"WHISKY" COLD CURES.

Danger of Using Alcoholic Mixtures or Coal Tar Tablets.

The most dangerous thing that one can do when affected with a cough or cold is to use a medicine that contains whisky or a tablet that is made of some coal tar product. Putting aside all moral objections to filling up with whisky or drugs because one has a cold, the injurious physical effect should be sufficient to keep one from using these strong medicines.

LETTER CARRIERS MEET.

County Association Holds Session at Dallas-Mext Meeting to be Held in Gastonia May

The Gaston County Associa-tion of Rural Letter Carriers met in the court bouse at Dallas Friday It being Washington's birthday all the carriers of the county were off duty and the attendance was good. The president, Mr. Thomas S. Royster, carrier on route No. 1 from Bessemer City, presided. The other officers of the association are Mr. W. N. Cavin, car-rier on route No. 1 from Mount Holly, vice president, and Mr. I. D. Derr, carrier on route No.

from Dallas, secretary.
Routine business consumed he larger portion of the session. Various matters of interest to the carriers in general were discussed, among the topics being good roads, department rules and difficulties of various kinds with which the carriers have to contend continually Inability to obtain copies of the depart ment rules governing rural delivers carriers has placed some what of a handicap on the members of the Gaston association we presume. The department. it is said, is making every effort to iupply the demand for rules to sarriers in every section of the country as rapidly as pos-

It was decided that the association hold two regular meetings annually, on May 30th and the first Monday in September, the former being Decoration Day and the latter Labor Day, both national holidays. The next regular meeting will be held in Gastonia May 30. An effort will be made to secure Congressman Webb for an address and to provide other attractions which will make it a gala day.

Blackburn's Misfortune.

The papers have contained counting the personal misfor-burn. That he is in hard lines financially is a matter of regret to us. A man who meets reverses is always to be pitied, even if he was the architect of his own misfortunes. Unmerciful disaster seemed to follow fast and follow faster in his case, and we regret that the enterprising correspondent in Washington wanted to set him up only to knock him down with the announcement that he was finan-

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

-In any city where the ma-jority of its citizens are home owners, one will find pretty homes and happy satisfied people. They are always on the alert for the best interests of the town and its moral welfare. Where this is not so such an interest is not displayed.

-What are you doing for your town? If you have no confidence in the growth andi mprovement of the town and county in which you live how on earth do you expect other people to move among you and cause the country to develop and grow for your benefit.

-Were each nation to divide its cash among its own people each human being in France would have $35, or $10 more than each person in our country under similar circumstances. Meanwhile, the divided cash of Great Britan would give each Briton only $18; in Germany the cash per capita would amount to only $17; Russia $8, and Japan $3, while in Cuba each person would get a two-dollar bill

-The good book says, "Give to every one that asketh thee,' but that dosen't mean to give a drunkard money to buy whiskey; it dosn't mean to give the baby a hammer and looking glass because he asks for it, and it dosn't mean that we should give to professional beggars who travel from town to town. The Bible doesn't always mean what it says, but it always means what it means.

-Let us rally around the standard of youth, remembering that the future of our country shall be what the young people make it. Let us show our fathers and mothers that the boys and girls of today shall be ready to stand fourth fully equipped men and women of tomorrow. Let us show them that the rising generation which is following in their footsteps is fully competent to succeed them and shoulder the responsibility of the farm, the home and the nation.

Every lady should have a copy of the Argo Red Salmon Regt. Cook Book. It tells you thirtynine different ways of preparing e Mch 15, '62. salmon. Ask your grocer for it.

-Will a merchant who is wise ever cease to advertise. Yeswhen the trees grow upside down; when the beggar wears a crown; when ice forms on the sun; when the sparrow weighs a ton: when gold dollars get too cheap; when women secrets keep; when a fish forgets to swim; when Satan sings a hymn; when girls go back on gum; when the small boy hates a drum; when no politician schemes; when mince pie makes pleasant dreams; when it's fun to break a tooth; when all lawyers tell the truth; when cold water makes you drunk; when you love to smell a skunk; when the drummer has no brass-when these things all come to pass; then 30, 64. man that's wise will neglect to advertise.

-Mr. A. W. Latta thinks The Gazette did him an injustice in its issue of the 15th in which appeared the following item: Miss Alice Gattis, daughter of Mr. W. H. Gattis, who eloped with Mr. A. W. Latta Wednesday, returned home yesterday. The girl was deserted at Belmont and after arriving at Charlotte was taken in charge by friends." Mr. Latta says that they did not elope; that he did not know the young lady intended going on the same train until he saw her in the coach; that there was no preconcerted plan or arrangement between them whatever; that he did not desert her at Belmont or anywhere else; that he took care of her in the depot at Charlotte, remaining with her until a was discovered soon enough to friend of the family appeared on the scene and took her home. Miss Gattis also denies that there was any elopement; this assertion on her part, of course, exonerates Mr. Latta from the charge of desertion. Miss Gattis also denies that she was taken in charge at Charlotte by friends. The Gazette had no intention or desire, when publishing the report, to injure or falsely represent any one but simply gave the item as obtained from reliable sources, deeming it a good piece of news. That the parties most vitally concerned may have no cause to complain of unfair treatment at the hands of this paper we cheerfully present their statements as outlined above.
