LAURIE McEACHERN AND MISS RUTH LENORE McCULLERS ARE WED

Raleigh, Nov. 4.—The marriage of Miss Ruth Lenore McCullers, daughter of Mrs. W. E. McCullers and the late Mr. McCullers of Garner, to Laurie McEachern, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John F. McEachern of Raeford, was solemnized Wednesday morning, November 3, at 11 o'clock in the Christ Church Chapel in Raleigh.

The bridegroom's brother, the Rev. John McEachern of Columbia, S. C., officiated, and Mrs. Dodd Bonner of Aurora, sister of the bride, played the nuptial music.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore a navy blue ensemble with navy and white accessories, and corsage of white roses, valley lilies, and stephanotis.

Only the immediate members of the two families attended the wedding.

Mrs. McEachern was educated at the Woman's College in Greensboro and has been employed with the State department of motor vehicles for several years.

Mr. McEachern was educated at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., and at present is supervisor of field deputy collections of the State department of revenue.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McEachern left for a wedding trip to unannounced points, after which they will be at home in the Capital Apartments.

DANCE CHAPERONS ARE GUESTS AT MACKALL THURSDAY

Camp Mackall, Nov. 10.—Twenty-six ladies from six surrounding towns chaperons who have been attending 17th Airborne Division Unit dances in charge of the girls who come here as dancing partners of the soldiers, were guests Thursday Nov. 4, of the Division at an open house and tour of the camp.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. Sue Merritt, senior hostess of Service Club No. 2 with the cooperation of Major Allen V. Saporin, Division Special Services Officer. The program included luncheon at the Officers' Mess, followed by a field artillery demonstration, a tour of the 17th training areas and a ride through Camp Mackall, a visit to the Parachute packing sheds, another to the airport, and a meeting at Service Club No. 2. The guests included chaperons from Wadesboro, Southern Pines, Rockingham, Hamlet, Raeford, and Sanford.

Attending were the following ladies from Raeford: Mrs. K. B. Covington, Mrs. Bethune, and Mrs. Anne Blue, of Timberland.

MRS. MORRIS AND MRS. HANCOCK GIVE TEA

Mrs. Bruce Morris and Mrs. Joe Hancock gave a very pretty informal tea at the home of Mrs. Morris on Wednesday afternoon. At this time they introduced Miss Qneita Woolford, an especial friend of Bruce (Spec) Morris Jr. to their neighbors and close friends. Miss Woolford, who is a senior at Agnes Scott College Decatur, Ga., is from Galveston Texas. She was on her way to Camp Lee Va. to see her brother, who is at officer candidate school.

Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. has been visiting her parents in Gastonia. She went especially to see her brother Howard Falls who was at home from Guadacanal.

McDONALD-PEELE

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Mary Falls Peele of Laurel Hill to Lieutenant James Norman McDonald of Laurinburg on Friday afternoon, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Peele. Only members of the families of the bride and bridegroom and a few close friends were present. There were no attendants. The vows were spoken before an altar banked with cedar and white chrysanthemums, and was lighted with white tapers. Rev. Harry K. Holland of Raeford pastor of the bride, officiated. The wedding music was presented by Miss Emily Jean Matthews of Laurinburg.

The bride wore a dress of white marquisette and finger tip veil and carried a bridal bouquet centered with a white orchid. She was graduated from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, at Greensboro, and is now a teacher of Home Economics in the Raeford school.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McDonald of Laurinburg and was graduated from Presbyterian Junior College at Maxton, and is now with the United States Army Air Forces.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at an informal reception, after which the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip.

Those from out of town attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown, Jr. of Kanawha, Mrs. W. T. Covington, Miss Audrey Brunkhurst, and Mrs. H. C. McLaughlin, of Raeford, Lieutenant William Covington U. S. N. R. of Norfolk, Va., and Corporal D. T. McDonald of the U. S. Army of New York, N. Y.
