WALSTONBURG PTA
"As a man thinketh, so is he" were the words around which the theme of the devotion was centered as it was conducted by Mrs. Scarlett M. Williamson at the regular monthly meeting of the Walstonburg Parent-Teacher Association on Thursday, December 4, at 7:30 in the school auditorium. Following Mrs. Williamson's very impressive message, the audience was led in prayer by A. J. Craft.
President I. J. Rouse extended a cordial welcome to the parents who were present and stressed the need and importance of a larger attendance. The minutes were read by Miss Mary Irma Rives, secretary, and approved by the association.
Mrs. A. J. Craft's sixth grade won the prize for having the largest percentage of parents present. The following committee was appointed to make plans for purchasing a piano for the school: Mrs. G. H. Walston, C. T. Hicks and Miss Mary Irma Rives. Several of the chairmen of the various committees gave reports on the activities of their groups.
J. R. Peeler, principal of the school, made a motion that the PTA be invited to see the highly recommended religious movie, "King of Kings," on Thursday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 in the school auditorium. This motion was adopted by the association and it was decided to have a very brief business meeting at that time and not have a regular meeting in January since it would come several days after the Christmas holidays and there would be little time for planning a program. All patrons and friends are urged to see the movie, "King of Kings," on Dec. 18, as it will be very worthwhile.
Miss Page Davis, program chairman, presented Carl T. Hicks, chairman of the Walstonburg school board, who talked on the "Need for a Vocational Agriculture Department." Mr. Hicks emphasized the fact that the need for a vocational agriculture department in the school is more acute than ever before and urged all patrons, as well as teachers, to contact the County Commissioners immediately and request action toward such a project.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again on December 18 at 7:30 for a short business session and to see "King of Kings." This meeting will take the place of the regular meeting in January.
