The passe of citizens from Mount Holly who ran down and captured five of the nine prisoners who escaped from the Dallas jail on Monday are highly deserving of the thanks of the entire citizenship of the county for the valuable service thus ren-dered. When it comes to doing things Mount Holly is second to no community in the county.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Union veterans of the Civil war are dying off at the rate of 5,000 per mouth the forthcoming report of Pension Comer Eugene F. Ware, according to dispatches sent out from Washington, will show that the number of pensioners does not decrease, continuing to huddle near the million mark. It seems maryelous indeed that, forty years after the close of the conflict, there should be on the government pension roll nearly twice as many persons as there were enrolled in the entire Con-federate army.

The Penalty of Greatness.

Greatness has its price. When an ordinary, every day citizen takes a cake of soap and towel and starts for the creek to take a scrub no crowds follow him. He can dip and scrub to his heart's content unmolested by beart's content unmolested by curious fools. Not so with the great citizen. Take for instance Judge Alton B. Parker. A few days ago flaring headlines in newspapers told how Judge Parker went out to take his morning dip, how spectators gathered along the bank of the stream to watch the performstream to watch the perform-ance. We suppose that Judge Parker is endowed with good hotse sense and if he is don't you know that he feels like picking up a rock from the bank of the creek and disfiguring the countenances of the "rubber necks" who follow him? It would be wholesome reading if some one could write as a fact that the Democratic nominee became a little strenuous and "basted" some of the fools who annoyed him by watching him taking his bath.

Pensioners Dying at the Rate of 5,000 a Month.

Washington Dispatch.

The forthcoming report of Euene F. Ware, Commissioner of Pensions, will state that the to-tal pensioners on the rolls is still under 1,000,000.

At the close of the fiscal year ers. Mr. Ware has not yet re-ceived the final and official figures for June, but from unofficial estimates he believes the record for 1904 will be just about what estimates he believes the record for 1904 will be just about what it was a year ago and that the increase, if any, is small.

There is only one thing that keeps the total below 1,000,000, and that is the heavy mortality among the veterans. They are dying off at a rapid rate, but their places are filled by pensioning widows and men with no other disability than old age.

More than 5,000 pensioners died in May, and the monthly average will soon be 6,000. Commissioner Ware savs that if it were not fer the widows of old soldiers the pension roll would shrink with pleasing regularity, despite the operations of exemitive order No. 78, which makes age disability pensionable.

There was a peroid in the administration of the present commissioner when the number of pensioners passed the 1,000,000 mark. This was in 1902. On August 1 of that year there were 1,001,494 pensioners on the roll. After that date the total declined steadily until May 1902.

SOUTH TO THE PRONT.

Culpeper. (Va.) Hayor

Last winter the selection of John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, as the Democratic leader upon the floor of the United States House of Representatives attracted nothing more than a passing mention. For some years it has been the custom to select the leader from the South. And no man up to the present time has done anything as Democratic floor leader to merit any particular attention.

But the advent of John Sharp Williams as leader marked a new era of things. From the very beginning his masterly leader-ship attracted attention. From being a were figurehead in a semi-official position, he became a real leader, with an ardently enthusiastic following. Before the adjournment of the last session of Congress the Republi cans fully realized that in Mr. Williams they had a formidable man to cope with, who would easily prove to be a foe worthy of their steel. On many occasions he brought great discounfiture to their ranks, and several times, in spite of their large working majority, brought them almost to the point of defeat. The selection of Mr. Williams as the temporary chairman of the Democratic convention at St. Louis was an honor and a distinct recognition of merit, as it is for the temporary chairman of the national conventions, in their speeches of acceptance, to sound the keynotes of the coming campaign. This was done by Elihu Root, of New York, for the Republicans, and was such a presentation of the Republican side of the argument as to call for the most able exposition of Democratic doctrine. And Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, was unanimously chosen for the task. How well he succeeded can be learned by a perusal of his speech. Suffice it to say that it is one of which every Southern man should and doubtless will be proud-proud of the fact that in the person of John Sharp Williams the dear old Southland has again come to the front, the position having been gained by the Mississippian as a recognition of brains, ability, energy, and indomitable pluck. We congratulate Mr. Williams, of Mississippi. congratulate the South upon the fact that she has such a man within her borders. Champ Clark, of Missouri, was permanent chairman of the convention, and our own John Warwick Daniel chairman of the committee on resolutions. We hail the return of Southern prestige.
