

JEWISH WELFARE BULLETIN

JEWISH WELFARE ACTIVITIES.
The activities of the Jewish Welfare Board were featured by the smoker held Saturday evening, April 27th, at the clubroom in Charlotte. At least 200 men were present and the affair was thoroughly enjoyable.

A story telling contest was held in which Private M. Cohen of the 13th Field Artillery took the first prize and Private Duffy, the second prize. A dramatic recital by Private Banks was the highlight of the program while a song recital by Sergeant Kaufman a close second. Luncheon was prepared and served by Chief Cook Goldman and five K. E.'s, and they were given three loud cheers when the feed was over.

On Sunday night, April 28th, the usual entertainment took place. The program followed:

1. Cohen and Sapir (13th F. A.) and Miss Smith at the Piano. A song and monologue act.
2. Recitations by Private Goodman, M. M.
- A. Camp Loneliness.
- B. What a funny little world this is.
3. Talk by Mr. Kronwitz
4. "The Death Bed," by Private Banks. A very dramatic and forceful interpretation of Jacob Aiders' masterpiece.
5. Vocal solo by Miss Goldstein.
- Miss Smith at the piano.
6. Refreshments and Taps.

Wednesday Night Dance.

A very enjoyable dance was held Wednesday evening, May 1st. In addition to the excellent music, a novelty was introduced by two men both by the name of Simons. They gave a dance together that was not only graceful but was also a parody on our exhibition dances. Great excitement and apprehension was felt when one of the twins did the "Split." Private Kirshenblatt gave several entertaining songs which were enthusiastically received. He also handled "the drums" in wonderful style. These dances are becoming more popular all the time and plans are now on foot to hold them during the summer out of doors.

The Clubroom at Camp.

The Jewish Welfare clubroom between the K. of C. and Y 195 has seen some very enjoyable programs during the past week and there is generally something going on every night. Come over and get acquainted.

Shower Baths.

The Jewish Welfare board is pleased to announce that they can now free, individual soap and towel. We accommodate the men desiring a shower bath and provide them with free individual soap and towel. We believe this will be greatly taken advantage of as most of the athletic activity of Camp Greene is in the neighborhood of our clubroom.

All activities at camp are held at the Jewish Welfare clubroom between Y. M. C. A. 195 and the K. of C. building. All activities in town are held at the Soldiers clubroom, 469 West Seventh street. All are welcome. Dr. Solomon to Visit Camp Greene. NOTES OF THE FOURTH TRENCH MORTAR BATTERY.

Like the sun that shines the battery will from this day on take a hand in the notes of Trench and Camp. Of course there is no doubt in the minds of the officials of the brigade, that this battery will give so good an account of itself Over There, that it will take a place in the history of the world that will never be forgotten.

So much for the personnel and morale of the battery. We cordially invite anyone who wishes good things to eat or necessary articles to try our canteen, as for quality and pureness, it can't be beat.

Witty sayings of some members of the battery. Recruit Mason. "Wait until I am made corporal, I will make these d—n recruits snap out of it!" Corporal Mason. "Liver squeeze exercise, ready begin!" Sergeant Denny. "Inspection will be in G. D. shoes and Russel shirts." Anonymous. "We have a good captain." "We've some baseball team. It's won every game its played. All in all we can't be beat in anything and everything."

We also have some mess sergeant, don't know how he got the job, but the writer can bet two to one that if the battery had its way, poor Irish would have a bunch of tin cans tied to him, and a competent sergeant put in his place. When old Cohen feeds his heart to give seconds, of course, you understand he's paying for the stuff. We also have a few birds who must wonder around a few weeks, after getting paid and eventually land in the guardhouse, but that happens in every family.

Here the motto of the battery: What you are with you. If you are lazy and accept your lot, you may give in it; if you are willing to work you can write your name anywhere you choose.

Oswald: "The wind chills me to the bone."
Holman: "You should wear a bigger hat."
