TO BE OBSERVED

Special Programs To Be Held In The Churches Here Sunday

BY R. L. DENMARK

Mothers' Day, a season of the year hat has become memorable to the earts of many, will be duly observed next Sunday in Goldsboro and thruout the state with special exercises n the churches and Sunday schools. Sunday school superintendents here have sent out personal letters to their respective members urging them to make no other engagements for next Sunday morning other than to be present for the special program to be conducted at the various Sunday schools and make the day a mem-

In urging his members to be pres. ent on this day at the Sunday school hour a superintendent gives the following reason why a special effort should be made on this day in the following: "You and I have memories of children's day back in the old Sunday school when we were harefoot kids.

"Renew those days again. Mothers' Day. Live over with me again on Mothers' Day the happy times of childhood when you crawled into the old shay with Mather and Father and to halance of the kids and drove to the Sunday school of yesteryear."
In connection with Mothers' Day. Hospital Day for the Baptists of North Carolina will also by observed next Sunday in North Carolina at which time the activities of the Baptist Hospital located in Winston-Salem will be reviewed and some financial aid will be shown to this hospital of which the North Carolina

Baptista are duly proud. Being a member of the Board of Printees of this hospital. Dr. Zeno Wall will no doubt want the memhers of his church to be the first to spond to this worthy cause by conThirty Shot
