ALFRED FERGUSON DEAD.

Well-Known Confederate Veteran and Citizen of Crowders Creek Section Passed Away This Morning-Funeral and Burial at Crowders Creek A. R. P. Church Tomorrow Morning.

At his home in the Crowders Creek section of the county Mr. Alfred Ferguson, one of the county's most highly esteemed citizens of the elder generation, passed away at 5 o'clock this morning following an illness of some time, the cause of his death being cancer. Mr. Ferguson was a native of the county, and was born on March 30, 1838, in the same neighborhood in which he died, being 77 years, six months and twentytwo days old. He was a brave soldier in the cause of the Confederacy, having been a private in Company H, 49th N. C. Regiment, and served from 1862 until the close of the war It is interesting to note in this connection that there are now only 26 survivors of this company, Col. R. N. Wilson, of Gastonia, being one of Deceased is survived by his widow, who before her marriage was a Miss Love, of this county, and seven children, Messrs. R. L., T. M. and S. E. Ferguson, of Gastonia; J. E. Ferguson, of Clover; B. B. and A. L. Ferguson, of Crowders Creek, and Mrs. E. L. Crawford. Another daughter, Mrs. L. H. Jackson, died several years ago.

Funeral services will be conducted at Crowders Creek Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, which Mr. Ferguson was a member, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning by the pastor, Rev. W. P. Grier, and the body will be laid to rest in the cemetery at the church.

Mr. Ferguson was the last surviving member of a family of fourteen, the children of the late Thomas Ferguson. Two brothers, Messrs. Ben and L. B. Ferguson, have died within the past year. In the passing of Mr Ferguson the county loses a substantial citizen who was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Eric Hoover Missing. According to The Charlotte News of a few days ago Mr. Eric Hoover, whose people live at Lincolnton, has disappeared, nothing having been heard from him since August when he left Charlotte presumably on a trip to Norfolk. Mr. Hoover spent some months in Gastonia several years ago, being employed as a printer on The Gazette. Later, he enlisted in the army where he served three years. At the expiration of his enlistment he worked at the printer's trade in the West for some time and returned to this section last Christmas. He was in Gastonia some three or four months ago. His friends here will await news con cerning him with interest. A Wise Man, He.

· Farmer Hardpate's place lay right in the line of the approaching railway survey and the company was anxious to conciliate the old man, relates the Chicago News. The diplomatic agent went out to see him, and finally thought to clinch the matter saying:

"Our company offers you $500 in cash and $1,000 worth of stock for the right-of-way through your farm. "No siree!" retorted old Hard-"I don't want no railroad runnin' round here. Fust thing ye know ye'll be killing some of my livestock an' I'd have to he'p pay fur it as a stockholder."

Only One Ever Laid Here.

There is on display in one of the show windows at Torrence-Morris Company's jewelry store the only ostrich egg ever laid in Gastonia. It was presented to Mr. W. B. Morris by Chief W. S. Orr, who was here during the fair with his Lakewood aggregation of animals in which collection were the two big ostriches and three little ostriches. While they were here this egg, weighs 47 ounces, was laid. Orr's show drew quite a good crowd during the four days it was here.

An Unusual Record.

Messrs. F. H. Hickok and C. Bachman, of Philadelphia, representatives of the parent company which controls the local gas plant, were here yesterday on a visit of inspection to the plant of the Gaston County Gas Company Mr. Hicok informed The Gazette that the Gastonia plant, which has been in operation only one year this month, and which now has 500 services, had the best record for number of services installed during first year of operation of any plant in the country. Another plant in this section, in a town considerably larger than Gastonia, has only 480 services, although it has been in operation four years.

A Fine Advertising Medium.

Mention was made in the fatr ites in Tuesday's Gazette of one farmer who sold some pigs at the fair grounds at fancy prices because he had them right where a pig fancier from a distance could see them and examine them. Another instance of the same nature has come to The the guests with several humorous Gazette's attention. Mr. R. G. Rankin had some fine Berkshires on exhibition and sold several of them, getting considerably more for them no doubt than he could have gotten otherwise. Both of these instances -and there were no doubt otherssimply show that the county fair is a fine place for advertising what you have. This is only one of the numerous advantages of exhibiting first-class livestock and we expect next year to see a very much larger number of exhibits.

Lecture By Miss Smith.

At the First Presbyterian church last night Miss Julia Smith, of Asheville, a daughter of Rev. R. P. Smith, former pastor of the church, delivered a very interesting and entertaining lecture on the Home Mission and educational work being done at the mountain schools supported by the Presbyterian churches of this section. Miss Smith lectured under the joint auspices of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, which is in session at Pisgah church and had tovited Miss Smith to deliver an address, and the Woman's Missionary Society of the First church. Miss Smith spoke to the Missionary Upion at Pisgah yesterday afternoon. Her lecture last night was illustrated with stereopticon views of the mountain work in general and of the buildings and students of the Morrison School for girls, in which Miss Smith is a teacher, the Maxwell Home School for boys and the orphanage at Balfour. A large audience heard Miss Smith's lecture with great pleasure and profit.

Is Still Carrying the Mails. In the installment of "Gaston

Thirty-Five Years Ago" published in Tuesday's Gazette mention was made of one Jim Falls, a negro who was in 1876 engaged in carrying the mails from the Gastonia postoffice to the trains. Jim's main fault, as therein recorded, was in going to sleep while waiting for the train and often failing to get the pouches on the mail car. Rural Letter Carrier T. C. Smith, who carries Gastonia route one, says that Jim is still living and is engaged in the identical occupation that was his forty years ago. He lives now, however, at Dallas. Some weeks ago Mr. Smith was at Dallas and heard the same thing said about Jim that was recorded in The Gazette thirty-five years ago. Recently, at Dallas, he went to sleep while waiting for the train. Awaking suddenly he rushed out half awake and threw the mail sacks asked the teacher. through an open box car, thinking it was the mail car.
