

SUPPLY CO., 20TH INFANTRY.
 The company bank has new shirt down.
 Sterner's wife has come to town.
 Here is one on First Class Private Neff of the 16th squad. He rolled out of bed at 3 a. m. trying to catch his overcoat and by mistake wakes up the whole squad.
 We take notice the last few days Wagoner Colbert's hand is pretty warm owing to Stable Sergeant Williams being on a furlough. Hot-handed Colbert is trying to show him up.

The stable police have no use for him. Occasionally he forgets himself and thinks he is home and starts handing out orders. We hope his hand cools off shortly.
 Private Glazebrook is commencing to get in bad with his sawmill score. He woke up this morning to try to find out who threw the shoe.
 Wagoner Kirkpatrick, alias stable sergeant, is doing fine since his return from the casual camp. Colbert has nothing on him and we hope he soon has charge himself till Williams gets back.

KWAZZEE BROTHERS SET BATTALIONS; SQUAD 13
 Private Brown is the saddest fellow in the squad for he hasn't received a letter from his girl in over two weeks and you can hear him talking in his sleep, but it wouldn't do to tell what he says.
 You should see Ed Kay get away with a shave even after lights are out. He claims though that he is no barber and no one as yet has seen fit to dispute his claim.
 It looks as though the gloves will have to settle the argument between Davis and Ed Kay, as you can wake up any time of night and see the barrack bag or bunk flying around between those two.

 Private Bungay cut his "eyebrows" off to stank inspection and to enable him to sleep.
 Private Moore seems to think the night is to be given to writing rather than to sleeping.
 Private Handy is not what you might call a heavy eater but he is always on hand for "accidents."

Gillette Safety Razor

Have You Seen the New Gillettes Specially Designed for the Fighting Man?

THESE models were designed by members of the Gillette Organization who have seen service with the Colors and know what the soldier is up against. Hundreds of officers and men are buying them—the U. S. Service Set in metal case, and the new Khaki-covered sets for Uncle Sam's soldiers and officers. The Gillette is the one razor for the man who is doing things—the one razor with world-wide use and reputation. When a man wants new Blades he can get them at any Post Exchange or Y. M. C. A. Hut—here in America or Overseas. Our Paris Office carries stocks—is constantly supplying the American Expeditionary Forces. Gillette Safety Razors and Blades on sale everywhere in France, England, Italy and the Eastern battle fronts.

No One Has More to Contend With in His Shaving than The Fighting Man

AND nobody knows better the bracing effects of a clean shave.

His shaving water may be cold, it may be hard, his skin wind-chapped or tender from sunburn. Yet, on every Allied Front, and on every Allied battleship, he keeps himself clean-shaved—and he uses the Gillette Safety Razor.

The Gillette has solved and simplified every shaving problem put up to it by the boys in khaki or navy blue.

It has done service all over the map—from the deserts of Palestine to the icy spindrift of the North Sea—from Flanders to the remotest island in the East Indies—and has proved itself the real razor for service.

Complete, compact for the pack or the pocket—no strops or hones to clutter up the kit. Blades always sharp, always ready—and No Stropping—No Honing.
