About 100 ministers and delegates representing 63 church in this section had arrived last night for the opening sessions. A number of others will come today.

Lessons drawn from he lives of Martha, Mary ad Lazarus, as related in the 12th chapter of St. John sup-1 Hed Mr. King with his text.

Mr. King will call the conference together at 9 d'clock this morning for the beginning of the business nestions. First item on the program is the appointment of committees to have charge of the docational service to be held at the church this evening at 7:20 and on Sunday.

Mr. King presides over the sessions of the conference by virtue of the fact that he is general superintendent of the church in this part of the country.

Rev. J. M. Turner is an interesting figure attending the conference. Mr. and Mrs. Turner are back fi America after six years spent Dihar, Indian, as missionaries for the Holiness church. Home on furlaugh, Mr. Turner, a native of Georgia, will address the conference at some sesthu before it occurrent on Monday.

U. S. CHAMBER REPRIMANDED

Coolidge Says Commerce Organization Seeking Serve Own Ends Entirely

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25-(A)-Relteration by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States that the prospec tive reduction in taxes should reach $400,000,000 drew_emphatic criticism today from the White House, No doubt, was left that President Coolideg is decidedly displeased with the Chamber's view that there would be no cause for alarm even if a treasury deficit were incurred.

It was explained at the House that President Coolidge consuggestion that the government great ly increase its expenditures and at the same time reduce taxes.

IS DISCUSSED

Constitution

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25-(A)-Anx ious to discuss with world powers that the Constitution of the United States presents a serious difficulty in the way of a binding treaty.

It was recalled today at the White House that the constitution places with congress the responsibility of declaring war: Mr. Coolidge believed congress cannot, therefore, be deprived of this power by any treaty but he does think that a treaty expression a declaration of policy is possible.

The president said he would like to discuss such treatle with other na tions, believing that good would come from concentration on the subject However, he does not see the way nations on the subject of outlawing war. If treaties are to be negotiated Le thinks they should be made seperntely between governments.
