MRS. MURRAY SPEAKS TO CAMERON CLUB WOMEN

Mrs. R. L. Murray, president of the Ninth District of the N. C. Federation of Womens Clubs, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Cameron club held Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. Clyde Kelley.

In her talk Mrs. Murray talked on the federated program for the year and suggested club projects which would aid in our war effort and be of direct benefit to men and women in the services.

The club presented Mrs. Murray with a "warpage" at the close of the business session.

On leaving Cameron, Mrs. Murray, who was accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Cameron, then met with officers of the Vass club at the Acorn lunch room where club matters were again discussed.

rose cooler from the north, and clouds began to rise, and I remembered Christmas day, 1892, we did not make a fire in the house, except in the cook stove. We sat on the front porch all Christmas (Sunday), and through Monday, December 26th. It was still warm. Myself and a friend went to Fayetteville. It was a warm day until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the wind rose from the northwest, and clouds with it, and by 6 o'clock snow fell thick and fast. A six-inch snow fell, and very cold weather followed.
