

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Monday Night.

The boys of the cooks and bakers' school and nearby regiments enjoyed five reels of feature and two reels of comedy at the Knights of Columbus building No. 1. Much to the pleasure of the secretary the boys seemed to have had a very enjoyable evening in the manner they responded with their applause. Moving pictures will always play a favorite role in this camp as the boys always enjoy this form of amusement as much as anything else that may be put across.

Tuesday Night.

A vaudeville entertainment of a large variety, which displayed the large amount of hidden talent to be found at this camp, took place on Tuesday evening, September 24, at the Knights of Columbus building No. 2. The program was handled in a masterful manner by Secretaries McDermott, McGrath, Flaherty and Weber. The program was as follows in the order of their appearance:

Vocal solo by Private John Quinn, who rendered a few popular tunes, much to the delight of the boys, who responded with a loud round of applause.

Violin solo by Secretary James J. McGrath, of the Knights of Columbus. Mr. McGrath is a past master of the violin by the wonderful ovation he received. Mr. McGrath in civil life is a native of Boston and has promised the boys of this camp to render some more of his selections in the near future.

Dancing act—Miss Adwina Moretz, a resident of Charlotte, and Private Martin Saltzman, of the cooks and bakers' school, displayed to the boys some of the finest fancy dancing that has ever been witnessed in this camp. Mr., or rather Private, Saltzman was a professional dancer in New York city before joining the forces here.

A vocal solo by Private Mark Lobel, who received a good hand from the boys for his marked efforts in assisting to help please them.

Fancy dancing by Miss Louise Moretz, sister of the above-named couple, and Private Sidney Fuld, also of the cooks and bakers' school. They ran the above mentioned team a good race for first honors by reason of the loud applause they received from the boys in attendance.

A vocal solo by Secretary Charles H. Weber, who is from Detroit, obliged the audience by singing a couple of good numbers and was amply rewarded by the applause he received.

Recitation by Private Quinn, which was highly welcomed by the boys by a well deserved round of appreciative applause.

Vocal solo by Private Clifford who sung a few popular airs for the boys. His fine efforts were welcomed by a good hand from the audience. Let's hear some more from you, Clifford.

Quartet composed of Privates Quinn, Ha-kell, Brown and Secretary McDermott, of the Knights of Columbus. They proved to the boys just what they had hidden in this particular camp by the way they put their numbers across.

The piano accompanist of the evening, Private John Eifers, deserves a great deal of credit for the fine work he rendered during the evening.

Putting everything aside, the show was attended by a very large audience, much to the delight of the secretaries who tried hard to make it a success, and it is hoped that we will be able to put some more of this form of amusement across as a regular attraction at our building. We wish to thank all those who took an active part through the columns of this paper.

Wednesday Night.

The boys of this camp were entertained by a moving picture program on this evening at K. of C. building No. 2. The building was well filled, always to our pleasure.

Thursday Night.

No attractions planned for this evening.

Friday Night.

There was another vaudeville entertainment of variety given at the Knights of Columbus hut, connected with the base hospital. There was a large attendance of convalescent patients and some thirty odd nurses who highly honored us with their presence for which we are very thankful. The program consisted of the following:

Vocal solo by Messrs. Bartuch and Wize, who rendered a few popular airs for the amusement of the boys.

Violin solo by Secretary John J. McGrath, of the Knights of Columbus, who once again proved his value to the camp community.

Banjo and mandolin solo by Messrs. Gang, Sande and Mauk, of the recruit regiments. These boys are to be highly complimented on their excellent playing and it is hoped the Knights of Columbus will be able to present them to the boys very shortly.

Vocal solo by Secretary Joseph Downey, of the Knights of Columbus. Mr. Downey sang a few airs for the boys and received a warm reception.

Two reels of moving pictures. Funny stories by Secretary Joseph Downey, of the K. of C., who amused the boys with some good jokes and rhymes.

Mr. Ottd Reisel, famous pool and billiard expert, gave a private exhibition of fancy pool shooting.

Aerobic stunts by Private Branton, which was well received by the large audience.

Final curtain at 10:30 p. m. Saturday afternoon and night are devoted to letter writing and the hearing of confessions in all three buildings.

Sunday Morning.

Watch bulletins for masses as it is impossible to decide upon proper hours for mass, owing to the uncertainty of the number of priests to be in camp over Sunday. All Knights of Columbus buildings are instructed to post the time of masses in their buildings. So watch the blackboards, boys, and you can't go wrong.

We beg to announce the departure of Mr. John W. Kehoe, general secretary of the Knights of Columbus at this camp for his home in New York. We know that all the boys and secretaries will miss Mr. Kehoe, as he has always proved a loyal friend in need, both to the sick and convalescent men and those stationed here. Mr. Kehoe's successor will be Mr. William Eagan, of Ontario, Canada. Welcome, Mr. Eagan, and may you prove a worthy friend of the boys as our departed Mr. Kehoe. Mr. Kehoe, upon his return to the south will proceed to take charge of the activities there. We convey to him the best of good luck in his new undertaking.

We wish to quote the following message to the President of the United States as copied from the daily papers:

The Order's Pledge to Our President.
On behalf of the delegates, Knights of Columbus of the United States, we have the honor of conveying to the President of our great republic, commander-in-chief of our army and navy, the most sincere expression of our unabatable patriotism and of our profound loyalty.

Four hundred and twenty-five thousand Knights of Columbus, who have pledged their entire activities to the glorious army and navy of the United States, are proud to co-operate with their fellow countrymen of all designations in order to help our beloved and highly respected leader and our victorious fighting forces to secure, not only for America, but for the whole world, this blessed liberty without which democracy will never be safe.

We are in this holy war until complete victory for us and our allies is achieved.

The Submarine is Centuries Old

CONTRARY to common belief, seacraft traveled under water at least 300 years, and probably 3000, before John Holland's submarine.

James I., in 1621, took a submarine trip several miles long, in a submarine invented by Cornelius Van Drebbel. Van Drebbel's craft was a true navigating submersible, made water-tight by greased leather, and propelled by twelve oarsmen, who rowed with oars fitted through water-tight holes in the hull.

Though the submarine in its development has appeared in a hundred fantastic forms, the automobile tire has matched it in freakish inventions.

Goodrich's clear-sighted direction was needed to hold it to principles of usefulness, and produce—
