MRS. JOHN McGOUGAN SLOWLY IMPROVING

The condition of Mrs. John McGougan is as satisfactory as could be expected considering how seriously she was injured in the wreck at South Hill while enroute to Richmond. It will be necessary for her to remain in Rex hospital at Raleigh for several weeks yet. The doctors in attendance think she is probably out of danger.

COLLEGE GIRLS HAVE A VERY GAY WEEK

The girls' college set had many delightful informal dinners, luncheons, and "coffee" during the holidays. On Thursday, Elsie Upchurch was hostess to the crowd with a luncheon, on Friday morning Josephine McLaughlin had a breakfast, and Mollie Cameron brought the festivities to a close on Monday evening with a dinner party. This was a New Year's affair. Table appointments and decorations were attractively suggestive of the season. Covers were laid for ten.

While other prices sing soprano electricity takes the basso part

SO MANY members of the cost-of-living chorus are hitting high notes these days that you may easily miss one performer still rumbling along in the lower registers.

The basso is electricity. Its price was low when war began—and has stayed there. In fact, it directly reversed the rising trend of other costs. Government figures show that the average price of electric service has actually declined during the war period!

That's news, these days. It's the product of sound business management, plus the hard work of your friends and neighbors in this self-supporting, tax-paying company.

And it's the promise of plentiful, low-priced electricity to run the modern marvels you'll have in your home after the war.
