

PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER TO SING IN THIS CAMP

Miss Margaret Wilson Will Give
Concerts on Monday May 27
in "Y" Building.

Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, is going to sing at Camp Greene, according to an announcement made this week by Mr. J. T. Mangum, camp social secretary of the army Y. M. C. A. Miss Wilson will give two concerts on Monday, May 27, a complete announcement of which will be made later.

Miss Wilson has visited a large number of military camps and cantonments of the United States since war was declared, and in all of them she has been given a genuine ovation. She has been singing to the soldiers in the Y. M. C. A. buildings everywhere, and it is under the auspices of the war work council of the Y. M. C. A. that she comes to this camp.

While it is undoubtedly true that Miss Wilson's great popularity is due in large measure to the fact that she is the daughter of the chief executive of the country, at the same time she has a charming voice that will delight all those who hear her. The singer wants it distinctly understood that her entertainment is for all of the soldiers, both officers and men. On account of the probable demand for seats at these concerts it will not be possible for civilians and ladies to gain entrance to the "Y" huts. Miss Wilson wants it understood that the entertainment is primarily and entirely for the soldier lads, and she is evading that notoriety and publicity which her presence in the city might incur.

Not as the President's daughter but as a patriotic woman who is doing her bit to bring good cheer and happiness into the life of the soldier—such is the role that Miss Wilson likes to play. She will be given a tremendous welcome here, and Camp Greene soldiers will look forward to her appearance on the "Y" platform.

FIFTH COMPANY, THIRD REGIMENT, MOTOR MECHANICS

The Fifth company may well be proud of the dance it gave on Wednesday evening last. The dance will long be remembered, not only by the men of the entire regiment. The whole floor of the auditorium presented a very pretty scene, with the ladies and men gliding to and fro to the tunes played by the Third regiment band, to whom great credit is due.

All of the men of the Fifth company regret that they have lost the officership of Capt. J. J. Peet who in his short stay won their hearts. In saying good-bye to the boys on the drill field the other day, Captain Peet, much to the delight of Cheyenne Moseman, rescinded his order to take Chey's name and void his pass for one week.

After the hike out of the first battalion, Private Lozocerto of the Fifth company, certainly showed his opponent from the Third company that weight does not always win in wrestling.

AGAINST THE WALL.

"With our backs to the wall," General Haig, April 13, 1818.

God spare thee not, America,
This penitential day!
Against the wall, in Flanders,
The nations stand at bay;
And thou, the strong, the mighty,
A laggard at the fray.

God drive thee hard, America,
So hesitant, so slow;
God swite thee in His anger,
And fling thee at the foe;
The last black dregs of sacrifice
May it be thine to know!

God save thee, O America!
The glory and the fame,
Once thy father's, be thy children's—
Not thine the deathless shame
That freedom fell in Flanders
Calling upon thy name!

—Theresa Virginia Beard.

CINCINNATI ARTIST
CAMP GREENE VISITOR

Claude Shafer, Cartoonist on Cincinnati Post, Entertains Soldier Audiences.

"Old Man Grump," a testy old character who has bewailed the defeat of many a game that the Cincinnati Reds have lost in the years past, and whose funny sayings have irritated the funny bone of many a reader of The Enquirer and Post, has been a Camp Greene visitor the past week. He was accompanied by his creator, Mr. Claude Shafer, who is now a clever cartoonist on The Cincinnati Post.

Mr. Shafer, who is well known to thousands of Ohians as the author and designer of Old Man Grump, and the father of his wit, is "doing" the camps of the southeastern department in the interest of The Post and a syndicate of Ohio papers. He is drawing cartoons that are illustrative of camp life for consumption of the folks back home. During his visit to Camp Greene he made a number of drawings that will be served up to his Ohio patrons.

This artist was also in this camp under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. He gave three programs in the "Y" buildings here that were greatly enjoyed by large audiences. His program consisted mainly of rapid-fire sketching and drawing. His original "take offs" on features of camp life were ludicrous in the extreme, and he was given round after round of applause. His delineations of life at the detention camp and his caricatures of the W. P.s and K. P.s were the pictures most enjoyed.

After each program Mr. Shafer met the Ohio boys in his audience. He got the names of a large percentage of the soldiers from Ohio that are now stationed at Camp Greene. Most of these men were familiar with his work, and were glad of the opportunity of meeting him personally. But to most of them the mere sight of somebody from home was enough to please them immensely.

A sample of Mr. Shafer's work appears in this issue of Trench and Camp. Our readers will enjoy it.
