Victory and ... a ship inching into its berth ... bands playing ... confetti and streamers and horns and waving handkerchiefs ... cheering, weeping crowds.

Your eyes strain to find one familiar face. And then your heart leaps wildly, uncontrollably. The years of struggle and worry and fear melt away. You blink back the tears ... and wave and shout and dance and scream. The man you love is home.

What would you do to bring him back just one day sooner?

There is one thing that you - and all Americans - can do. Buy War Bonds and Stamps.

METHODIST BABIES HAVE PROGRAM

The babies in the Cradle Roll of the Raeford Methodist Church gave a most interesting program to the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. J. C. Thomas is secretary of the babies work.

The babies marched in with their mite boxes while the band composed of Alfred Cole, Jr., Betsy Ann Cole, William and John Scott Poole, Luke McNeill, and George White played "Onward Christian Soldiers." The children sat in little chairs in a circle around William Laurence Upchurch, sitting in his carriage, during the following program:

"Greetings to the Parents and Babies Sandra Halperin
"Welcome to the New Babies"
Lucy Chapman and Joan McLeod
Prayer Harriet Cameron
"To the Babies"—Dick McFadyen
Gerald Wright and Edward Langston
"The Cuddle Song"

Lillian Scarborough
"Little Gifts" Julia Morris
Thomas Upchurch, Cameron, Jr., was made a life member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cameron. William Laurence Upchurch, Jr. by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Upchurch, Lillian Scarborough by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Scarborough. Lucy Chapman by the Omega Clegg Circle and John Worth Graham by the Cradle Roll. Mrs. Jesse Gibson then presented Mrs. J. C. Thomas with a life membership pin from the Woman's Society of Christian Service for her long and faithful work with babies. Iris Thomas pinned the pin on her grandmother.

Allice Sutton Matheson and Iris Thomas sang "Suffer The Little Children" and the meeting was closed with a prayer by Florence Cameron.

Dances At Mackall

Among the hostesses for the dance at Mackall last Friday night was Miss Josephine Hall of Raeford. Others were from the nearby towns. On Friday, April 23rd, with Easter close at hand, the Division will hold a double-header affair, giving two Easter dances. Both dances have been planned as formals, and both Division orchestras will play for the dances. Girls will attend the dances from Rockingham, Hamlet, Wadesboro, Aberdeen, Southern Pines, Pinehurst, West End, Carthage, Raeford, and Laurinburg, N. C., and Cheraw, S. C. The combination of their personal charm and vivacity and the beauty of their Easter gowns is expected to make this week-end, for all of the men who attend, truly the highlight of the year's happiest season.

Shavitz-Linder

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shavitz announce the engagement of their daughter, Reva Irene, to Harold E. Linder, warrant officer, Fort Bragg, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Linder, East Norwalk, Conn.
