MISS DEVISCONTI TALKS TO WALSTONBURG CLUB

Mrs. G. W. Bailey was hostess to the Woman's club at its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Sam Jenkins, vice president, presided in the absence of the president. After a short business session, Mrs. W. E. Lang, Sr., program chairman, introduced Miss Tabitha DeVisconti of Farmville, who made a very informative talk on gardening, emphasizing planting and care of winter lawns and planting of fall bulbs.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Gay in serving brick cream; and individual cakes, suggestive of the Halloween season. Mrs. Albert Mewborn of Farmville was a special guest for the afternoon.

McCULLEN-DILDY

Miss Julia Mae Dildy of Walstonburg became the bride of R. E. McCullen of Mount Olive, on Sunday afternoon, October 26, at 4 o'clock in the Spring Branch Free Will Baptist Church. The Rev. M. L. Johnson of Lucama performed the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar of ferns, carnations and feverfew, flanked by white candles.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Ramona Rouse of Walstonburg, cousin of the bride, pianist, and Miss Janie Dildy of Walstonburg, sister of the bride, soloist. She sang "Because" and "O Holy Spirit." The traditional wedding marches were used and "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" was played during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a light blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Miss Geraldine Dildy, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white suit with black and red accessories, and a corsage of red and white carnations.

The best man was the groom's brother-in-law, Arnold Jernigan, of Mount Olive. Linwood Strickland, cousin of the groom, and Alvin Dildy, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Little Miss Judy Fae Eason, cousin of the bride, of Snow Hill was ring bearer.

Mrs. McCullen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dildy of Walstonburg. She attended Carolina Beauty College, Raleigh, and for the past three years has been manager of the Walstonburg Beauty Shop.

Mr. McCullen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCullen of Mount Olive. At present he is engaged in farming. After a wedding trip to Florida and other Southern points of interest, the couple will be at home at Mount Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McArthur of Robersonville, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McArthur of Morristown, Mrs. Florence Denmark of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert McArthur and Lindsay McArthur of Greenville. Several grandchildren also were present.

Our Policy Pertaining To "Black Market" Auto Sales

Effective November 1, 1947, and continuing thereafter until the current high prices of "Black Market" automobiles has been lowered to the usual retail prices, we will require all purchasers of new Pontiacs to sign the agreement printed below. It is our opinion that purchasers who wish to retain automobiles for their own use will, without hesitation, sign this agreement in order to do their part in helping to combat the exorbitant "Black Market" prices. If this agreement is broken during the period stipulated, we will bring suit against the purchaser. Any funds derived from a suit, after deducting legal costs, will be contributed to a North Carolina orphanage.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that in consideration of the sum of one ($1.00) Dollar to me in hand paid by R. A. PARKER MOTOR CO., Inc., the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in further consideration of the said R. A. PARKER MOTOR CO., Inc., having this day sold and delivered to me one 194... Pontiac, bearing Motor No. .... Serial No. .... I do hereby contract and agree with said Company that if I desire to sell and dispose of said automobile at any time within a period of six months from this date I will offer same for sale to the above Company at the price then fixed and established for such automobile by the Official Used Car Guide, provided and upon the condition nevertheless that the said Company pay to me in cash the list price for said automobile as shown by the Official Used Car Guide, less any liens and encumbrances that may be against the same. If said automobile is offered for sale under this agreement said R. A. PARKER MOTOR CO., Inc., may purchase the same at its option, and if it fails to exercise said option of purchase for a period of twenty-four hours, or if said automobile is not offered for sale within the period of six months, said Company by the execution of this agreement agrees that it will enter a notation upon this instrument "cancelled, satisfied, and of no effect."

For the faithful performance of this agreement and every part thereof of the same is executed this the ... day of ... 194...
