LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Register to-day.

The U. C. Club holds its regular meeting Thursday afternoon with Miss Mamie Cabaniss.

Everybody who expects to vote must register anew this year.

Quit borrowing and subscribe. You'll feel better, and so will the editor. Twice a week, dollar a year.

"Said Pasha" by the Boston Ideal Opera Company at the Opera House Tuesday night, the 21st.

Belmont Academy, which was temporarily closed on account of scarlet fever, re-opens to-day. All danger, the authorities believe, is now past.

Cotton receipts at the local platform yesterday amounted to 24 bales; the best bringing 8.45 cents. Cotton seed took a little rise the price paid now being 25 3/4 cents.

About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon two cars on the C. & N. W. switching train jumped the switch near the freight depot. No damage was done and the cars were soon replaced on the track.

The Census Office has appointed Mr. John M. Pasour, of Dallas, a special agent to collect cotton ginning statistics of the county. He is a sworn officer of the Government and will be on his rounds about the 18th.

There is a general moving and re-arranging among the wholesale merchants on Main street. The W. T. Love Company has moved its large stock into the new building; Messrs. J. Flem Johnson & Co., moved yesterday into the house vacated by the Love Co., and the new firm of F. W. Bralley & Co. is placing its stock in the house vacated by Johnson & Co. and is now ready for business.

A slip of the pen made us say in last issue that Webb would speak at Cherryville next Thursday night. It should have been Thursday afternoon, as advertised in his regular list of appointments. The hour is two o'clock. Turn out to hear him. He will speak at Bessemer Thursday night, Gastonia Friday night and Mount Holly Saturday night. These are also the appointments of our county candidates. Made your arrangements to be present.

Changes in Depot Force.

Several changes are being made in Agent Nolen's clerical force at the Southern depot. Mr. J. H. Jenkins has taken an express run from Washington to Charlotte and is succeeded by Mr. Hyman, of Lincolnton; Mr. Wolfe, of Tirzah, S. C., has been added to the force and will have charge of the transferring of the C. & N.-W's. freight; Mr. C. W. Cain, of King's Mountain, becomes night operator and ticket agent succeeding Mr. Roe McLaughen, who was transferred to Belmont; Mr. Nesbit, of Newels, S. C., becomes day operator and ticket agent to succeed Mr. W. M. Jackson, who has accepted a position with the Western Union at Atlanta. Mr. Robert J. Groves has resigned his position of cashier, his resignation taking effect on the 18th.

-Mr. Moses Roman returned yesterday from a two weeks' trip to Danville, Va. His brother, Mr. Max Roman, who has had charge of his store during his absence, returned to Danville Sunday.

-In the absence of Dr. Chreitberg, Dr. S. A. Weber, of Yorkville, filled the pulpit at the Main Street church Sunday morning. He also preached at the union service in the A. R. P. church Sunday night.

Graded School Enrollment.

The nomadic nature of our population makes itself felt in the graded schools. At the central and mill schools 596 pupils are entitled to attend, while 663 have actually been enrolled in six weeks. In the colored schools 179 are entitled to attend and 201 have been enrolled. The total of school age is 775, of enrollment 894. Nearly 100 have dropped out in six weeks to have their place taken by others who move in.

Lorya Goods Liked.

The Lorya sheetings have certainly captured the fancy of the Chinese trade. About six months ago we had the pleasure of mentioning this mill's first order of $100,000 worth for that market. Since that time the Lorya has shipped $250,000 worth of goods, and has taken orders enough, besides, for the Chinese trade to keep the mill busy until the first of January. Their commission men find the Lorya products so popular for export that they are offering the mill still further orders for the same class of goods.

Police Court.

There was very little doing in Mayor Bradley's court yesterday morning, only three cases being on docket for trial. Tom Nicholson, colored, was fined $7.50 for being drunk and disorderly; Liza Moore, colored, drunk and boisterous, fined, $7.50; James Woods, colored, drunkenness and profanity, $7.50.

Death at Harden.

At her home near Harden on Sunday Mrs. Sarah Friday died at the advanced age of 84 years. Some time ago Mrs. Friday was injured by a fall and this, together with her great age, caused her death. The interment took place yesterday in the family burying ground. The deceased is survived by six children, with whom a large number of friends and relatives join in mourning for the loss of one so beloved.

In the Beef Business.

Messrs. Frank McArver, and Niell Davis returned from Shelby Saturday afternoon with a drove of 28 fine beef cattle. Mr. Davis' share of 13 were some select cattle he had bought for his market. The remaining 15 were bought by Mr. McArver for Craig & Wilson's farm and consisted entirely of young steers that would net about 200 pounds each. They were taken out to the farm where they will be fattened for market on the great abundance of shredded corn and other feedstuffs raised there. This farm has recently completed a big model barn and both in feed and stall room are admirably equipped for raising beef cattle. The amount of farm compost to be gained in this enterprise is also an incidental advantage of no small value. On the Craig and Wilson farm there are now about 40 head of cattle and on the Oneida farm about the same number.

Candidates on Their Rounds.

It was the writer's pleasure to be with the candidates at Lowell last Friday night. A very attentive and appreciative audience of the best citizens was present in the Academy building. Mr. R. R. Ray was requested to introduce the speakers—a duty which he performed in the happiest manner. Messrs. J. R. Lewis, M. A. Carpenter, and C. C. Cornwell, made their announcements in becoming style, and were accorded applause with hearty exclamations of "You'll be elected!" Messrs. Armstrong, Love, and Leeper were unavoidably kept from this appointment. Mr. S. J. Durham, candidate for the State Senate, gave an elaborate discussion of State finances and forcefully answered Republican criticisms thereof. Mr. John M. Gaston and others were called for and made brief responses, after which the meeting closed with everybody in a good humor.

Mr. Teeple's Lectures.

Marked interest is manifested in the temperance lectures being delivered here by Mr. T. H. B. Teeple, of Clarksburg, W. Va. Two large audiences, at 3 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. hall and at 7:30 p. m. in West End Methodist church, heard Mr. Teeple Sunday and another good audience was present at last night's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall. A strong and forceful speaker, Mr. Teeple presents his subject in a masterly manner, and holds the interest of his hearers from first to last. The subject last night was "Heroes and Heroism, or the Rugged Road to Success." To-night at 7:30 o'clock he speaks on "Sowing and Reaping" and at the same hour to-morrow night on "History Traced in Tears and Written in Blood." Mr. Teeple is earnestly engaged in fighting the legalized liquor traffic and is meeting with encouragement in his work.

Boston Ideal Opera Co.

The Greenville (S. C.) Daily News of the 7th inst. has the following to say of "Said Pasha" as presented there by the Boston Ideal Opera Co.: Great, magnificent, splendid, were the remarks heard on all sides as the large audience emerged from the Grand last night after having witnessed the opera of "Said Pasha" by the Boston Ideal Opera company. That every word of this was true can be vouched for by the writer, and never in the history of the Grand has any organization so completely captured the audience as did the Ideals last night. Miss Nellie Andrews, as "Serena," won her way into the hearts of the audience from the moment she made her first entrance. She possesses by far one of the sweetest soprano voices that has ever been heard in this city. Among the male singers Jas. E. Stevens, as the "Pasha," besides being the possessor of a rich baritone voice, proved himself an actor of great ability. To say that the patrons of the theatre last night were completely captured would not half express it. The performance, as a whole, was magnificent and proves that this organization has more than earned all the praise they have been receiving from the press of the large cities.

MR. J. E. MCGINN DEAD.

Expired Yesterday Morning After Three Weeks' Illness.

At ten minutes past three o'clock yesterday morning Mr. James E. McGinn departed this life at the age of 37 years. He had been ill ever since he returned home on the Asheville excursion about three weeks ago. Mr. McGinn has been a well known in Gastonia for ten years or more, and all who knew him will hear of his death with sincere sorrow.

Before his sickness he was running a warper at the Old Mill. He was a member of the Banker's Union and of the Junior Order of America, Mechanics, in both of which orders he carried benefits for his family.

He leaves a wife (who was Miss Alice Ballard) and six children, a mother, and two brothers to mourn his death. His mother, who lives at Spartanburg, came up a week ago and was with him until the end came. His brothers John and Will of Spartanburg were notified yesterday of his death. The funeral services are to be held at the residence at 11 o'clock this morning, after which the body will be buried in the city cemetery.

A Pair of Pears.

Two fine pears of the Keiffer variety were a gift to THE GAZETTE Saturday from Mr. H. D. Hanna. They weighed 13 1/4 and 15 ounces. Mr. Hanna says he has a Le Conte tree from which he sold this season ten bushels of pears and used and gave away about as many more.

Death of Two Infants.

A three months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson, of the Arlington, died Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The body was taken yesterday to Hope-well church, near Maiden, for burial. An infant, two weeks old, of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. West, who live at the Old Mill, died Saturday and was buried at the Shiloh graveyard Sunday.

Bale of Cotton Stolen.

A bale of cotton belonging to Mr. W. D. Wright was stolen last Wednesday night from Mr. Henry Elmore's gin in South Point. He had eight bales there that afternoon and when he went to get them Thursday morning there were only seven. The bales were marked only by a piece of cardboard bearing the owner's name and slipped under the tie. There is no clue to the thief though diligent search has been made.

Still Searing.

The price of coal is still soaring skyward. On the local market the best lump is now retailing at $5.75, an advance of 50 cents per ton having been made within the past few days. This same coal, so the local dealers inform us, is retailing at $8.50 in Charlotte and some of the other neighboring cities. A press dispatch of a few days ago contained the information that Chicago coal dealers were offering some of the Southern mines $6 per ton for the best lump at the mines—and the end is not yet.

Lost Barn and Contents.

Mr. John D. Hall, who lives in the Point four miles below Belmont, had the misfortune Friday night to lose his barn and all its contents, including three horses, wagons, buggy and farm implements by fire. The fire was first discovered about midnight by some of Mr. Hall's neighbors who hastened to wake him. On arriving they found his residence also burning but this was soon extinguished with out much damage to the house. The fire was evidently the work of incendiaries but there is no clue as yet, to the guilty parties. The amount of insurance carried on the barn was $500.
