JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Rev. E. S. Coates, guest speaker at the Junior Woman's club Tuesday afternoon, stated that the main thing needed for improving the world is worship, both family and public. When a person thinks he is weary, it is not that he is physically tired but he is mentally tired. New sources of strength appear if one keeps trying even when he considers himself weary, added the pastor, who was introduced by Mrs. Allen Drake, program chairman.

Mrs. J. R. Harris reported on the results of collecting from members clothing to be sold at the rummage sale Friday and Saturday.

The hostess, Mrs. Archie Clayton, served refreshments.

NEW DEAL CLUB

The New Deal club enjoyed an afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. R. D. Roise Wednesday. As guests arrived the hostess served stuffed angel food cake, nuts and coffee. Mrs. J. H. Paylor assisted in serving.

The living room was decorated with dahlias, roses and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. L. E. Walston, scoring high, received an award of costume jewelry. Mrs. Paylor, who compiled high score for guests, was given handkerchiefs. The low award, a box of Christmas cards, went to Mrs. Zeb Whitehurst.

Guests included Mrs. Bill Finn, Mrs. Whitehurst, Mrs. Paylor and Mrs. L. T. Pierce.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

Mrs. Robert Lee Smith was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon club and additional friends, Mrs. J. M. Mewborn, Mrs. R. E. Pickett, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Edison Moore, Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Mrs. E. D. Harris, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Ben Vernon and Mrs. Allen Darden.

Aprons were given to Mrs. R. V. Fiser, who scored high for the club, and to Mrs. Moore, who made high for guests. A kitchen mammy memo was awarded Mrs. Harris for low prize.

The hostess was assisted in serving marshmallow salad, ham biscuits, pimento-cheese sandwiches, pickles, saltines and coffee as guests arrived by Mrs. M. V. Horton.

Chrysanthemums, marigolds, pyracantha berries and potted plants made an effective setting for the games.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Plans for sending Christmas gifts to Oten for the Veterans' Gift shop were made at the October meeting of the American Legion auxiliary Monday afternoon. Appointments of Mrs. C. H. Moring as child welfare chairman and of Mrs. O. G. Spell as program chairman were announced by the president, Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, who led the opening ritual.

For the devotional Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt used the Lord's prayer and Psalm 23. A report on sick members revealed that Mrs. L. E. Jones was ill.

The president talked about the aims and work of the auxiliary and the eligibility and duties of members, after which she conducted a citizenship quiz.

Mrs. K. L. Matthews was cordially welcomed as a new member and Mrs. J. H. Batchelor as a visitor.

During the social hour, Mrs. Rollins, Mrs. Spell and Mrs. P. E. Jones, hostesses, served assorted sandwiches, stuffed dats, salted nuts, pickles and coca colas.

AU FAIT CLUB

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, Mrs. Sam Lewis, Mrs. E. N. Pettway and Mrs. J. M. Mewborn were guests of Mrs. Charles S. Edwards Thursday afternoon when she entertained her bridge club.

As guests arrived individual lemon pies, cheese straws, mints and coffee were served. Between progressions even colas and mints were passed.

Mrs. John C. Parker made high score and Mrs. Howard Harris, low. The guest prize for high score went to Mrs. Lewis.

Dahlias and pyracantha were used by the hostess in decorating her home.

CONTRACT CLUB

Mrs. M. V. Horton entertained the Contract club Tuesday afternoon in her home which was attractively decorated with orange berries, marigolds and sinnas, carrying out the Halloween colors.

Mrs. W. S. Royster received a fluted vase for high score award. Mrs. A. E. Joyner was given an ornamental pitcher for low. The bingo prize, a kitchen memorandum, went to Mrs. H. N. Howard.

The refreshments of golden glow salad, rice, pickled peaches, open-face apples and nut sandwiches, cheese apples, black and orange candies and coffee carried out the black and orange color scheme.

SUPPER CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. W. Alex Allen and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Fiser were hosts to the Supper club Saturday evening at the Country club which was decorated in the Halloween motif. The buffet was centered with a birthday cake honoring a number of members whose birthdays fall during October. The table was covered with Halloween covers and a centerpiece of marigolds, autumn leaves and berries flanked by orange candles was used.

Banquets in leaves and berries, the mantles also bore cutouts of skeletons, witches and cats. Illumination was furnished by lights covered with orange paper from which were suspended cutouts.

The menu consisted of tomato cocktail, baked ham, potatoes, garden peas and mushrooms, pineapple-cheese salad, rolls, coffee and cake.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Eason, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Denay Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Yancey Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hodges of Washington.

BIRTHDAY SUPPER

Harriett Paylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Paylor, was hostess to three of her friends at a dinner party in her playhouse Tuesday evening in honor of her fifth birthday. As guests arrived they were served grape juice and gingerbread cookies.

Games were played prior to the meal under the direction of Gayle and Sue Flanagan who with Mrs. Bob Wheelass assisted Mrs. Paylor in serving. The menu consisted of baked ham, creamed potatoes, butter beans, carrots, rolls, ice tea, cake and ice cream. Tiny baskets filled with candy which were used as place cards, favors and decorations carried out the Halloween colors.

Friends attending were Perry Faye Pratt, Barbara Jean Wheelass and Noel Lang.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Allen announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Foree, Wednesday, October 22, in Woodard-Herring hospital, Wilson. Mrs. Allen is the former Miss Lillian Foree of New Castle, Ky.

DINNER PARTY

Honoring their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Joyner of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Z. Fonville of Raleigh, Miss Bettie Joyner and Mrs. S. G. Gardner were hostesses at a three-course dinner Wednesday evening.

Autumn flowers were used in decorating. Sixteen guests attended.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mrs. John McQueen Stanall announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Mamie Ruth Smith, to Mr. Claude Jackson McGowan, on Wednesday, October 1, 1947, Marion, S. C.

Mrs. McGowan, a former resident of Farmville, has been employed in Wilmington for the past nine years. The couple are residing at the Colonial Apartments, Wilmington.

SNOW HILL D. A. R.

"Youth" was the program theme used by Mrs. Cherry Easley, guest speaker, at the Col. Alexander McAllister chapter, D. A. R., of Snow Hill, which met with Mrs. J. I. Morgan Saturday afternoon. Dahlias, roses and other flowers formed a setting for the meeting which was presided over by Mrs. J. W. Parker, regent, who led the pledge of allegiance and the American's creed.

Mrs. H. S. Taylor, vice regent, gave the devotional in the absence of the chaplain. Mrs. Fred Darden reported on the eighth district meeting which convened in Wilson recently.

Clothing for boys and girls attending Crossroads school in the western part of the state was brought by members to the meeting and turned over to Mrs. F. W. Carroll who has charge of shipping the garments, after which pictures of the school were shown.

Two names for membership were presented by Mrs. E. Y. Lovelace and accepted by a vote of the chapter.

The group was informed that the next meeting would be held with Mrs. B. W. Moseley in Greenville, that the state chairman of radio work, Mrs. J. R. Norwood of Salisbury, would have charge of the program at that time and would broadcast over the Greenville radio station, and that Miss Gertrude Carraway of New Bern, state regent, would be present for the January meeting.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. W. M. Willis, Miss Edna Robinson, Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, Mrs. E. R. Clegg, Miss Mamie Davis and Mrs. Sam Underwood of Greenville.

Mrs. Morgan served apple salad in type designs, chicken salad sandwiches, cookies, candy, nuts and coffee. Miss Robinson, Mrs. Easley and Mrs. G. M. Holden assisted in serving.

THE 1,000,000th BENDIX WASHER
Answers 4 Important Questions

- 1 What is the THRIFTIEST way to get clothes cleanest?
Use a small amount of soap in a small amount of hot water so there'll be enough hot water left to give the clothes a thorough rinsing. That's how the Bendix works. And that's how the 1,000,000 Bendix Washers now in use are piling up big savings for their happy owners.
- 2 What is the SAFEST way to get clothes cleanest?
The same way you wash your daintiest garments... by "dunking" them gently in and out of the suds. And that's exactly how 1,000,000 Bendix Washers are making clothes last longer. For in the Bendix, clothes are gently tumbled—hundreds of times—in and out of the suds. No agitating wear and tear... no rubbing, scrubbing and twisting.
- 3 What's the EASIEST way to get clothes cleanest?
In ten whole years of trouble-free service, the Bendix automatic Washer has saved more hard work for more housewives than any other washer in the world. Just put in the clothes, set the dial, add soap... and you're through. The Bendix thoroughly washes, rinses and damp-dries the clothes... automatically... even when you're not in the house.
- 4 How can I be SURE the Bendix is the best?
One of the million lucky Bendix owners is a neighbor of yours. So you don't have to take our word for it. Just ask her what a wonderful washing job her Bendix does... how thrifty it is... and what a wonderful life it is with all the work of washing done for her automatically.
