RATION BOARD

Churches are controlled by the same regulations as any other organization. To sell barbecued meats that are rationed, or any food service, they must register as Institutional Users and work on basis of points per person. There are not enough points given to permit the sale of barbecue or steak or any all-meat meal. It makes no difference if the pigs are given or not—the problem is one of selling meals and all meals must be guided insofar as rationed food—by rationing regulations.

Plane Falls Into House, Killing 5

Greensboro, Sept. 14—Four members of the family of Oliver Knight, a Greensboro mail carrier who lives near Guilford College, and the pilot of a Navy fighter plane were killed yesterday when the plane crashed into the Knight home.

The two-story frame house burst into flames after the crash.

The dead: Mrs. Knight, her oldest daughter, Miss Wilma Knight, about 18, and two younger children, Dorothy and Oliver Knight, Jr.

Authorities withheld the name of the pilot.

N. Y. Times Prints Issue In Teheran

Tehran, Iran, Sept. 9—The first overseas weekly edition of the New York Times was distributed yesterday to U. S. Army post exchanges.

Plastic edition plates were flown from the United States and immediately bolted to an ancient flatbed press, the only available printing unit in this country. The paper was run off in 48 hours and was immediately distributed without charge throughout the command.

The boss looked up wearily as another employee approached him on the day before the ball game.

"All right—I suppose your grandmother's being buried tomorrow, too?"

The office boy grinned. "No, sir! She's making her first parachute jump."

Mrs. Nearby: "My ancestry dates back before the days of Charlemagne. How old is your family?"

Mrs. Chubbitt: "I really can't say. You see, all our family records were lost in the flood."

A friend called upon a guest at a hotel, knocked, and asked him to open the door.

"Can't, door's locked."

"Well, unlock it!"

"Can't, lost the key."

"What will you do if there's a fire?"

"I can't go!"

*What You Buy With WAR BONDS*

Booby Trap Detector

In the snow, in the sand, on the beaches, on the roads, in the woods, everywhere the Axis soldiers hide "booby traps," to slow the movement of oncoming fighting men of the United Nations. The detector does the same work on land as the mine sweeper does at sea.

Like buying War Bonds, the soldier operating the detectors will never know just how much they have aided in the success of their campaign, but he knows his work is necessary and must be accomplished. If more Americans on the home front will come to realize this, the success of our War Bond campaigns will be assured.

From where I sit

by Joe Marsh

Sam Abernethy always said: "Curiosity may kill a cat—but I'm no cat." Which is Sam's way of saying that when he's curious about something he goes out and gets the facts.

Seems our government feels the same way. After hearing rumors about our soldiers drinking too much—government people went after the facts. They got the evidence on what our boys drink... and don't drink.

The government found out our Army's the best behaved in history. More'n half of 'em drink beer—nothing stronger. And the government found that selling 3.2 beer in Army camps is one reason why our Army is so temperate.

From where I sit, there isn't much cause to worry about our men in the Army. Looks like they can take care o' themselves—and take care o' the Nazis and the Japs, too.

Preserve Bond Numbers Treasury Advice To All

Washington, Sept. 9—The Treasury, reporting it is called upon to replace nearly 20,000 lost War Bonds a month, issued this advice Sept. 7 to the 50,000,000 Americans expected to buy additional bonds during the Third War Loan opening Sept. 9.

"Write down the serial number of every bond you buy. The number is in the upper right hand corner. Keep the numbers recorded in a safe place. If you have the number of a bond that's lost it will be much easier to have it replaced."

Ireland Command To Capt. Thompson

London, Sept. 9—The appointment of Capt. Harry L. Thompson, former Commander of the U. S. S. Nevada, as Acting Commandant of the Londonderry, Northern Ireland, Operating Base was announced today by Headquarters of the U. S. Naval Forces in this theatre.

Captain Thompson, a member of the staff of Admiral Harold R. Stark, European Naval Forces Commander, succeeds Commodore James A. Logan, who was killed Sept. 4 in a plane crash.

In an Indiana college town a student called at a boarding house to inquire about rooms.

"And what do you charge for your rooms?" he asked.

"Five dollars up," was the reply.

"Yes, but I'm a student," he said, thinking the price a little high.

"That being the case, the price is five dollars down."
