

The good times at the club room are getting better with each program, the past week being no exception. Among the extremely interesting happenings, last Sunday evening, the audience was favored with a talk by Mr. Cameron Morrison, who opened the program. Mr. Morrison was followed by entertainers from camp, Sergeant Kirschanblott again making the big hit of the evening.

The Fourth of July was celebrated July 3 with an exceptionally brilliant dance. The ladies were in evening gowns, which added greatly to the occasion. In addition to the many ladies from Charlotte who attended, there were many who came from various towns throughout the state. Refreshments were served in the outdoor garden where there was entertainment between the dances.

Dr. Raisin returned to camp in time to hold his scheduled lecture, Tuesday evening, the subject of which was "The Jews in America." There was a good attendance as also there was the previous Friday evening when services were held by Private Max Heller, followed by a sermon from Mr. Rabino-witz.

Dr. Raisin Leaves Camp Greene.
As was announced two months ago, the soldiers in Camp Greene were only to be favored with the presence of Dr. Raisin in his capacity of resident rabbi, for a short period of two months. He will leave in a day or two to take up his duties as resident rabbi in Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., and it is indeed with deep regret that the soldiers will say good-bye to Dr. Raisin. His work in Camp has been very extensive and when he leaves he will leave many friends.

Rabbi Marx Here.
Rabbi David Marx of Atlanta, Ga., one of the most prominent divines and citizens of the whole south, was a Camp Greene visitor recently. He spoke at "Y" building 105 on Monday evening to a good sized audience. His visit here was an inspiration, both to the members of his own race and to everyone else with whom he came in contact. He is a speaker of much force, and he has a personality that endears him to the soldiers.

CONNECTICUT MINISTER WOUNDED IN FRANCE

Y. M. C. A. Worker in Front Line Trenches May Lose One of His Legs as Result of Enemy Fire.

(By Cable to the Associated Press.)
Paris, Saturday.—Dr. John Brownlee Voorhees, of Hartford, Conn., a congregational pastor, was wounded and his leg shattered by a shell while on duty with the Young Men's Christian association on the front northwest of Toul. It is believed the limb will be saved.

William Earl Ballew, of Wasterville, Ohio, Young Men's Christian association secretary in the Toul sector, also was wounded in the bombardment. He was struck by shell fragments in the right arm and both legs, but will recover.

Dr. Voorhees, with C. W. Peel, of Fitchburg, Mass., stuck to the Young Men's Christian association hut in which they were working under a violent bombardment. They finally left, as the building was being destroyed, seeking refuge in a trench.

Peel, with two enlisted men, rescued Dr. Voorhees after he had received his shell wound, helping him away despite his protestations that they leave him and save themselves.

Dr. Voorhees was a great favorite with the soldiers, who familiarly called him "Doc."

Secretary Ballew stood at the door of his hut under the heavy bombardment, which included gas shelling. A wounded soldier came staggering back from the front, seeking a dressing station. Ballew was assisting the soldier to the station, across a shell swept court, when he was struck by the shell fragments which inflicted his wounds.

HOSTESS HOUSE CONCERT PROGRAM WON HIGH FAVOR

Aviation Section Jazz Band, and Vocal Numbers by Soldiers and Charlotte Singers Participate.

The program of the weekly concert yesterday at the Y. W. C. A. hostess house at Camp Greene was of a different character from any given hitherto. Many people from camp and town pronounced it the best they had ever heard here. The opening selection was by the jazz band of the aviation section and was spirited. A great number of times this group has been called to play recently. The first solos were rendered by Private Gates, of the base hospital. Finden's "Till I Awake" and Homer's "Dearest." Mr. Gates is a well known baritone and never sang better. He was ably accompanied by Mr. Schelling, also of the base hospital.

Miss Withers, of Charlotte, then sang some charming solos, accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Crowell. Private Adams, of the camouflage squadron, played Gounod's "Ave Maria" and Godart's "Berceuse" with beautiful finish. Lieutenant Craik, of the camouflage squadron, sang "His Lullaby" of Bond's, and "At Dawning" by Cadman, with great feeling. This is the first time he has sung in the south. The program was given great snap by some comic songs by two members of the jazz band, "Newt" Brunson and "Will" Bolack.

WORK IN Y. M. C. A. TENT SHELLED AND ON FIRE

Three "Y" Workers Show Heroism Under Bombardment. Several Recommended for Citations.

(New York Times, June 24.)
Paris, June 23.—Charles R. Patterson, of the University of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and Homer Toulon, of 1519 Fountain street, Philadelphia, Pa., kept a Y. M. C. A. tent running day and night under a recent German bombardment and gas attack. One shell struck alongside the tent and upset a stove, which set fire to some of the contents of the store. Neither of the men was hit.

The Germans continued to throw shells into the flames, driving out the men who were trying to save the supplies. Patterson is suffering from shell shock, but is continuing his work. Arthur S. Motion, of Elmira, N. Y., worked until exhausted and had to be forcibly removed for treatment.

Several Y. M. C. A. workers on the American front northwest of Toul have been recommended for citations for exemplary conduct displayed in the recent fight at Xivray.

Henry Wharton, of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia; Benton Johnston, of Detroit, Mich., and Alfred Stokes, of Stamford, Conn., joined stretcher-bearers and carried out wounded men under fire or stood at the entrance of the dressing stations under fire giving wounded soldiers drinks and lighted cigarettes. In many cases, the doctors say, the Y. M. C. A. workers gave the wounded men the necessary stimulus to save their lives.

Gas shelling is so constant and active on the front that canteen workers serve hours behind counters wearing masks. Drivers of Y. M. C. A. supply trucks are compelled to mask.

AERIAL MAIL SERVICE PROVES BG-SUCCESS

Postoffice Department Will Extend Service—The Experiment Proves That Aerial Route is Feasible.

The post-office department authorizes the following:
In the first month's operation of the aerial mail service between New York, Philadelphia and Washington, a total of 5 2-5 tons of letter-mail was transported. The planes carrying mail covered 11,109 miles and had a total of 157 hours 59 minutes in the air. The average speed through storm and fair weather for the month was slightly in excess of 70 miles an hour. Twenty-one out of 25 flights were completed at Belmont before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, 12 of them being between 2:30 and 3 o'clock.

Lieutenant Edgerton has to his credit 20 perfect flights of 130 miles, never having to make a stop en route, and without damaging a plane. Lieutenant Culver, flying between New York and Philadelphia, has 13 perfect flights to his credit, never having to stop en route, and having no damage to his plane. Lieutenant Webb has 11 perfect flights to his credit. Lieutenant Kilgore made 9 nonstop flights and 2 interrupted flights. Lieutenant Bonsal made 15 nonstop and 4 interrupted flights, and 1 damaged plane. Lieutenant Miller made 11 non-stop flights, 4 interrupted flights, and 2 planes damaged.

In view of the success obtained in the first month's operation of the service, and the fact that the capacity of the machines is not being fully utilized, the department has under consideration a reduction of the postage rate on aeroplane mail.

THEY SHALL NOT WIN.

Whatever the strength of our foes is now,
Whatever it may have been;
This is our slogan, this our vow—
They shall not win, they shall not win.

Though out of the darkness they call for aid,
Of the evil forces of sin;
We utter our slogan unafraid—
They shall not win, they shall not win.

We know that we are right, and know they're wrong,
So to God above and within;
We make our vow and sing our song—
They shall not win, they shall not win.

It rises over the shriek of hell,
And over the cannon's din;
Our slogan shall scatter the hosts of hell—
They shall not win, they shall not win.

Banking Service "Over There"

TO Americans going into service "over there," this Company offers banking facilities which meet every need. Our Paris and London Offices are officially designated United States Depositaries, and are completely equipped American banking institutions, conducted on American lines. Their facilities are at the disposal of those in all branches of the United States Government service. The following are some of the arrangements which may be made.

Checking accounts can be opened with our Paris or London Offices. Commissioned officers who have accounts with our Paris Office have the additional advantage of being able to cash their checks thereon at the branches of the leading French banks.

Regimental or company fund accounts may be opened with or transferred to our Paris Office, and are available in France the same as checking accounts here.

While in France you can cash your personal checks on your home bank, if your bank makes the necessary arrangements with us.

"Service Checks," approved by the United States Government, are sold by this Company at concentration camps, and at all our offices. These checks may be readily cashed in France, England and Italy, and are safer to carry, while fully as available as cash.

You can purchase from us travelers' checks, or travelers' letters of credit, available anywhere.

Credits may be established abroad, through us, by relatives or friends in the United States, for the benefit of those already "over there."

Our Overseas Service Division gives special attention to the banking requirements of Americans "over there," and welcomes any inquiries as to the arrangements best adapted to your needs. Send for our booklet, "War-Time Service Overseas," which describes in detail the services mentioned above.
