This Legislature is still on hand. into in talk of its adjournment today. We made a desperate effort to give this week the last of its proceedings, but shall have to defer that pleasure yet another meek.

Mr. Fortune, of Cleveland, is the ter who trind to get in an amendat to the revenue bill taxing school ers who touch three months $5 and those who teach eight months $10. Mr. Portune is a very suitable non for teachers and pupils to vote galast forever bereafter.

Along with the majority of other people, the druggiste of North-Carolina we no special cause to rise up and call the present Legislature bleased. Members of that body have called dragstores whiskey scops and bartooms; and one member, Hunderson, ad that "be and others had drunk to drumk teresty gallous druggists' whis-hey at Lamoir Inst year." Whatever may or may not be true in Heuderson's mont, we are not prepared to be love that Lonoir druggists furnished this whiskey.

One is taken, another left. And who can tell why? The beauties of fusion and colours are more and more mani. fest at this Legislature continues to get in its work of giving equal rights to all and special privileges to none. He far as we are now able to make out the lawyers, doctors, and dentists will beneafter have to pay an annual tax of ten dollars. Among the privileged wherever they occur in the bill. He classes they are now. And just why said thus was a Republican measure, these should have been placed there and this floor was a Drmecrut; that the Readitions, singing school teachers, and publicans had tied the Populists hand we are not told All efforts to get these classes taxed failed overwhelmingly. The smeadment to tax editors of daily papers $10 and edia of weekly papers $5 was offered by Mr. Abell, a Democrat. That it wann't adopted is a monument to the party prejudice or the consummate oowardles of the fasionists.
