

DEPTH OF FEELING MARKS WEEK OF PRAYER

With a thought of the crosses already reared on the battle fields "over there" and with the sure knowledge that more such holy memorials are to stand in France, as marks of America's sacrifice for undying principles, the attendants at the base hospital, under the leadership of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries, are entering into the spirit of Prayer week in all earnestness and humility. It is a most impressive preparation for Easter. In spirit the men are following all the way of preparation which the Master of Men carried out in the dark hours before his crucifixion and the glad morn of resurrection.

All the programs except the movies have been called at the hospital "Y" in order that occasions for the prayer sessions may not be lacking.

Dr. McClung, Presbyterian camp pastor, delivered a profound sermon on "The Hope in Prayer," on Monday evening, as the first service of the Prayer week. The Bible classes at the base hospital Y. M. C. A. are generating more and more interest in the text of "The Book of Books." Two classes are being conducted each week for the men of the detachment. Rev. Smithdeal is meeting with much success in carrying on a special class for convalescents of the hospital.

Rev. Sprague, of Washington, D. C., Baptist camp pastor, delivered an able exhortation on the ringing subject "As a Man Thinketh in His Heart So Is He," on last Friday night.

On Sunday J. O. Grogan spoke on the subject of "Repentance" before a large audience at the evening religious service.

When things aren't going just right and Private Samuel Smith begins to wonder when it's all going to end, it is just possible that he may be heartened by the thought that there's a service flag back home very prominently displayed in his honor. The folks back home are proud of the men that are representing them at the front and in the camp, and there are very few of the men who are going to disappoint them.

Gillette Safety Razor

Have You Seen the New Gillette Specially Designed for the Fighting Man?

THESE models were designed by members of the Gillette Organization who have seen service with the Colors and know what the soldier is up against.

Hundreds of officers and men are buying them—the U. S. Service Set in metal case, and the new Khaki-covered sets for Uncle Sam's soldiers and officers.

The Gillette is the one razor for the man who is doing things—the one razor with world-wide use and reputation.

When a man wants new Blades he can get them at any Post Exchange or Y. M. C. A. Hut—here in America or Overseas.

Our Paris Office carries stocks—is constantly supplying the American Expeditionary Forces. Gillette Safety Razors and Blades on sale everywhere in France, England, Italy and the Eastern battle fronts.

The Army of the United States Is Shaved Clean

NO matter how a man shaved before he went into the Service, he is pretty sure to come out of the war a Gillette user.

The first thing he'll note among his camp mates is that more of them are shaving with the Gillette than with all other razors put together.

He'll see Gillette users in his squad lather up, shave clean, splash the soap off, tuck the razor away, and be standing at attention in the inspection line—all in five minutes.

When he gets Overseas, everything is the Gillette, from the left flank of the British line in Belgium clear around through France and Italy and on the battle fronts of the East.

Soon or late, every man who is doing things comes to the Gillette. They belong together. Ten million up and doing men all over the world had discovered the Gillette before the war broke out. The war simply made the Gillette prove itself under extreme conditions—as no other razor has or can.

It has thrown the spotlight on the Gillette Blades—on the Gillette principle of No Stropping—No Honing—on the Gillette idea of a simple, compact shaving outfit, no strops or hones to clutter up the kit—on the Gillette contention that a man's daily shave should be an incident and not a ceremony.
