
Today's oil shortage is not ju

Secretary of the Interfor, home to Congress the oth midst rising clamor from most critical moment,

R. L. HUMBER ADDRESSES FARMVILLE LITERARY CLU

Coming Direct From Lake Su Where He Attended Security Council Sessions, Speaker Brought Current World Happenings To Club

Members of the Farmville Literary Club and guests, at the regular meeting on Wednesday, were electrificate by Robert Lee Humber's exposition of the present state of the world and of the world-wide scientific race in developing instruments for its destruction, which appears to be immi-nent to scientists and leaders in world affairs contacted, as he goes on his indefatigable way, preaching the gospel of a world federation as the only hope for the survival of civi-

Mr. Humber, a native of Greenville came direct to Farmville to fill this speaking engagement from Lake Sucthe Security Council, convening there, en from Romans 1 and Galatians and with the report, of the day be-fore of the Indonesian committee, Ernest circle of the Baptist Woman's fore, of the Indonesian committee, submitted by North Carolina's own Frank Graham, still ringing in his ears. A word picture of this sympos-ium of world leadership was given to this hearers as a preface to his ad-After adjournment the

The speaker outlined the causes of the present agitation in Palestine and gave warning of the possibility of this being the spark which may set Truett of Texas, Circle 2 of the Banoff another war. He recounted the tist Woman's Missionary society de-disaster wrought by the atomic bomb cided to change its name to the Truett in World War II; traced the develop-ment of gunpowder over 4000 years the home of Mrs. George Davis, in World War II; traced the developto the almost inconceivable explosive Monday afternoon. energy in the atomic bomb, saying Mrs. Chester Outland was elected that 15 judicially-placed bombs in the chairman of the group. Other offi-United States would destroy its industrial power in 58 seconds. and im- Lang Davis, co-chairman; Mrs. Capressed the fact, with all the force at rol Modlin, secretary-treasurer; Mrs his command, that the United States R. T. Williams, program chairman; has no monopoly on this instrument Mrs. G. D. Hathaway, community

f destruction.

He stated that this generation is young people's counsellor.

A review of an article, "What Shall witnessing the sruggle of a new age pointed to the effect of England's decision to halt tobacco purchases from the United Sates, a few months ago, material achievements or the gospel on Farmville, as demonstrating the of Christ. fact that in the field of economics it.

Nations as an organization of 57 nations with a many-sided treaty, Mr. pointed out its shortcomings its inadequacy to achieve or maintain keen us from being shoved off the God in Kingdom Building will be the precipice on which we now find our subject for the morning hour. selves is the immediate formation of a world government with world laws and power to enforce them," the speaker declared in presenting his serve with the president. Mrs. R. C. federation plan as working as simply Copenhaver, on the interdeno and effectively as is exemplified by a tional church council at the me community with its protective laws of the Episcopal auxiliary Monday and enforcement system embodied in afternoon. the police force, and on a larger scale | Scripture reading and a prayer as the Uinted States living under its made up the devotional which was constitution and power of Federal given by Mrs. Copenhaver, During ing immediate action in the federation movement as a leader of world peace, the speaker pointed out that every individual could take part by endorsing the plan and making an effort to bring representatives in Congress to a realization of the urgent need for federation and prompt action in this connection.

than all the armies of the earth

buring the course of his address, ing "The Holy City," followed by he speaker recalled the fact that he resented his federation plan to the lerry Matrons Club here soon after.

The harm which sleeted to the large which sleeted to the lar return to the States from France. ng its invasion by the Gerans, and that it was the first group Lost Soul."

Miss Annie Perkins, also a native of Greenville introduced the speak-er, who, in turn, paid tribute to her as an educator and as his Sunday School teacher during his boyhood. The business session, presided over by Miss Elizabeth Davis, was opened by the singing of the Clubwoman's flynn with Mrs. E. W. Holmes as ac-

Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner was the racious hostess at this meeting, held ther home, in which potted plants and cut flowers were used with ar-

At The Kiwanis Club

A group of young people from the Community Youth Center, directed by Miss Edna Boone, presented an en-tertaining series of folk dances from who had charge of the program, pre who had charge of the program, pre-sented Miss Boone.

Taking part in the folk dances were Nancy Kittrell, Paschall Bar-rett, Bob Morgan, Jehn R. Joyner, James Thorne, Jane Kittrell, Jean Cayton, Carolyn Roebuck, Pat Allen and Jack Williford.

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Miss Mamie Davis, chairman, pre ented the devotional, "Faith," tak

Missionary Society.

The first chapter of the book

After adjournment the hostess, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck, served cherry pie a la mode.

Honoring the late Dr. George missions chairman; Mrs. J. L. Creech

America Give to the World?", was

After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Strawberry chiffon pies, Giving honor due to the United nuts and coffee were served to

Rev. E. W. Holmes has plant patriotic service for the Sunday even ing service honoring Washington's birthday. His sermon topic will be "The only alternative I know to A Man Sent from God. Partners with

Mrs. R. S. Scott was appointed to law enforcement.

In emphasizing the grave responded buying materials for cleaning the sibility of the United States in tak-

Continuing the study of evangel Prayer adjourned the meeting held

Mrs. J. H. Harris was hostess to Mr. Humber closed with a potent Circle 4 Monday afternoon with 14 members and a visitor, Mrs. Ernest

The harm which alcohol can do to you and others was explained by Mrs. Claude Joyner, whose topic was "The Assisted by Mrs. Layne Dail, the hostess served Bayarian cream, an gel food cake and spiced tea.

Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr. Mary Magda lone was the topic of the program study led by Mrs. Herbert Har Prayers were led before and after he expert photographers from the studios, will all the necessary equip-ment for this specialized work, will be here on Tuesday, March 9. The special studio will be set up in the Farmville high school building and will be open from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m.

CRITICALLY ILL

Children's Pictures Will Be Publishe In The Enterprise

There is no charge to the parents!

There is absolutely no obligation to this invitation. There is no age lim
It means all sorts of things:

It means America's oil life line runs it. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers nor even readers of this newspaper. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want additional prints may obtain them by ar-rangement with the studio represen-tative when they select the pose they tative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper.

Parents will be happy, afterwards, if they let their children participate, and sorry if they don't. Parents and children alike will be proud to see their pictures published, and many of the climators will be shaken by the emergency of the climators will be a natural tendency to of the clippings will be saved until the youngsters are grown-up.

out the state.

"Farming—A Challenge to All,"
was submitted by A W. Lingle, vocational agricultural instructor at Mt. Ulla high school, and was the unanipinted to select the title for the conoriginator of the popular contest, stated, "I think the selection was excellent because it will make us all more conscious of the importance of farming in the American way of life; and I am sure that the thousands of rural boys and girls who will write on this subject will present many challenging thoughts will help us to focus the atsent many challenging thoughts tastically" interjected Secretary which will help us to focus the attention of all our citizens on the important role agriculture plays in

Mann said that an all-time record and, above all, coal, into oil. Mann said that an all-time record and, above all, coal, into the entry of more than 10,000 entries is expected for the 1948 contest which will be under the supervision of Robert A. Ponton, director of membership relations for the Farmers bership relations for the Farmers Secretary Krug did chittle arithmeters.

During the first 17 years of Coperative contests, more than 70,000

The prizes for the 1948 contest include a one-year fultion college scholarship and $100 in cash to the scholarship and $100 in cash to the state winner; $50 for second prize; $25 for third prize and $15 for fourth prize. State finals will be held in Raleigh early in May.

The winners of the district climinations to be held in May in Tarboro, Lumberton, Graham and States ville will advance to the State (mais require a huge synthetic oil industry he said, bigger than the one with which German natural scientists built to sustain the Beich during the war It would take 16,000,000 tons of stee

and the expenditure of $9,000,000,000.000 The war might be lost in advance he said, if a start on this new indus

Secretary Krug urged the Con and receive $25 as a prize. Second and third place winners receive $15 and $10 cash awards.

laycees Vote To Have Banquet And Dance Next Friday Nigh

At a business meeting Friday night in the town hall, members of the Farmville Junior Chamber of Commerce elected Dr. Frank Harris to the Board of Directors as successors Paul Allen, Ir., selected February as the date for the charter night banquet and dance, approved appropriate of fund-raising projects and discussed other matters of severa Here To Stay

Joyner, Jr., were appointed to investigate the possibility of the cluspensoring a carnival in Farmyill during the spring. pants, for aviation, for automobiles, for farmers, for Army and Navy, that there's no reasonable chance supplies ever will catch up again even if new supplies are discovered two miles underground.

Chester Outland, Charles Rasbe and Joe Joyner as members of now to the hot sands of Arabia, right

EXPECTED IN 1948

Interest in cotton production mong North Carolina farmers 1948 is the highest in 10 years, "Finally, and most dangerous of demand for oil. We had better start turn to cotton to replace, or partly planning for that now and get those synthetic plants started, even if it brought about by the reduction of 28

Subject For Co-op

Essay Contest Given

A year's college scholarship and $1,000 in cash awards will be offered to the winners of the 18th Annual Cooperative Essay Contest which is sponsored by the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association and the Farmers Cooperative Exand the Farmers Cooperative Exchange for rural boys and girls in North Carolina.

The title of the 1948 Cooperative Essay Contest will be "Farming—A Challenge to All," M. G. Mann, general manager of the sponsoring or exports any more, if possible Than it was control. Two of these insecticides, benzine that were coming in from all over the country, Mostly, he indicated, the communities had been cared for some way. But he did not want to cut oil exports any more, if possible Than the communities had been cared for some way. But he did not want to cut oil exports any more if possible Than the communities had been cared for some way. But he did not want to cut oil exports any more if possible Than the communities had been cared for some way. But he did not want to cut oil exports any more if possible Than the communities had been cared for some way.

the first iridescent oil slick on the Pennsylvania marshes, it has been assumed the petroleum supplies would let indefinitely be fort. Appearing the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the problem will be that of get before he produces it, rather than risk a price drop. Or a mill may buy some the performance of the last indefinitely. In fact American production is holding up, though its problem is securing enough pure production is holding up, though its wells are being pumped unmercifully and its back is being flogged like a thing it.

But one thing is laboring horse. But one thing is orable weather conditions during moving faster—demand. With only harvesting season in 1947, many of In announcing the title of the 1948 contest, Mann, who was the originator of the popular contest, stated, "I think the selection was contest, when the selection was stated, "I think the selection was contest, and the selection was stated, "I think the selection was contest, stated, "I think the selection was contest, and the selection was

1. To advise farmers and give publicity to the need for germina-tion tests made by the State Department of Agriculture on seed that are being considered for planting. 2. To make every effort to have all planting seed mechanically delinted. 3. Where facilities are available, to have seed mechanically definted. 4. To contact local seed dealers, cotton seed crushers, and ginners to ascer-tain their supply of planting cotton 2,000,000 additional barrels of oil a day, over and above what it is now seed. 5. To encourage seed dealer and farmers to purchase only Coke 100 Wilt Variety of cotton seed of tain one-variety cotton.

CLAUDE MONK

Funeral services were held Tu ome in Winston-Salem for L. Claude fonk, 60, of that city, who died sudmetery. Mr. Monk was in the grocery busi-ess and was a member of the Bap-

Starts Monday In Greenville

At The Rotary Club

Orthopedic Clinic Greenville, February 27

in Greenville, Friday, Feb. 27, fro in Greenville, Friday, Feb. 27, from 12:30 to 4:00 p. m.

This Clinic takes all types of cripples, both white and colored, free of charge who are unable to afford private treatments. It is desired, though not required, that patients be referred by a physician or the Welfare Officer, and that the patient bring such note to the Clinic,
The Clinic is set up to serve especially the Counties of Beaufort, sire to come may do so.

The Clinic is conducted by Dr. Hugh
A. Thompson, orthopedist; Raleigh.
This Clinic has been running for This Clinic has been some over seven years and is now some over seven years and is now serving a large number of cripples, serving a large number of cripples, adults as well as children in this area.

The Pitt County Health Department Offices are located at the corner of 3rd and Greene Streets, Greenville, North Carolina.

HOW DOES COTTON PRICE

A lot of people are wondering what

Challenge to All," M. G. Mann, general manager of the sponsoring or ganizations, has announced.

The title was chosen from a tist of more than 300 titles submitted by agreed the need for a big-scale synthetic oil industry to be started at once.

The title was chosen from a tist of showed the need for a big-scale synthetic oil industry to be started at once.

The main problem the cancelling out a promise to deliver. Futures are bought and sold to protect money invested in the actual protect money invested in the actual product. A farmer, for example, may once, other problem will be that of get.

Anyway, the long-term situation showed the need for a big-scale synthetic oil industry to be started at once.

The main problem the cancelling out a promise to deliver.

Futures are bought and sold to protect money invested in the actual product. A farmer, for example, may once, other problem will be that of get.

Anyway, the long-term situation showed the need for a big-scale synthetic oil industry to be started at once.

The main problem are cancelling out a promise to deliver.

Futures are bought and sold to product. A farmer, for example, may duct. A farmer, for example, may sell his cotton in the futures market of the winning team captains.

Admission to the games will be 25 and 50 cents.

han risk a price rise. Futures are also bought and by speculators who take a risk in the hopes of making a profit.

When cotton futures began dropping recently, spot prices began drop-brings support prices down. Support prices are set by the government. They establish loan values, and provide a floor for prices. But they are based on "parity," which in turn is based on commodity prices. If commodities fall, parity falls—and support prices will follow suit.

Does it hurt the spot cotton dealers. Not if he was protected by functional formulation of mankind is made in crises such as now, added the speaker, whose address was centered around the church and its relationship to the world, community and individual.

This dinner, attended by around 110 people, climaxed a series of special stewardship services and also celebrated the week of compassion. An er? Not if he was protected by fu-ator who didn't insure himself, who guessed right and sold futur while the price was high. Now can buy them at a lower price to ful-fill his contract, and pocket the dif-

Why did cotton prices drop?

Miss Resemany Holmes of Raleigh Shaw Air Porce will spend the week and with her partial Greenville Carolina.

ermville Girls Play Stokes At 4:80 On Opening Day; Farmville Boys Play Belvoir Tuesday After-noon At 4:30 bounty play, the local boys will play heir opening game Tuesday after soon at 1:30, with Belvoir as the op-position. Winner of this game will play the winner of the Grifton Bethel, in the boys' division, re as the favorite team and was seeded number one. Grifton was awarded the placed first, Arthur second, Farmvill third and Grimesland fourth. The schedule follows:

Boys' Games

Mon., 3:30. Winterville-Chicod; 7:00
p. m., Ayden-Arthur; 9:00, Grifton-Tues., 4:30. Farmville-Belvoir; 8:00 m., Bethel-Stokes.

Girls' Game Mon., 4:30, Farmville-Stokes; 8:00 m., Grimesland-Bellvoir. Tues., 3:30, Arthur-Chicod: 7:00

p. m., Ayden-Bethel; 9:00, Winter The following regulations have drawn up: Players are to vote individually at their schools on the team that has market and a futures market.

On a spot market you deal with nament. Votes to be counted and totals presented to the Athletic Committee not later than 8 o'dlock Tues.

accept or deliver cotton at a future nament teams. Selections are to be date. Phey may not ever result in presented to the Athletic Committee anxious for Christianity now than over before, Dr. H. Glenn Haney, pasping too.

DR. HANEY SPEAKS AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Does it hurt the farmer? Not if church Greenville, appealed to members sold all his last season's cotton, had cotton men here say the big majority of the farmers have sold out.

It may have the farmers later if it

This climer, attended by around 110 people, climaxed a series of species stewardship services and also celebrated the week of compassion. An offering was taken for overseas relief and Robert Rouse, chairman of the finance committee, presented the pledge cards which were signed.

group singing with Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson as accompanist. A girls' trio composed of Misses Ruth Moore, Ann Bynum and Gayle Flan-agan, sang' Lo. a Rose E'er Bloomerved the dinner. Sam D. Bundy pro-punced the invocation. Mrs. Haney was a special guest.

RMY HAS VACANCIES AT MANY AIR BASES

1st Lt. George C. Blinebury, con nanding officer of the Greenville r ruiting office sub-station, announce