Items of Interest from Ballard's Crossroads

The Youth Fellowship meetings of the Presbyterian church will be held each Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the homes of the members, instead of at the Community building, during the winter.

All the young people of the community are invited to these meetings. Misses Jean and Gladys Crawford were hostesses to the meeting last week.

Ann Crawford gave the program on "The Church in the Community." At the close of the program coca colas, wafers and candy were served.

The Woman's Missionary meeting of the Arthur Christian church met with Mrs. H. L. Pruitt on Saturday afternoon.

The program, "We Bear Witness through World Evangelism," was presented by Mrs. G. T. Tyson. At the close of a short business meeting, the hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Suggs, Mesdames Moses Tyson and William Suggs and Miss Jeanita Suggs visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jenkins of Saratoga and Edgar Suggs of near Stantonburg Sunday.

Misses Josie Crawford and Opal Stoneham, Leslie Evans and Bill Stoneham were visitors near Charlotte Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Tyson, Miss Edith Tyson, Durward Tyson and Ernest Whitley were guests of friends in Gates county Sunday.

Mrs. Mamie Ruth Holloway visited relatives in Farmville Saturday.

J. F. Moye, Thurman Stocks and Gene Allen Forlines attended an automobile sale in Raleigh Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wooten of Greenville were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harris.

The Rev. Edwin S. Coates of Farmville visited in the Ballard's community Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Baker and son, Bobby, visited friends at Vanceboro Sunday.

SNOW HILL D. A. R.

The Snow Hill Colonial Alexander McAllister Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution met in Greenville Saturday afternoon with Mrs. B. W. Moseley.

Mrs. J. H. Randolph and Miss Martha Commack of Greenville were elected to membership in the chapter. The regent, Mrs. J. W. Parker of Farmville, read a letter written by the president-general in the organization's magazine and called attention to the copy of George Washington's first Thanksgiving proclamation also appearing in the November issue.

Copies of the first bulletin issued by the state regent were distributed to the members. It was reported that clothing valued at $50 had been shipped to Crossnore, a mountain school.

Mrs. B. L. Carter, Jr., soloist, and Miss Commack, pianist, were presented by the hostess and rendered a musical program.

The speaker of the afternoon was Dr. A. D. Frank of the faculty of E. C. T. C.

Members voted to dispense with the December meeting and meet in January in the home of Mrs. J. W. Parker, at which time Miss Gertrude Caraway, state regent, will be guest speaker.

Guests were invited into the dining room where Miss Mary Harding served salad from one end of the table, which was centered with an arrangement of red roses, and Mrs. Guy Smith poured coffee at the other end.

Decorated cakes, cheese straws, sandwiches, pickles and nuts were also served.

Special guests were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Ficklen Arthur, Mrs. McGee, Mrs. Carter, Miss Commack and Miss Hardy.

met with Mrs. Lloyd Allen Tuesday evening to make plans for the meeting, which will be a Christmas social affair and will be at the home of Mrs. H. M. Moye.

During a short social hour, Mrs. Allen served coca colas, candies and salted peanuts.

WALSTONBURG AMATEUR CONTEST WINNERS SELECTED

An amateur talent contest held Friday night at the Walstonburg high school netted its sponsors, Circle 2 of the Christian Woman's Missionary society, $40.55.

Cash prizes donated by the merchants were awarded the following: dramatics—first, Miss Evelyn Fields; second, Miss Doris Wheeler; instrumental music—first, Donald Baucum of Farmville; second, Miss Imogene Redick; vocal—first, Miss Jane Kittrell; second, a quartet composed of Charlie Letchworth and Misses Ruby Burch, Paige Davis and Mary Irma Rivers.

Judges were Mrs. L. B. Bennett of Arthur and Mrs. Harvey Gay and Miss Charlotte Bordeaux of Saratoga.

H. C. Burch was master of ceremonies. Mrs. J. C. Gardner is president of Circle 2.

MRS. MARY B. EASTWOOD

Mrs. Mary Belcher Eastwood, 72, wife of the late J. M. Eastwood, died at the home of a son near Farmville early Friday morning following several years of illness. Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Key Taylor, Methodist minister of Walstonburg. Interment was in the Fountain cemetery. Surviving are three sons, J. M. Eastwood, with whom she lived, C. L. Eastwood of Walstonburg, and T. S. Eastwood of Washington, N. C., and 21 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

LOCAL BUS STATION AGENT ATTENDS SAFETY MEETING

Mrs. Pearl G. Shearin, agent at the Farmville bus station, attended a one day safety and sales conference of bus station officials at Raleigh, on Thursday, November 20. The conference was arranged by Carolina Trailways.

Gob: I'm a man of few words. Will you marry me?
Girl: Well, I wouldn't ordinarily, but you've talked me into it.
