TIGERS WIN A ONE-SIDED GAME

The baseball game at the William Street Playground—ground between the William Street Wildcats and the Edmondson Hill Tigers ended disastrously for the Tigers yesterday. The Wildcats scored 16 runs in the third inning. The Tigers must have got disgusted because they threw down their bats and left the field. This was not so good a game because some of the Tiger players were not present and the effect of this could be seen easily.

A fast game of ball is expected at the Webb-Town Playground this afternoon. The William Street Wildcats will play the Webb-Town Panthers.

This morning a horseshoe tournament will be staged at the William Street Playground. Singles and doubles will be played. If you are a good horseshoe player don't fail to come to William Street playground in the morning.

MAD DOG SCARE IN NEW HOPE

William Broadus of New Hope township yesterday had a harrowing experience with a mad dog on his farm six miles from the city. The farm animal, suddenly seemed to run wild, and chased for the night in the field where Broadus was working. The latter noticed that the animal was acting queerly. He searched for some weapon with which to defend himself. Nothing could be found. The negro took to his heels. Round and round the mule and plow in the field, the dog chased the man. Deputy Sheriff W. P. Grant happened to pass at that time and ended the chase by shooting the dog.

SEVEN CASES OF TYPHOID IN COUNTY

There are now seven cases of typhoid fever out of them in Scotland town this. It was reported yesterday at the Wayne county health department. Scotland has for several years now seen a recurrence of this disease each year. The department hopes by vaccinating a large per cent of the citizens in its recent anti-typhoid campaign to eliminate the disease from the county. In the first two days of the campaign approximately 1000 people were given the first treatment of the vaccination.

DR. SPENCE IN WAYNE BUILDING

Dr. E. B. Spence, optician, has taken offices on the fifth floor of the Wayne National Bank building. Yesterday he requested The News to deny for him reports that he had gone out of the optical business. He declares that his new quarters are much better for his business than his former office on West Walnut street.

HOOD BANK DECLARES DIVIDEND

The directors of the Hood System Industrial Bank at their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon declared the usual semi-annual dividend of three and one-half per cent, payable July 1st, to stockholders of record at the close of business June 16th.

The bank's statement shows a steady and conservative increase in business.

An attractive and helpful feature of the Hood Bank is its convenient installment loans which are used by thousands of Goldsboro citizens.

PART OF BARN TOP IS BLOWN AWAY

The raised portion of the old Bixzell stables at the Fair grounds was blown away in the high winds of a few nights ago, information reaching The News last night declared. The portion blown away was about four feet broad and two hundred feet long. The part was left wrecked in a field forty feet from the stable.

MAY NAME BOARD MEMBERS IN JULY

Appointment of a member of the Board of Education of Wayne county to succeed A. H. Edgerton, who tendered his resignation recently, and appointment of a member to succeed G. G. Kornegay, also resigned, on the city board may be recommended at the meeting of the Wayne county board the first Monday in July. It was learned yesterday.

BELFAST PROPERTY IS TRANSFERRED

Two lots in Belfast Home Sites are transferred by L. P. Pearson and wife to Howard E. Pearson in deed filed yesterday in the office of Register of Deeds, Dennis Grantham. The consideration listed was $4100 and other valuables.

MOST WAYNE TEACHING POSITIONS FILLED NOW

All principals of standard high schools in Wayne county the past year will return next year. It was learned at the office of the county superintendent yesterday. More than seventy-five percent of the teachers in the county will return for the next session.

Practically all places in the county school system have been filled, it was said.
