

TODAY'S Meditation
 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. (John 1:18.) Read I Thessalonians 1:1-10.

Before World War II, a student at the Anglo-Chinese College, in Foochow, went with a teacher to attend the World Students Federation meeting held in Manila. As their steamer was approaching the wharf, the student saw a certain man standing among those sent by the YMCA of Manila to welcome the students. The student said to his teacher, "That man standing there must be a Christian."

"How do you know?" asked the teacher.

"I see his kind face is like Christ's," the student answered. "God is invisible, for He is Spirit. But Jesus said to His disciples, 'If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also... he that hath seen me hath seen the Father.' Christians who have the experience and know the spirit of truth reveal Christ, the Brother, as Christ reveals God, the Father.

Christians are spiritual artists. We picture Christ's character for others. Are we trying to be true artists?

PRAYER

Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for Thy gift of Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for our sins. Help us to reveal Christ's love among our fellow men at home, in school, in church, and in society. In His name we ask it. Amen.

Thought For The Day
 Today I will try by the way I live to picture Christ truly to others. — Wen T. Lin (Borneo)

WHAT SHALL I BE ?

"What shall I be when I grow up? What is life all about? Is there a God?"

Johnny is seeking. He wants to mold the future. He wants to know what to make of his life.

In later years, if Johnny hasn't found the answers, he will stop asking. He will be too concerned with the present to look to the future. He will be busy supporting a family, getting a new car, meeting unexpected sickness, trying to keep up with the Joneses.

So Johnny will start drifting. He will be carried away by the problems and anxieties of the grown-up world. He will be swept along in the stream of life without aims or purposes.

Help your Johnny to find the answers to his seeking. Take your child to Sunday School and Church this Sunday. Help him find the truth and certainty and faith to shape a great life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
