OUR SOLDIER'S CENTER

This Raeford and Hoke County project is still a growing institution. The number of week-end visitors include soldiers from Fort Bragg, Hoffman, and the Flying School at Maxton.
While these do not compare in number to "The days of the Second Armored Division," yet, we serve an average of thirty or more service men every week and the interest is growing.
We wish to again thank the Kiwanis, the Woman's Club, Home Economics clubs and numerous individual friends who have so kindly donated, to the comfort and enjoyment of our boys in the service and bespeak your further interest and aid.
RUTH GORDON CURRIE,
FLORA McNEILL BOYCE,
Hostesses.
McKETHAN-TRAWICK

In a pretty ceremony of marked simplicity on Tuesday evening at the Methodist Church of this town, Miss Elizabeth Trawick became the bride of Kenneth Alexander McKethan, of Fayetteville. The church was tastefully decorated in all green; pines and smilax being used. White candles in seven branched candelabra was the only note of white.
Miss Jessie Bright Ferguson played the wedding march as the bride and groom approached the altar together. The bride's father, Rev. W. F. Trawick, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. E. C. Crawford. There were no attendants other than the two ushers, Wallace Chandler, of State College, and W. J. Yarbrough, of Louisburg College.
The bride wore a stylish and becoming street length dress of wool in winter white with antique brown accessories. Her flowers were orchids.
Mrs. McKethan, mother of the groom, wore black with lilies of the valley and Mrs. Trawick wore purple with lavender flowers.
The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip after which the groom will go to Army Camp and the bride back to her school duties as teacher in Mount Gilead.
Mrs. McKethan is the only daughter and elder child of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Trawick. She graduated from Flora Macdonald College last spring and has been teaching since September at Mt. Gilead.
L. McKethan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKethan, of Fayetteville, N. C. He graduated from State College. He recently graduated from Officer Candidate Training School at Fort Knox, Ky., where he received his commission. He has been assigned to Camp Campbell, Ky.
Those from out of town attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKethan, of Fayetteville, Miss Rebecca McKethan, of Flora Macdonald College, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stearns, of Chesterfield, S. C.; Florence and D. A. McKethan, Sr., Mr.

MR. GROUNDHOG SAW HIS SHADOW

From the looks of things today, that six weeks of bad weather seems to be on the way. It had been reported that probably Mr. G-Hog might not appear this year out of fear, since meat is so scarce.

DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE MEETS

The Literature Department of the Raeford's Woman's Club had a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening of last week. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Campbell with Mrs. W. J. Coates, assisting hostess. A nominating committee was appointed to name new officers, and the usual contribution was taken for the Raeford Soldier's Center.
Mrs. A. L. O'Brian discussed a most interesting and timely subject, "Spreading Gossip." After a round table discussion of this a social hour in which tempting refreshments were served was enjoyed.

ICE CREAM

America's ice cream industry has received orders from the government to cut its use of milk and milk products for civilian production to 65 per cent of quantities used from December 1, 1941 to November 30, 1942.

IF YOUR NOSE 'CLOSES UP' TONIGHT

Here's mighty good news... If your nose "closes up" tonight and makes breathing difficult, put 3-purpose Vicks Va-tro-nol up each nostril. Va-tro-nol does 3 important things. It (1) shrinks swollen membranes, (2) soothes irritation, (3) relieves transient nasal congestion. It brings more comfort, makes breathing easier, thus invites sleep... And remember, it helps prevent many colds developing if used in time. Follow directions in folder. VICKS VA-TRO-NOL
