Shower Honors Jane Huckabee

Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Fred Johnson and her daughter, Mrs. Bill Evans, entertained with a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring September bride-elect Jane Huckabee.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations and a gift of china from the hostesses.

The dining room table was spread with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white althea.

Pink and white decorated bridal cake squares, cheese biscuits, nuts, mints and punch were served. Mrs. Louise Maxwell, aunt of the bride-elect, poured punch, and Mrs. Vardell Hedgpeith, mother of the bridegroom to be, served cake.

Home Ceremony Unites Carol English, Mr. Seaton

Miss Jean Carol English became the bride of James Ross Seaton Saturday in a three o'clock ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge English of 822 N. Main Street. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Elmer P. Johnson of King City, California and the late James Monroe Seaton.

The Rev. Jack Mansfield officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Two seven-branched candelabra entwined with smilax and holding white tapers formed an improvised altar. White bride's roses were used on the piano.

Miss Pamela Anne English was maid of honor and only attendant for her sister. She wore a pale yellow brocade empire dress with matching bow headpiece and flirtation veil. She carried a single white mum tied with yellow satin streamers.

Tom Von Pertz of Rolling Hills Estates, Calif. served as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length white silk shantung and lace dress fashioned with lace-covered short sleeves and lace appliques that extended from the scoop neckline down both sides of the dress front. A cluster of white roses held her halo illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white daisies with long satin streamers.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua silk shantung dress with matching hat. The bridegroom's mother wore a lime green knit outfit. Both mothers had white mum corsages.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and Charlotte Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

The bridegroom is a graduate of King City High School, Calif. and attended Hartnell Junior College and California Polytechnical College. After his discharge from the Army in October, the couple will leave for San Luis Obispo, Calif. where he will complete his education at California Polytechnical College.

For travel the bride wore a royal blue knit with white accessories and a white mum corsage. Upon their return from a wedding trip to South Carolina the couple will be at home in Southern Pines until October 14.

Reception

Following the ceremony a reception for relatives, out of town guests and close family friends was held at the bride's home. Hosts with Mr. and Mrs. English were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Henry Welch of Society Hill, S. C. and Mrs. Hugh D. Russell of Maxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peoples greeted guests and their daughter Mrs. Edgar Lefler kept the register. Mrs. M. A. Maxwell invited guests to the refreshment table. Goodbyes were said by Mrs. James Wood.

The table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations and white candles.

The three tiered wedding cake, topped with wedding bells, net and a white rose, was served by Mrs. Paul Burnett. Mrs. Stanley Koonce poured punch.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Elmer P. Johnson of King City, Calif., the bridegroom's mother; Mrs. Mike Duncan of Fresno, Calif. sister of the bridegroom; Lane Hudson of Pactolus, Sara Williams, Kent Thompson and Peggy Snipes of Southern Pines, and Carolyn Bailey of Chapel Hill.

men, your scents-itivity's your own thing

Gentlemen of the Classes of '69, '70, '71, and '72 —

There's no doubt about it, you've had higher entrance exam scores, you're brighter, more worldly, have more potential, have already achieved more, and have higher IQ's than any other entering class in history.

You've got more fashion and furnishings savvy, too. You're not afraid of color or changes in style. You're cool, confident, and ready for campus life.

But — is your "scent sense" as strong as it should be? Your "scent identity" is your own thing. It's important to the expression of you as an individual. How do you get "scent sense"? This year it's easy — pack a Le Mans Numero Uno Searcher Kit in your trunk.

Representative of the four basic men's fragrance categories, Numero Uno is a line of four separate scents, each with an identifying color top. Green, citrus; Red, spice; Silver, leather; and Gold a traditional yet thoroughly contemporary blend. These four fragrances have been put in 1/2-ounce jiggers and combined in the Searcher Kit so you can try them all.
