. Bonner as a permanent appointee...

Thumb-Nail Sketches Of Farmville Folks

MRS. LLOYD SMITH An aptitude for nursing, a love for people and plenty of hard work have made Mrs. Lloyd Smith an outstanding practical nurse...

Agriculture Boys And Home Economics Girls Attend State Fair

On Wednesday of this week, E. P. Bass, head of the Farmville school's vocational agriculture department, took about 50 boys of his classes to the State Fair in Raleigh...

Carl Hicks Explains Parity's Meaning At Farm Bureau Meet

North Carolina Farm Bureau's Board of Directors last week unanimously adopted a resolution calling for continuation of the exchange price in parity and a 90 per cent support price...

At The Rotary Club

T. Ell Joyner, Jr., spoke about club service at the Rotary meeting Tuesday night after which he asked Ed Nash Warren, chairman of the program committee...

Farmville Gridders Defeat Warsaw For Season's First Win

The Farmville Red Devils posted their first win of the season last Friday when they defeated Warsaw, 19 to 9, on the local field...

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal The Altar Guild, which met Monday evening, devoted most of its meeting to pricing aprons and making plans for the apron and sweets sale which was held Wednesday...

Pitt Farmers Urged To Plant More Cotton In '48

Pitt county farmers were urged this week by George T. Ashford of Red Springs, president of the Carolina Ginners Association, to plant now to cotton to some of the 8,858 acres that will be idle next year in Pitt county by reduced fire-cured tobacco allotments...

ATTEND RALLY

Fat Corbett, president, Janet Stansell, Jen Easley, Frances Gray, Elsie and Elizabeth May, Nancy La Moore and Gertrude Bundy and Donald Bacon, Mrs. Cheryl Easley, adult adviser, Rev. Edwin S. Coste, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bateman, Mrs. J. C. Corbett, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. J. M. Stansell and Charlie Caraway attended the fall rally of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Albemarle presbytery in Tarboro Sunday afternoon...

GIRL SCOUTS

Troops 2 and 4 practiced the horse-shoe formation together Tuesday afternoon in the high school Scout room. A short business meeting was held by Troop 4 when troop crests and numbers were distributed, plans for a Bible display during National Bible week were discussed and the girls were told how they can earn friendship badges...

PITT DENTISTS, DOCTORS HARBOR SPEAKER

Dr. R. T. Moore of Greenville and Dr. A. M. Mumford of Winterville were hosts to the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society Thursday evening at Clark's in Greenville. The guest speaker, Dr. Reno B. Porter of the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, discussed rheumatic fever, reviewing the known facts about diagnosis and treatment...

Henry Johnson Recommended For Postmaster's Job

Henry D. Johnson, who has been serving as acting postmaster in Farmville, has been recommended by Congressman Herbert C. Bonner as a permanent appointee...

Thumb-Nail Sketches Of Farmville Folks

MRS. LLOYD SMITH An aptitude for nursing, a love for people and plenty of hard work have made Mrs. Lloyd Smith an outstanding practical nurse...

Agriculture Boys And Home Economics Girls Attend State Fair

On Wednesday of this week, E. P. Bass, head of the Farmville school's vocational agriculture department, took about 50 boys of his classes to the State Fair in Raleigh...

Carl Hicks Explains Parity's Meaning At Farm Bureau Meet

North Carolina Farm Bureau's Board of Directors last week unanimously adopted a resolution calling for continuation of the exchange price in parity and a 90 per cent support price...

At The Rotary Club

T. Ell Joyner, Jr., spoke about club service at the Rotary meeting Tuesday night after which he asked Ed Nash Warren, chairman of the program committee...

Farmville Gridders Defeat Warsaw For Season's First Win

The Farmville Red Devils posted their first win of the season last Friday when they defeated Warsaw, 19 to 9, on the local field...

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal The Altar Guild, which met Monday evening, devoted most of its meeting to pricing aprons and making plans for the apron and sweets sale which was held Wednesday...

Pitt Farmers Urged To Plant More Cotton In '48

Pitt county farmers were urged this week by George T. Ashford of Red Springs, president of the Carolina Ginners Association, to plant now to cotton to some of the 8,858 acres that will be idle next year in Pitt county by reduced fire-cured tobacco allotments...

ATTEND RALLY

Fat Corbett, president, Janet Stansell, Jen Easley, Frances Gray, Elsie and Elizabeth May, Nancy La Moore and Gertrude Bundy and Donald Bacon, Mrs. Cheryl Easley, adult adviser, Rev. Edwin S. Coste, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bateman, Mrs. J. C. Corbett, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. J. M. Stansell and Charlie Caraway attended the fall rally of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Albemarle presbytery in Tarboro Sunday afternoon...

GIRL SCOUTS

Troops 2 and 4 practiced the horse-shoe formation together Tuesday afternoon in the high school Scout room. A short business meeting was held by Troop 4 when troop crests and numbers were distributed, plans for a Bible display during National Bible week were discussed and the girls were told how they can earn friendship badges...

PITT DENTISTS, DOCTORS HARBOR SPEAKER

Dr. R. T. Moore of Greenville and Dr. A. M. Mumford of Winterville were hosts to the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society Thursday evening at Clark's in Greenville. The guest speaker, Dr. Reno B. Porter of the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, discussed rheumatic fever, reviewing the known facts about diagnosis and treatment...

Henry Johnson Recommended For Postmaster's Job

Henry D. Johnson, who has been serving as acting postmaster in Farmville, has been recommended by Congressman Herbert C. Bonner as a permanent appointee...

Thumb-Nail Sketches Of Farmville Folks

MRS. LLOYD SMITH An aptitude for nursing, a love for people and plenty of hard work have made Mrs. Lloyd Smith an outstanding practical nurse...

Agriculture Boys And Home Economics Girls Attend State Fair

On Wednesday of this week, E. P. Bass, head of the Farmville school's vocational agriculture department, took about 50 boys of his classes to the State Fair in Raleigh...

Carl Hicks Explains Parity's Meaning At Farm Bureau Meet

North Carolina Farm Bureau's Board of Directors last week unanimously adopted a resolution calling for continuation of the exchange price in parity and a 90 per cent support price...

At The Rotary Club

T. Ell Joyner, Jr., spoke about club service at the Rotary meeting Tuesday night after which he asked Ed Nash Warren, chairman of the program committee...

Farmville Gridders Defeat Warsaw For Season's First Win

The Farmville Red Devils posted their first win of the season last Friday when they defeated Warsaw, 19 to 9, on the local field...

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal The Altar Guild, which met Monday evening, devoted most of its meeting to pricing aprons and making plans for the apron and sweets sale which was held Wednesday...

Pitt Farmers Urged To Plant More Cotton In '48

Pitt county farmers were urged this week by George T. Ashford of Red Springs, president of the Carolina Ginners Association, to plant now to cotton to some of the 8,858 acres that will be idle next year in Pitt county by reduced fire-cured tobacco allotments...

ATTEND RALLY

Fat Corbett, president, Janet Stansell, Jen Easley, Frances Gray, Elsie and Elizabeth May, Nancy La Moore and Gertrude Bundy and Donald Bacon, Mrs. Cheryl Easley, adult adviser, Rev. Edwin S. Coste, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bateman, Mrs. J. C. Corbett, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. J. M. Stansell and Charlie Caraway attended the fall rally of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Albemarle presbytery in Tarboro Sunday afternoon...

GIRL SCOUTS

Troops 2 and 4 practiced the horse-shoe formation together Tuesday afternoon in the high school Scout room. A short business meeting was held by Troop 4 when troop crests and numbers were distributed, plans for a Bible display during National Bible week were discussed and the girls were told how they can earn friendship badges...

PITT DENTISTS, DOCTORS HARBOR SPEAKER

Dr. R. T. Moore of Greenville and Dr. A. M. Mumford of Winterville were hosts to the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society Thursday evening at Clark's in Greenville. The guest speaker, Dr. Reno B. Porter of the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, discussed rheumatic fever, reviewing the known facts about diagnosis and treatment...

Farmville District Will Vote Saturday On School Bonds And Added Tax Levy

Proposals to issue $200,000 in Farmville school district bonds for the construction of a new school and to levy a 15-cent tax for services "above standard" will be decided tomorrow (Saturday) in a special election restricted to those voters who registered in the period ending Oct. 4...

At The Rotary Club

T. Ell Joyner, Jr., spoke about club service at the Rotary meeting Tuesday night after which he asked Ed Nash Warren, chairman of the program committee, and Arch Flanagan, chairman of the fellowship and attendance committee, to explain functions of their committees...

Farmville Gridders Defeat Warsaw For Season's First Win

The Farmville Red Devils posted their first win of the season last Friday when they defeated Warsaw, 19 to 9, on the local field. Coach Jack Johnson's boys played their best game of the year in tallying the win and showed more zip and interest than heretofore. Scoring touchdowns were Ed Allen on a running play and Bobbie Brock on a quarterback sneak. The whole team played better as a unit than in any game this season...

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal The Altar Guild, which met Monday evening, devoted most of its meeting to pricing aprons and making plans for the apron and sweets sale which was held Wednesday. Prayer and repeating of the creed in unison were led by the deacons and hostesses, Mrs. John D. Dixon. Refreshments were served after the dismissal prayer...

Pitt Farmers Urged To Plant More Cotton In '48

Pitt county farmers were urged this week by George T. Ashford of Red Springs, president of the Carolina Ginners Association, to plant now to cotton to some of the 8,858 acres that will be idle next year in Pitt county by reduced fire-cured tobacco allotments...

ATTEND RALLY

Fat Corbett, president, Janet Stansell, Jen Easley, Frances Gray, Elsie and Elizabeth May, Nancy La Moore and Gertrude Bundy and Donald Bacon, Mrs. Cheryl Easley, adult adviser, Rev. Edwin S. Coste, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bateman, Mrs. J. C. Corbett, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. J. M. Stansell and Charlie Caraway attended the fall rally of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Albemarle presbytery in Tarboro Sunday afternoon...

GIRL SCOUTS

Troops 2 and 4 practiced the horse-shoe formation together Tuesday afternoon in the high school Scout room. A short business meeting was held by Troop 4 when troop crests and numbers were distributed, plans for a Bible display during National Bible week were discussed and the girls were told how they can earn friendship badges...

PITT DENTISTS, DOCTORS HARBOR SPEAKER

Dr. R. T. Moore of Greenville and Dr. A. M. Mumford of Winterville were hosts to the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society Thursday evening at Clark's in Greenville. The guest speaker, Dr. Reno B. Porter of the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, discussed rheumatic fever, reviewing the known facts about diagnosis and treatment...

Joe Joyner To Collect Taxes Here Saturday

County Tax Collector Joe Joyner will temporarily set up headquarters Saturday in Farmville's Municipal Building to give local citizens an opportunity to pay their 1947 taxes without having to make a trip to Greenville. Joyner will be at the Municipal Building from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

TRANSFERRED

Friends will regret to learn that Father Benedict Malczuk who has served St. Elizabeth's Catholic church here for the past three years has been transferred to St. Mary's, Father Lepula O'Leary has arrived from Mississippi to take his place.

NOTICE

Beginning Saturday November 1, and continuing until further notice, the general office of the Town of Farmville will close each Saturday at 1 o'clock. This is in order of the Board of Commissioners.

Farmville District Will Vote Saturday On School Bonds And Added Tax Levy

Proposals to issue $200,000 in Farmville school district bonds for the construction of a new school and to levy a 15-cent tax for services "above standard" will be decided tomorrow (Saturday) in a special election restricted to those voters who registered in the period ending Oct. 4...

At The Rotary Club

T. Ell Joyner, Jr., spoke about club service at the Rotary meeting Tuesday night after which he asked Ed Nash Warren, chairman of the program committee, and Arch Flanagan, chairman of the fellowship and attendance committee, to explain functions of their committees...

Farmville Gridders Defeat Warsaw For Season's First Win

The Farmville Red Devils posted their first win of the season last Friday when they defeated Warsaw, 19 to 9, on the local field. Coach Jack Johnson's boys played their best game of the year in tallying the win and showed more zip and interest than heretofore. Scoring touchdowns were Ed Allen on a running play and Bobbie Brock on a quarterback sneak. The whole team played better as a unit than in any game this season...

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal The Altar Guild, which met Monday evening, devoted most of its meeting to pricing aprons and making plans for the apron and sweets sale which was held Wednesday. Prayer and repeating of the creed in unison were led by the deacons and hostesses, Mrs. John D. Dixon. Refreshments were served after the dismissal prayer...

Pitt Farmers Urged To Plant More Cotton In '48

Pitt county farmers were urged this week by George T. Ashford of Red Springs, president of the Carolina Ginners Association, to plant now to cotton to some of the 8,858 acres that will be idle next year in Pitt county by reduced fire-cured tobacco allotments...

ATTEND RALLY

Fat Corbett, president, Janet Stansell, Jen Easley, Frances Gray, Elsie and Elizabeth May, Nancy La Moore and Gertrude Bundy and Donald Bacon, Mrs. Cheryl Easley, adult adviser, Rev. Edwin S. Coste, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bateman, Mrs. J. C. Corbett, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. J. M. Stansell and Charlie Caraway attended the fall rally of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Albemarle presbytery in Tarboro Sunday afternoon...

GIRL SCOUTS

Troops 2 and 4 practiced the horse-shoe formation together Tuesday afternoon in the high school Scout room. A short business meeting was held by Troop 4 when troop crests and numbers were distributed, plans for a Bible display during National Bible week were discussed and the girls were told how they can earn friendship badges...

PITT DENTISTS, DOCTORS HARBOR SPEAKER

Dr. R. T. Moore of Greenville and Dr. A. M. Mumford of Winterville were hosts to the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society Thursday evening at Clark's in Greenville. The guest speaker, Dr. Reno B. Porter of the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, discussed rheumatic fever, reviewing the known facts about diagnosis and treatment...

Joe Joyner To Collect Taxes Here Saturday

County Tax Collector Joe Joyner will temporarily set up headquarters Saturday in Farmville's Municipal Building to give local citizens an opportunity to pay their 1947 taxes without having to make a trip to Greenville. Joyner will be at the Municipal Building from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

TRANSFERRED

Friends will regret to learn that Father Benedict Malczuk who has served St. Elizabeth's Catholic church here for the past three years has been transferred to St. Mary's, Father Lepula O'Leary has arrived from Mississippi to take his place.

NOTICE

Beginning Saturday November 1, and continuing until further notice, the general office of the Town of Farmville will close each Saturday at 1 o'clock. This is in order of the Board of Commissioners.