

Leaders Will Play Tail-Enders in Inter-County Today

Pikeville Comes To Goldsboro For Game With Mountaineers

Dorsett Says All Regulars To Be In Line-Up At Four This Afternoon

EDGERTON WILL PITCH

Edgewood Goes To Snow Hill, And Eureka Plays LaGrange, Cedar Champions

Manager Dorsett announced last night that anybody who missed today's game between Oak Heights and Pikeville would certainly regret it for the balance of their days. He stated that all his regulars would be back in the line-up, and that a number of new faces might be seen. Marvin Edgerton will likely draw the heaviest assignment, which means that Pikeville will by no means have a walk-over. Pikeville is a present rooting comfortably in second place, while the Mountaineers are tied with Edgewood for fourth place. However, as shown by the defeat Tuesday of Oak Heights by the much-abused LaGrange team, paper dogs don't amount to so terribly much. Any day, if you want to see a REAL game, being your quarter with you to the William street park, and root CLEANLY for the home boys.

Edgewood and Snow Hill. Edgewood, who journeyed to Wilmington yesterday for a game with a city team there, receiving (incidentally) a 14 to 3 licking, will take the 10:30 train to Snow Hill, Greens county, baseball stronghold, for a tussle with the holders of third place, Snow Hill, who will certainly fight hard for this spot, as a victory for her and a defeat for Pikeville would put them in second place. Edgewood has a strong team, and as such be looked to for some rest opposition. The Foresters can tie Snow Hill for third place by winning today, and with that in mind, will not be inclined to make the job of licking them an easy one for Snow Hill.

Leaders and Tail-Enders. Here's the big game. The leader, Eureka, will play LaGrange, the cedar champions. It is understood that the Lenoir county boys have been quite "cocky" since they licked Oak Heights last Tuesday, and Dr. Whitt's bunch better not take anything for granted. They can't lose their top position, but a defeat for them and a win for Pikeville would place them in a tie for the lead. The inhabitants of the "Garden Spot" may upset the dope, and ring up a win over Eureka. Who knows?

ADVANCES ANNOUNCED BY COOPERATIVES (Continued from page 4) he was connected with Chas. O'Neill & Company of Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. James is a native of York, S. C., and a graduate of Davidson College. He will take up his new duties with the association about August 20. Mr. James succeeds Lawrence McRae, who has been filling the position of sales manager in a most satisfactory manner for the past three years. Mr. McRae has decided to return to his former home—Greensboro, N. C.

ENGINEER ON SOUTHERN SAYS LET KARNAK DO IT

"If You Are Not Feeling Good Just Take A Tip From Me and Get Karnak—This Medicine Will Sure Fix You Up," Says Milton. Says John C. Milton of 206 Mulberry street, Greenville S. C., popular engineer on the Southern railroad for the past eleven years: "If you are not feeling good, just take a tip from me and get Karnak—this medicine will fix you up—and won't be long about it either. "I want you to know for the past two years I suffered from acid stomach and indigestion so bad I couldn't eat a single meal without being miserable for hours afterward," continued Mr. Milton. "Sour gas would form on my stomach, in such quantities it would make me twitch the worst kind, and there would be an awful dry, burning sensation in my throat.

BOBBY JONES WILL DEFEND TITLE SOON

Tournament Starts At Oakmont, Pa., Country Club Last Day of Month

SKETCH OF CAREER

Noted Atlanta Gaffer Has Had Eventful Career; Began Quite Young

(NOTE: This is the gist of a series of sketches of prominent golfers for the national amateur golf championship at the Oakmont Country Club, Pittsburgh, Pa., August 21 to September 5.)

OAKMONT, Pa., Aug. 13 (By Associated Press).—Robert T. Jones, Jr., an Atlanta stock little veteran of golf competition, is well prepared to defend his national amateur title at the Oakmont Country Club in the tournament starting the last day of this month. Bobby's record in tournament medal and match play for the last four years stands alone and figures show him to be the most consistently brilliant of American golfers. He finished second in the national open three years ago, won it in 1923, finished second again in 1924 and this year at Worcester he was defeated for the championship by Willie Morfariello, only one stroke separating the professional and the amateur after 36 extra holes had been played. Jones has grown up in golf, winning his first tournament in 1910 at the age of eight—a special children's event in Atlanta. Two years later he captured his club's junior event, and when 19 years old he reached the finals of the national amateur at Oakmont, losing to Davy Herten, 5 and 4. In getting the title Jones eliminated Jim Munton, Bob Gardner, Rudy Knopper and W. C. Poyner, an astounding record.

In 1921 he was fifth in the national open and in the amateur lost to the then British champion, Willie Hunter, in the third round, after he had upstaged Clarence Wolf and Dr. O. F. Wilting. A year later Bobby encountered an irrepressible Brazen at Skikie in the national open and finished second, one stroke behind. Then he proceeded to work through to the semi-finals of the amateur when he bowed to Jess Sweetser, 5 and 7.

Wins Title

The year 1923 brought a different story and for the first time he gained a national crown at Inwood in the open, although he had to defeat Bob Cruickshank in a playoff. He led the medallist with 149 in the amateur, but went down before Max Marston in the third round. Marston eventually won the championship in a battle with Sweetser.

Jones made an exceptional bid for double national honors in the open of 1924 at Oakland Hills, but again a professional who before the tournament was far from a favorite, Cyril Walker of Englewood, N. J., came through and Bobby had to content himself with second place. But he rannexed the amateur crown after years of struggle, defeating George Von Elm at Merion in a goal match that lasted only 12 holes.

Chicago wants to be a state all by itself. And there are lots of folks which want to wag dogs.

Miss Mildred Walker.

Open air is good for people, but don't keep your teeth out in the open too long at a time.

YOU TELL 'EM

Swon, N. C., Aug. 13, 1925. Goldsboro News, Goldsboro, N. C.

"Dear Editor: Kill me while I'm happy. I have pulled and pulled for LaGrange and just as I had pulled off all but one callus button, oh Lord, please my times, if LaGrange didn't win a game. "You see, Mr. Editor, we are near neighbors of LaGrange, our boys go to see their gals and their girls come to see our boys and we keep in pretty close touch with all that goes on in this section.

"We believe that should LaGrange win the pennant that 'The Garden Spot' of the world would then be a certainty.

"I'm betting on the home boys, and if a few drops of sparkling moonshine will help them, whisper it in their ears so softly that the Sherlock Holmes in your city won't scent the trail.

"A LaGrange Supporter."

KNOW YOUR OWN STATE

"The Land of the Sky"

If you live in the Coastal Plain or on the Piedmont Plateau it may be hard for you to realize that within a few hours' motor drive of Asheville there are one hundred mountains over one mile high! Do you wonder they call it the "Land of the Sky"? Did you know that Mt. Mitchell, for instance, is the highest point east of the Rockies? And that you can drive clear to the top over a good road?

The top of Mt. Mitchell, by the way, is a State Park, where you can get some idea of the original forest beauty and wild life of the Highlands of Western Carolina. Another interesting trip from Asheville is to the Cherokee Reservation, out beyond Bryson City, where you can see some of the descendants of the original inhabitants. Nearer at hand, there are many beautiful drives and walks through the Biltmore Estate of the late George W. Vanderbilt, and through Pisgah National Forest and Game Preserve.

Your "Standard" Tour Book, mailed to every registered motorist this Spring, shows the roads to Asheville from every section of the state and suggests many other interesting trips in North Carolina. Wherever you go you will always find it easy to get "Standard" Gasoline. It is the old reliable source of power, the choice of the majority of motorists on tour. At red pumps with the familiar sign of the "bar and circle" or the "Standard S".
