

and Watterson R. Rothacker.

CHAPTER IX-Continued lenger, patting me upon the shoul What occurred was this. Lord

"The rain must go somewhere." an ajouti-which is it having been given to the in-an, we were cooking the other

T a little distance across the Well, suddenly out of the as, out of the night, there ed that if it does not come outsomething with a swish wards it must run inwards.

a accopiane. The whole of a were covered for an by a cauppy of leathery of a long, smake-like neck. "Then there is a lake in the cen-ter."" "So I should suppose." "It is more than likely that the lake may be an old crater," said ce, red, greedy eye, and a Summerlee. "The whole forma-mapping beak, filled, to my tion is, of course, highly volcanic. with little, gleaming But, however that may be, I should The next instant it was expect to find the surface of the and so was our dinner. A plateau slope inwards with a con-black shadow, twenty feet siderable sheet of water in the in instant the monster wings some subterranean channel, into the stars, and then it the marshes of the Jaracaca er the brow of the cliff Swamp."

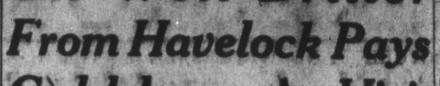

us. We all sat in amazed round the fire, like the of Virgil when the Harpies down upon them. It was the first to were as incomprehensible as Chi-fessor, Challengen," said he, light voiled, which quavered motion, "I owe'you an apolonese to the layman.

On the sixth day we complet Sir, I am very much in the our first sircuit of the cuffs, and found ourselves back at the first camp, beside the isolated pinnacle camp, beside the isolated pinnacle of rock. We were a disconsolate party. for inothing, could have been more minute than our inves-tigation, and it was absolutely cer-tain that there was no aincle point where the most active human beof rock. We were a disconsolate party. for mothing, could have been more minute than our invesing could possibly hope to scale the cliff. The place which Maple Ditt ARTAR But R' prehistoric life existed White's chalk-marks had indicated on the plateau it was not super as his own means of access was undant, for we had no further now entirely impassable. TYSE mpse of it during the next three What are we to do now? . Our what are we to do now? Our stores of provisions, supplemented by our guns, were holding out well, but the day must come when they of many wild-fowl, upon the couple of months the tains might ad east of the cliffs. From section the place is really washed out of our camp. The rock was harder than marble, and any which runs at the attempt at cutting a path for so have had to turn buck. Time or resources would admit, imes we were up to our No wonder that we locked groom n the slime and blubber liy at each other that night, and old, semi-tropical swamp, sought our blankets with hardly

THE GOLDSBORO NEW

Has Conference With Mr. Black-burn Who Has Been Mak-ing Geological Survey Battle La (By "COTTON" WARRICK)" SAYS OIL PROSPECTS GOOD

Mr. A. Orr, a temporary resident of our city yesteroas. Mr. Orr, an experienced driller of wells, came here to see Mr. J. E. ckburn, who has been in the city wveral weeks making a geological survey of this section of Eastern North Carolina,

Oil We

Mr. Orr is now in charge of the operation of drilling for oil at Havelock and state sthat he has every reason to believe that soon as they penetrate the rock they are now drilling through that there will be news for all of Eastern North Carolina. After having seen and talked to

Mr. Blackburn, Mr. Orr said: "That man Blackburn is a practical oil man with a good supply of information and actual knowledge." Mr. Orr. statel, that while . Mr. Blackburn, was noncommittal, and he not little information from him, yet he related certain facts which some ed safe and sound as regards the outlook. Mr. Orr stated that after having duilled, is many profacing fields in-Texas, Nevada and other states Waynes county prospecta were very promising. Mr. Orr was on his way to White. ville, Columbus county, where he exnects to confer with citizens of that town in regneri to some project in that section but expects to return to Goldsboro in a week or ten days, Ho could make no connection with Mr. Bhikburn and reached the congrusion that some large oil interests are behind Mr. Blackburn's investigation, However, he says it will cost only $30,000 dollars to drill a will and that Kinston and Goldsboro could easily spend, that amount should reolectical reports have a tendency to hasky such a course.

ministrations

9224

prayerful consideration.

te think table & which which

Hunger Strike Wins Prisoner's Freedom

DANVILLE, Va., June 6.-C. H Methandless, of Kentucky, former legislative candidate, who had been fasting and thisting in the city juil during record-breaking temperatura blue Mandaysteron ale fisht for fret-Sym this accurate when the jail there a survey a were opened to upm. J. R. Oliver and puter

Goldsboro A Visit President Few Announces Re-Election of Officers Of Board Praises James B. Duke DURHAM, June 8 .- With a full attendance, the Duke University board of trustees met here this afternoon to hear the annual report of Prsi-dent Waltim P. Few. No annuhice-ments were made at the close of the Battle LaGrange

DUKE SCHOOL

MADE TODAY

The Oak Heights baseball train of this city will battle the LaGrange Buildors today at four e'clock. The City Club was scheduled to fight the building a marking of LaGrange are building a marking the boys, there-fore the game of all games will be hattled at the Orphans Home dia- Joseph G, Brown, Raleigh, president; mond. All haueball fans who like Rev. T. F. Marr, Salisbury, vice baseball come this atternoon, and putsident, and Prof. R. L. Flowers, cheer the boys along. secretary-treasurer, of Duke, record The Edgewood team goes to Pikeing secretary. ville today to fight it out with the The report of President Few, which Pikeville club, A good game is as. sured to all who will come today. has been printed in pamphlet form, The admission is only 25 cents, Come | was ' received with much interest by one, come all. the trustees. President Few would be The City baseball park will be non-sectarian, liberal, tolerant and completed within the next few days, would stand for academic freedom. as was announced by one of the man. He stated that the old order of things agers of the local teams last night. s inevitably passing and that Duke iniversity wind in forward zs a

If you want to open a Pullhuta resson confidence that Duke would chair car window, just throw your wentually, take .. rank ; among the srip through it, and a di the and treatest universities in America. In

Why I'm Glad I Bobbed My Hair

BY ALLEEN PRINGLE lower. But distinction comes only to the leader of the crowd, and the DON'T suppose any other girl who is individual enough to be girl ever had her hair ndependent obbed for the same rea-

As to being lazy-listen to this! son that prompted me to If I were that I shouldn't be spendsubmit to the barber's ing long, weary hours in the studio When one has or on the production lot while the reached womanhood and has director orders scenes to be sher en several years on the stage over and over again. There's roand before the screen, appearing in verious characterizations but mance in film work, and entertainways with her femiuine "crownment and fun, but, most of all, hard, relentless work. ing glory" in the length and abun-Of course I know, too, that short dance that Nature intended, for one to expose one's locks to the hair is a comfort in dancing. It stays put. While you are whirling shearing process is a strp to, be taken only after profound and about you are not in constitut terror lest your permanent wave is at high tide and is casting its spray at bigh tide and is casting iders as over your partner's shoulders as well as your own. But it wasn's even that that determined my decision, nor yet the assurance of some of the pro-bobbists that bobbed hair prevents congestion of the brain. I struggled along several years without cutting my hair. . and, as far as I was able to judge, suffered no impairment of my mental faculties. Now, at last, to tell you why i did sacrifice my locks. It was part ly because I was getting a reputation as a screep vampire, and I have a perfect horror of that. My word, he asserted that he Given 45 to 65 ald be less than human if he did of feel greatly indebted to James B. Mr. Duke," he said, "is giving out miller, last of the four men convict-aly his' money, but is giving his ed for the robbery of the home of Alme, his unsurpassed business abil- bert R. Shattaics, retired banker, in ty and matured wisdom, in short, Washington square, to ity way te is giving himself to this great undertaking."

Bad Weather Awaits Amundsen Relief Ship

OSLO. Norway, June 7. (A)-After gen, with the Norwegian govern- the gang, Eugene Diaset and ment's Amundsen relief expedition Bagnoll, now are serving ter

The advices said spring. with a mild temperature had set in, and that a light fog was hanging over the water, making it impossible to see the coast of Spitzbergen from the Amunden expedition vessels, Fram and Hobby .

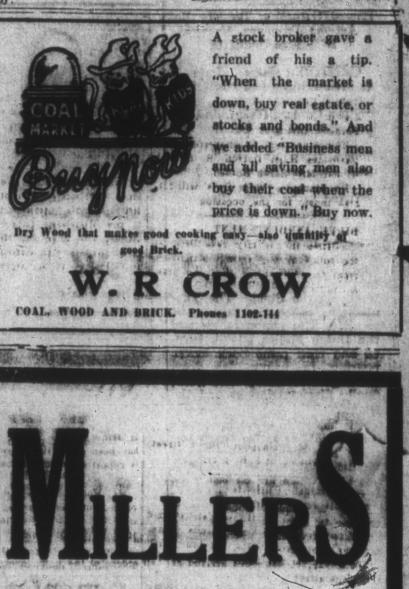

actor of the university. NEW YORK, June 6,-- Hauty tencel to strve from 45 to 65 years in

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 10

Sing Sing. Judge Roarliky Meveraty denounced the defendant and his confoderates for enlangering the lives of ten persons-the Shattuck f'amily and their servants-by locking them in a wine vault before the rolliery.

Gabriel A. Morey, leader of the the steamer ingertre sailed yesterday prisonment in France, for his share afternoon from Horten for Spitzber- in the crime. Two other members of 40 to 50 years in Sine "Sing.

> CUNBURN Apply Vicks say light

IS THE PLACE-THE REXALL STORE and a faither a see that a set all the analtas JUNE SALE OF TOILET GOODS

ANPARAGES

MAL DABAR

the whole group of us were covered for an instant by a canopy of leathery wings.

med to be a favorite breeding. that as I dropped off to steep my te matters worse, the place a word exchanged. I remember of the Jaracaca snake, the last recollection was that Challen us and aggressive in ger was squatting, like a mon-America. Again and again strous bull-frog, by the fire, his America. Again and again strout outrition, by the little and huge head in his hands, sunk ap huge head in his hands, sunk ap parently in the deepest thought, and entirely oblivious to the good-night and entirely oblivious to the good-could feel safe from them. One lenger who greeted us in the more we could feel aste from them. One funnel-shaped depression in the memans, of a livid green in color from some lichen which festered in its will advest remain as a night mare memory in my mind. It meems to have been a special nest of these vermins, and the slopes the sur direction, for it is a peculiar ity of the Jaracaca that he will always attack man at first sight. the Jaracaca that he will s attack man at first sight. were too many for us to no we fairly took to our and ran until we were ex-ted. I shall always remom-a we looked back how far be-to the heads and theads and the heads an er as we lo nd we could see the heads and the our horrible pursuers ling and falling amid the reeds. Fracaca Swamp we named it in shining through his beard. "Gen-

map which we are constructtlemen, you may congratulate me on the farther side rady tint being in color; the smore scattered of them, and they iree or four hundred but in no place did int where they could if anything, they and we may congratulate each cliffs, spon the farther side chine apon the farther side out their raddy tint, being atc-haswn in color; fre-tion was more scattered the top of them, and they sunk to three or four hundred in height, but in no place did respine where we had protect the point where we had protect where we had protect the point wh whe can never get stross," Surely," said T, as we discussed situation. "the rain must and way down somehow. There are not to be water-channels in the

the resources of an inventive mind

redity," said Professor Clad (To Be Continued)

COLDSHORD .....

no exercise the prisoners, I getwa bond covering Me-Candless' ine, and, under the "hiring-out law" of Virginia, Magistrate Carter suspended the 30-day jail sentence of McCandless.

McCandless, who was accused of handling liquor, yielded this morning when the jail physician told bim he was a sick man, and drank a little water. This afternoon he demurred at being fed and the doctor was about to administer food by force when he trank a little milk. He was removed lu an automobile to a hotel after nethe scattlaned by the doctor to est

WENAS ASES COURSESY BE SHOWN FOREIGN CORPS.

RALEIGH, Jun 6 At the request of Frank B. Kellogg, sceretary o mate of the United States, Governor McLean has insued an official proclamation to officials of North Carolina and its political subdivisions, requesting them to extend full courtesies to any and all members of the "creign diplomatic corps who may visit this state.

"This request," said a statement ssued from the governor's office today, "is probably made in anticipa tion of the fact that members of the ciplomatic corps' may visit North Carolina this summer and it is desiroi that they be assured every om ort and consideration." Members of the foreign diplomiti: corps, it was pointed out, will in he future carry identification cards ## bearing the coat of arms of the United States in gold.

SHRINERS LEAVE WITH SOISE 'LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 6 .-Farewells, noisy, but regrotful, chsounded in railroad stations today as the steam caravans of a seore set Shrine temples departed this 1925 mecca of the Ancient Arabic Order, nobles of the mystic shrine.

The business of the convention yesterday and the colorful prgeant o' the conclave came to a brilliant climax in two parades last night, one the official shrine parade, with its marching bost of nobles and gatly ostumed petrols, bands and chanters; other a dazzling pareantry of Josep

"The Store! 'or You"

slate.

hair, you see, grew very long, and to part it in the middle and brush long, and it down on both sides seemed the only way to dress it. That, of course, is the severest of forms, and it accentuated the "vamp" impression

When I wasn't being mistaken for a vampire I was described as "statuesque," and here again the

I hesitated for a long, long time plain, severe dressing was partly I considered the subject pro and responsible. Now, I am not a con, consulted with friends, direc-Dorie or lonic creation. 1 am not tors and mere acquaintances, lismonumental in any sense. And 1 tened to all the stock arguments recoil quite as much at the idea, of that have ever been advanced, both being pigeon-holed in pictures, of for and against, and weighed the being typed, as at the thought of being made a "wamp," I feel that my range is sufficiently, broad to often

Even after reaching a final con-clusion it was with fear and trembling that I approached the bac-ber's chair. But the experience equipped me to impersonate Marie Antoinette on the screen and I hope the opportunity may one day be mine. I know now how she felt. when she went to the guillotine. It was less than a month ago that I suffered the shears to touch my locks but already I'm glad 1 did it. I'm a convert and my conversion was complete, it "took." Mr. Figaro may count me among his faithful customers henceforth. But. I repeat. 1 joined the bob bers for a reason pecultarly, even uniquely, my own. Long and patiently as 1 listened to the argu-ments that were poured into any ears, and carefully as I considered them, I was not in the end swayed by any of them in giving my indi-by any of them in giving my individual endorsement to the bob? I Alf the don't want to be understood as try-ing to influence any other girl. I have wo am speaking for myself only, and complete without the reason that I shall be to be a weak in the reason that I shall be to be a

without the reason that for the property is a minute or two, girls am new sure that I should have let my plantre Most girls whe bob do to, I sup just pose, because they want to look "vampish" nor "statuesque," and I younger than they are, or because felt at once that my bobbling it happens to be the style, or be vindicated. So-Fm glad!" cause they are lazy. Now. I'm not Perhaps bobbed hair has other a thousand years old and I have no real merits than the one i have indesire to be or to appear a day dicated. I haven't meant to make younger than 1 am-really! So light of the reasons that prompt wipe that consideration off the other girls to use the shears.

And I am not such a slave to cause of that one reason that was fashion that i feel bound to adopt every passing draze, every whim and fancy that affect others. It's bition that controls me I might pure willing be set a fdi atby. Who knows? Hards as babbes, a Page u're willing be set a fdi atby. Who knows? Hards as bab inces of the rouncry Barr tails order WLS 11 the protector these through the "Faim Question Heating answers the questions by letter as soon as the desired informa-tion is available. Every Wedneeday evening on the R. I. program has gives an interesting into entried "Farm Firtherings". These tails deal more with the romance and historical matters pertenting to agriculture

We are offering all through t month the following articles, greatly reduced prices Lemon Cocoa Butter Lotion.

Many of these articles when purchased, also carry FREE GOODS with them. andreis and the pay all the second sanger clargers I argues magnes ware in such a sure Brilliantine, Jonteel Talccum, Jonteel Cold Cream, Jonteel Rouge, Jonteel and Cara Nome Compacts, Rexaline Soap, Junine Talcum, Lilac and Violet Toilet Waters, Cara Nome Talcum, Milk Magnesia Tooth Paste, Bay Rum, Harmony Hair Tonic, Cara Nome Vanity Boxes, Petroleum Hair Rub, Arbutus Vanishing Cream, Jonteel Face Powder, Cara Nome Face Powder. 8 0

We Are Giving Away Parata and Cara Nome Perfume, Cara Nome Talcum, Jonteel Toilet Soap. Goods now on display in our window, also inside store. 25.8340

いていなう ちゃくちょうかい うち あいしん GOLDSBORO DRUG CO.

北京的市场、市场市场上,这位主任中国地域的现象力是一边的专家的中国

Torney from a professional visit so Atlantic City. The webta shariti states that he also writed arbitry Berk, the habitet, of the wunited