Will Officers Enforce Vagrant Laws?

Appearing in this issue of the News-Journal is a resolution ratified by the General Assembly on March 9, 1943. This demands the strict enforcement of the State law against Vagrancy. Many people in this town will welcome that among white and colored. Because there is too much loafing and amusement going on in working hours—when there is work for everybody to do. Quoting from a recent editorial in the Charlotte Observer on the return of the alarm clock—"The country, in the meantime, needs a device for another type of drowsiness, some signal that will blare its alarm into dull ears of the multiple people of America and arouse them as to the perils involved in this war, to stimulate them to more active and conscientious services for their country in the hour of its dreadful travail, and to awaken within them the utmost of their consecrations and devotions to the nation's destiny."

"In this respect, too, there are millions upon millions of late and unaware sleepers upon whose consciousness has not yet registered the sirens that sound their warning or the trumpet that calls them to their posts of duty."

Higher Prices Announced For Five Farm Products

Guarantees Alfalfa Dry Beans, Peas, Peanuts, Soybeans and Flaxseeds.

Washington, April 7.—Food Administrator Chester C. Davis announced tonight that the government would guarantee farmers higher prices for five vital war crops—dry beans and peas, and peanuts, soybeans and flaxseed—to encourage greatest possible production.

WOMEN AT WAR

Irene

When Irene got home from the airplane factory she was good and tired. This was the hour, after work and before dinner, that she always looked forward to. Her private name for it was "My snaky hour." Into it, these days, she packed all the lazy, luxurious little things she loved—things that used to take up a lot more than an hour of her peace-time days. She sat down at the little desk in her room. You could tell quite a lot about Irene from that desk. The water-glass filled with the small bouquet of flowers she sometimes bought on the way home. The thin, crackly blue air-mail stationery. And the big, framed photograph of a young man in a corporal's uniform—as good-looking a man as Irene was pretty. On the blotter pad lay the telegram that had come that morning just as she was leaving for work. With those long, well-shaped fingers she reached for a sheet of paper. She nibbled the end of her pen for a bit, and then she wrinkled up her nose at the picture of the soldier and began to write, "Dear Mr. Morgenthau", but the corporal's name was Jackson and she called him Pete. Her round handwriting spread across the page. "My boy friend is with the A.E.F. in Ireland. He has cabled me fifty dollars with which to buy a diamond ring. I've been thinking it over and decided to buy a War Bond to help Uncle Sam instead. This may help to bring my boy friend home sooner, and then he can help me select my ring."

Let's all sacrifice as Irene has done. Bring final victory closer with the money you put into War Bonds. Make certain your family budget tops 10 percent by New Year's.

I do not think it wise to lengthen the school term to nine months if the children can make the grade in eight months. Nor do I believe in retaining the sales tax. It gives dishonest merchants too good a chance to take from their customers a little at a time.

If the school term is lengthened to nine months, and an advance of 20 per cent in teachers' salaries, the law will apply to colored schools and teachers as well as to whites. Prices slumped in the general deflation in 1920 when the country went back to normalcy. That was a costly normalcy. The shrinkage in values cost the country fourteen billion dollars. It was said, then prices rallied somewhat, but was all the year about it in 1921. The country was prosperous in 1922, 23, but 1924 the weather stayed wet as rain could make it all summer. Farmers could not take their mules in the fields nine tenths of that year. Very little was made. 1926-27 were good crop years, and farmers regained the losses of 1926 and 1924. But poor crops were made here in 1928 and 1929. Too much rain.

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten that victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives—you lend your money.

VARIETY MEATS AID IN WAR MENU PLANNING

Meats	Characteristics*	Food Value	Buying Guide		Preparation

 Kidneys (beef, lamb, pork)	Calf, lamb and pork kidneys more tender, of milder flavor than beef. Veal and lamb kidneys sometimes cut with chops.	Rich source of iron, phosphorus. Good source vitamin A. Excellent for B vitamins, quality protein.	1 beef — 1 lb. 1 calf — ¾ lb. 1 pork — ½ lb. 1 lamb — ⅜ lb.	4 to 6 3 to 4 1 to 2 ½ to 1	Stew, braise, broil or grind for loaves or patties.
 Heart (beef, lamb, pork)	Beef heart is least tender but all hearts must be made tender by proper cooking.	Rich source of iron and phosphorus. Excellent for B vitamins and quality protein.	1 beef — 4 lb. 1 calf — ½ lb. 1 pork — ½ lb. 1 lamb — ¼ lb.	12 to 16 2 to 3 2 to 3 1	Braise, stuff and braise, stew or grind for loaves or patties.
 Tongue (beef, lamb, pork)	May be purchased fresh, pickled, corned, or smoked. Make tender by proper cooking. Pork and lamb usually purchased ready to serve.	Good source of iron, phosphorus, B vitamins and quality protein.	1 beef — 3¼ lb. 1 calf — 1½ lb. 1 pork — ¾ lb. 1 lamb — ½ lb.	12 to 16 3 to 6 2 to 4 2 to 3	Simmer in seasoned water until tender. Remove skin, serve as desired.
 Tripe (beef)	First and second stomachs of beef. Plain and honeycomb, latter preferred. Purchased fresh, pickled or corned. Make tender by proper cooking.	Good source of quality protein.	Plain — 7 lb. Honeycomb — 1½ lb.	¾ to 1 lb. for four	Pre-cook in water to make tender. Then broil, fry or braise.
 Sweetbreads (beef, lamb, pork)	Divided into two parts: Heart and throat sweetbreads. Tender and delicate in flavor.	Good source of riboflavin (vit. B) and quality protein.	¼ lb.	¾ to 1 lb. for four	Pre-cook in water to help keep firm. Broil, fry, braise or cream.
 Brains (beef, lamb, pork)	Very tender and delicate in flavor.	Good source of iron, phosphorus, B vitamins and quality protein.	⅜ lb.	¾ to 1 lb. for four	Pre-cook in water to help keep firm and make into a scramble.

This handy chart on variety meats is designed to assist the housewife in solving her wartime meat problems. The variety meats are deserving of special consideration because they are high in food value and may be prepared in many appetizing dishes to supplement the usual chops, steaks, stews and roasts.

WAY OF SPRING

Now in the greater glory
Of a sun
More gold before the shing
Hours are done
The winds blow alternately
Warm and cold
Nor ever forecast whether
Each day hold
Rain, snow, or sun as far
As eye can reach;
Winter or summer, or
A bit of each—
Whispering that whatever
They may bring
This is the well-remembered
Way of spring—

LOCAL REA SYSTEM OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

The Lumbee River Electric Membership Corporation, Raeford, this week enters its third year of supplying electric service to farmers and other rural consumers in this area. Citing the progress of the Cooperative since its lines were first energized on April 5, 1941, Superintendent D. J. Dalton recalled that the system had only 659 consumers at the end of its first month of operation. Today the Cooperative furnishes electric service to 1179 consumers along 473 miles of distribution lines in Hoke, Scotland, Robeson and Cumberland counties. Farm members of the Cooperative have come to depend more and more on electric equipment to save labor and increase production of vital foods as milk, eggs, poultry, and meats, Mr. Dalton said.

BANG'S DISEASE

Vaccination to prevent Bang's disease has proven highly satisfactory. Approximately 97 percent of the calvings of vaccinated animals, mingling with infected cattle, were normal.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Rural Electrification has made great strides during the past ten years, bringing to thousands of farm homes the conveniences of their city brothers. Today, however, copper wiring, fixtures—all the materials which are required for rural electrification—are "out" for the duration.

The farmers of the nation, however, can start now buying rural electrification and all the equipment which goes with it through purchase of War Bonds. Your War Bonds today will buy rural electrification tomorrow and give you back $4 for every $3 you invest.
