

Miss Martha H. Jefferson Weds Robert P. Pierce

Views Spoken In Formal Ceremony In Fountains Presbyterian Church

Fountains — A wedding characterized by impressive dignity and beauty was solemnized in a formal ceremony at the Presbyterian Church last Friday evening, November 21, at 8:30, when Miss Martha Harden Jefferson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Jefferson, became the bride of Robert Pittman Pierce, of Farmville, son of Mrs. Louise Tinker Pierce, Sr., of Farmville, and the late Mr. Pierce. The Rev. E. S. Coates, of the Farmville Presbyterian Church, pastor of the bridegroom, and the Rev. A. G. Courtney, Presbyterian minister of Raleigh, a former pastor of the bride, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Long leaf pine, smilax and Oregon fern formed an effective background for the pedestal baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli and for the cathedral candles in floor candelabra and in the church windows. Aisle posts with festoons of greenery, used to enhance the setting for the wedding tableaux, were marked by a single white chrysanthemum and a burning taper.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner, organist of the Farmville Baptist Church, played Schubert's "Serenade," "Estrellita," by Ponce-Kohlmann, "Cavalleria Rusticana," by Mascagni, "Song to the Evening Star," by Wagner, "Poem," by Ellich, and "Angels Serenade," by Bragh. Elbert G. Holmes, baritone, of Farmville, sang "Beloved It is Morn'" and "Because," by d'Harlelot. The traditional wedding marches were used, "To a Wild Rose," by Macdowell, was played during the ceremony and Lutkin's Benediction was rendered by Mr. Holmes at the close.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of ivory duchess satin made with a fitted bodice of Alencon lace over satin with a net yoke elaborately embroidered with seed pearls. The sleeves of lace were finished with points over the hands. The full skirt extended into a long train. Her veil of imported antique French illusion was attached to a cap of Brussels lace with orange blossoms and had been worn on the occasion of their wedding by her sisters, Mrs. Anthony D. Holland, of Richmond, Calif., and Mrs. Paul Ricks Burnette. She carried a bouquet of white orchids showered with white rosebuds and bouvardia. Her only ornament was (Continued on page five)

Thanksgiving

ONCE again the SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING is abroad in the Universe. We should be extremely grateful that Thanksgiving lives in our consciousness forever and forever. We must adjust ourselves to its harmonious effect upon every individual. Today men and women are beginning to witness a new era throughout our beloved country. On Thanksgiving Day let us meditate and hold close communion with our God and thus we attain finer thoughts and a higher vantage point of life.

Millions and millions of people walked on the hot coals of hatred and

War and confusion until their sense of guidance became blurred. Once again the sun is smiling through the clouds and pointing the way for each and every one of us. Let us not neglect this cordial invitation. It is DIVINE, man can never get away from his maker. There is a spark of the DIVINE in all CREATION; all that is necessary for us to be its beneficiary is to accept its spirit.

Let us make this Thanksgiving the finest ever.

LIFE

SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO KNOW WHAT A WOMAN WANTS—Of course she'll say she likes whatever you give her for Christmas. But you know the difference when she really does... and when she's just being polite.

A suggestion that is just right is a Cavalier Cedar Chest. Cavalier adds up on all the counts that mean most to a woman... real beauty to thrill her... usefulness she'll enjoy for years... a truly personal gift she'll love as her very own.

Come in now and choose her Christmas Cavalier Cedar Chest. You'll say it's the smartest Christmas buying you ever did. Then watch that smile, her gasp of pure joy, when she sees her Cavalier Cedar Chest Christmas morning. You'll know then for sure that this year you've given her a Christmas she'll always remember.
