

ATHLETICS WILL BEGIN TO STIR AMONG SOLDIERS

Director Bergman Has Just Returned From Ten-Day Trip to Blue Ridge.

Athletics began to stir this week with the return of Athletic Director A. E. Bergman from Blue Ridge, N. C., where he has been instructing the special school for Y. M. C. A. training. Mr. Bergman is full of enthusiasm with his return to camp life and stated today that he would put some pep and ginger into the games and sports of Camp Greene before many days. At the conference of directors for the southeastern department the fall and winter program was outlined and planned and next week will be ready for announcement. It will consist of informal activities, Mr. Bergman states, which will include baseball, soccer, football and push ball. A new game was created and is called "Mass Soccer." In this game three soccer balls are used instead of one and as many as desire may play the game and the ball may go under the net instead of over.

Director Bergman is arranging to give private instruction to officers and non-coms in life saving methods and other points which he considers of value. He will also have a class in boxing and bayonet practice, both of which have about the same movements and can be taught together.

Mr. Bergman is highly pleased with the field he has and says that he sure has a big job on his hands but he is going to show other camps what fine talent Camp Greene really has.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Red Cross at Camp Greene has been doing a deal of work since the 7,500 negroes and 5,000 limited service men came into camp. Dr. T. D. Gardner, who is the director of military relief, has been on the watch to anticipate the needs of the men for sweaters, socks and such things of comfort and care. He has recently sent a large order to headquarters in Atlanta consisting of many things for winter use. Mr. J. B. Branch also has gone to the rescue of the score of men among those drafted for limited service, who were required to leave their families hurriedly and without due provision in many cases. Mothers and wives, children and grand parents are being looked out for now as the result of telegrams and letters to the chapters back home, telling them to find these homes and give advice and assistance.

It might be added too that Mr. Branch is going to be one of the men in the Arc to go over seas and will leave his family of a wife and three children to help out the boys at the front in every way he can. He is getting the fever and says that they can't call him none too soon.

The convalescent home is ready to be turned over to the Red Cross and is now being furnished. The opening will occur shortly and there will be a formal dedication of the building to the high purpose for which it has been planned and built. This building is in the shape of a Red Cross and is the largest entertainment place in Camp Greene and is located just west of the base hospital.

The workers of the Red Cross can tell some mighty pitiful stories of the actual conditions that exist in some of the homes to which they come to the relief. Men from every walk of life appear at this office and pour out their troubles and in every case an investigation is made and something done if the party is found worthy. For that reason they are worked day and night helping the needy.

Gas Classes Started Monday.

The classes in gas instruction in charge of Lieutenant E. D. Gilmer of the headquarters staff corps started off Monday in Y building 102. All the officers are taking this special instruction in the class room and later the actual appliances will be used drilling the men in the offensive and defensive features.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Sept. 21, 1918.

To The Trench and Camp:
The Knights of Columbus secretaries of this camp report the following activities for the past week:

Monday night: The entire contingent of colored regiments of this camp marched to the Knights of Columbus Building No. 1 and enjoyed an evening of varied entertainment.

The fourth recruit camp turned out in full formation to watch the outdoor moving pictures at K. of C. Building No. 2. The program consisted of a five-reel feature and two very good reels of comedy. All the boys decided that they had spent a very pleasant evening.

Tuesday night: The boys from the cooks' and bakers' school enjoyed a seven-reel moving picture program. All seemed satisfied at the end of the evening.

Friday night: Considering the very unfavorable weather, the men who were able to get to our base hospital building heard some of the finest music that could be obtained in this camp. The program consisted of a violin and piano solo by the men from the recruit camp; a varied number of other entertainers with a few reels of moving pictures as a climax. The men that attended had a very enjoyable evening.

Saturday night: Confessions are heard every Saturday night from 7 to 9 in both buildings, and on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 providing the camp chaplain is not otherwise detained on business.

Sunday morning: The masses for Sunday are as follows: K. of C. building No. 1, 7 a. m. and 10:45 a. m.; K. of C. building No. 2, 7 a. m. and 9 a. m.

The secretaries hope to report more activity in the future than they have in the past few weeks, owing entirely to the small number of men now located at this camp. We are looking forward to a very active fall and winter and hope to be able to supply the boys of Camp Greene with some fine entertainments as we did in the past. Just watch our program, boys. Everybody welcome, that's our pass-word.

Mr. Kehoe, our general secretary, announces the arrival of new secretaries during the past week, who have been assigned as follows:

K. of C. building No. 1, Secretaries De Haven, Weber and O'Toole.

K. of C. building No. 2, Secretaries McDermott, Flaherty and McGrath.

They are at your service at all times.

EDWARD J. O'TOOLE,
Secretary Bldg. No. 1.

Forming Bible Classes.

A drive is being made to organize Bible classes among the different companies of the camp and especially in the base hospital division they are well organized with the officers as instructors assisted by the Y. M. C. A. men.

CAMP GREENE MASONS ORGANIZE KENT MASONIC CLUB

Thursday night, while awaiting a special dispensation from Grand Master Norflee, of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, there assembled about 200 soldiers who are members of the Masonic order, and now stationed at Camp Greene, the purpose being to organize a Masonic club.

The meeting was held in the dental infirmary and was called to order by Colonel Wm. A. Kent, commanding officer of Camp Greene.

Never before perhaps in the history of Masonic activity in North Carolina was there so many military Masons gathered together. Practically every state in the union was represented at the meeting.

The committee on selecting a site for the Masonic club and military lodge reported that a site could be had near the Liberty theater and that the owners had agreed to furnish the location without any rental for the purpose of constructing thereon a building to contain a Masonic club downstairs and a military lodge upstairs.

The committee on membership reported that a dozen or more Masons at the camp held their membership in North Carolina and others remained to be seen. It is estimated that there are in the neighborhood of four hundred Masons at the camp at this time, and every one will become a member of the club and a number will become members of the military lodge there.

A committee composed of the various organizations located at the camp was appointed to submit names and nomination for the officers of the club and the result was that the following were elected temporary officers:

Capt. D. G. Everhart, president; Capt. R. P. Roloff, first vice president; Lieut. C. G. Miles, second vice president; First Class Sergeant C. O. V. Johnston, secretary; Private H. W.

Rogers, assistant secretary, and Maj. Clarence H. Greene, treasurer. In accepting the office of treasurer, Major Greene provoked considerable laughter when he remarked that he was used to handling big money.

In compliment to Colonel Wm. A. Kent, the commanding officer, it was unanimously agreed to name the club "The Kent Masonic Club of Camp Greene." While Colonel Kent was objecting to this, Captain Darling remarked that the "Kent club kent by beat."

A committee on constitution and by-laws was elected, consisting of Captain Sid L. Darling, Lieutenant D. Mackey and Private R. W. Walters. The meeting was harmonious from beginning to end. Among the assemblage there were commissioned and non-commissioned, colonels and privates—a democratic gathering, which will bring the Hun to his knees.

The movement for a military lodge and Masonic club was originally undertaken by Colonel Kent and Captain Everhart and it was through the activity and influence of these distinguished brethren that the movement gained such headway in so short a time.

It was also gratifying to the Charlotte Masons that the Masonic club was organized and they will co-operate in every way with the boys at Camp Greene.

The next meeting of the club will be held next Thursday night.

REGULAR RELIGIOUS SERVICES AT Y. M. C. A. BUILDINGS

Regular services were held at all the Y. M. C. A. buildings Sunday morning and evening with much interest shown. The soldiers have demonstrated that they enjoy church in Camp Greene just as much as they do at home and many attend regularly. Added to these regular Sunday services the soldier has the advantage of a mid-week meeting on stipulated nights at each building and the soldiers are showing considerable interest in these.

Will soon enter in upon its great $170,000 campaign for funds with which to carry on its work for the soldier.

The Soldiers of the Southeastern Department are called upon to help tell this story to the folks at home with cartoons. There are scores of good cartoonists in the camps of the Southeast and these organizations want their aid and are willing to pay them for their work.

These Cartoons will be used in Trench and Camp, for magazine covers and daily papers of this department during the campaign.

For the best cartoon depicting the work of these organizations in the Army and Navy, Trench and Camp will pay $25.00 cash.

For all others used $1.00 each will be paid. None will be returned.

All cartoons must be in by October 10. Mail same to L. P. Moore, Publicity Director, Southeastern Department, 75 Luckie St., Atlanta, Ga. For further information see editor of Trench and Camp.
