

With the Army People

(Contributed.)

Word has recently been received here of the promotion of Donald Muller to the grade of Major. The Mullers, who were residents of Raeford for some time, are now at Fort Sill, Okla., and expect to return to Raeford in the near future.

Major George Dooley returned to Raeford from Fort Sill Sunday night.

Captain and Mrs. Grover Robinson announce the arrival of a seven and a half pound son at Post Hospital No. 1 on May 6th.

Mrs. J. A. Jordan and little son, Albert, left this morning for McCormick, S. C. to spend a week or ten days with Mrs. Jordan's parents.

Mrs. Bob Cook and Lynn spent the week-end in Georgetown, S. C. via Miss Mrs. Raymond Mearns and her mother Mrs. Nita Stokes.

The Officers' Wives' Club will be entertained at a Cocktail and bridge party next Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. David Blough at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Blough will be assisted by Mrs. Bob Cook. Please make reservations by telephoning Mrs. Blough—2461 or Mrs. Cook—2901 not later than Tuesday noon. Mrs. Blough lives in the Bell Lament home which is located just across the street from Mrs. Paul Dickson's house.

Lt. Wayne Jones has been ordered to Camp Blending, Fla. and expects to leave Raeford this week-end. The Jones have lived in Raeford for almost a year, having received the H. L. Gattlin, Jr. apartment for several months. They expect to visit their families in district before proceeding to Camp Blending. Friends of the Jones will miss the very much. Capt. and Mrs. Eva Harris will move into the Gattlin apartment as soon as the house is ready. Capt. Harris is stationed at Maxwell.

Sgt. and Mrs. Kenneth Schwere of Hol Springs, N. C. spent the week-end at Wrightsville Beach, N. C. They have had rooms at Mrs. B. R. Gattlin's but Mrs. Schwere returned to her home in Assamint this week. Mrs. Schwere expects to join her husband again soon. Sgt. Schwere is stationed at Maxwell.

If you appreciate getting the News-Journal each week as a gift mention it when you shop, and patronize its Raeford and out-of-town advertisers.

Electric Disturbance At Mrs. Covington's.

During the storm Monday afternoon, lightning hit the electric water heater at Mrs. W. T. Covington's which is installed where the pretty teachers who lived with Mrs. Covington have their rooms. The fire company was called and responded promptly. They sawed off upstairs and put out the blaze, and lit the house was done. Through Upchurch, Frank Tomlin and Don Starling were used to have down those things which they came down.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Presented to the Hoke County Board of Education, and offer for sale the cash in the highest bidder at 12 o'clock noon on the eighth (8th) day of June 1943, what is known as the old Aberdeen Chapel school site located about 3 miles South of Raeford, in Hoke County, described as follows:
