FRANCE CALLS TO MB

FRANCE CALLS TO MB.

Across the sea
There comes the cell
Of France to me.
I hear the muffled, tender sound
Of Bittle children, underground,
Denied, bereft of everything.
The right to play to learn and sing,
Den Hille child
Across the sea,
I'll come to sing
And play with thee.

II.
From over there,
I hear the call
From France in prayer.
The women calling for their mate,
Non vidouced by the Hunn of Hade;
Brides, homeless, childless, all alone
Are broading o'er a pile of stone.
Herote souts,
I'll come to share
Thy bitter grief,
And blind despair.

From over sea,
There comes sed sound
From France to me;
The painful plea of broken bells, shattered by Salanic shells; sear sick seind, that reails and schines ough battered scalls of sacred

tchines
Through hattered makerines
shrines
O'llouse of Prayer,
Where God's yet found,
I'll help to heal
Thy scieked scound,

IV.
Reyond the Seine,
I hear the ery
Of France in pain
shricks from shell-hole, trench

and teire,
Men crazed by gas and liquid fire;
Dumb agonies from No-Man's Land,
Low grouns beweath thesurgeon's hand.
O stricken land,
