BRIDGE

Mrs. Beach

Members of her bridge club and one visitor, Miss Mary Neil Senter, met with Mrs. Martin Beach last Tuesday night. The hostess served pie and coffee before the game and nuts, candies and Cokes during play.

Mrs. Dale Ormsby won the high score prize and Miss Senter received the second high award.

Mrs. Poole

Mrs. John Scott Poole entertained her bridge club last Thursday night. Visitors were Mrs. Wyatt Upchurch and Mrs. Martin Webb.

Before play the hostess served dessert and coffee and during progressions she served Cokes and nuts.

Prizes went to Mrs. Ransom Baucom for club high score and to Mrs. Webb for visitor's high. Mrs. Harry Harrison received the consolation.

Mrs. Senter

Mrs. Neil Senter was hostess to her bridge club for supper on Thursday evening. She used arrangements of Spring flowers throughout her home.

Visitors to the club were Mrs. Duncan McFadyen, Mrs. Israel Mann, Mrs. Chandler Roberts, Mrs. Bob Townsend, Mrs. Paul Burnett, Mrs. Sam Homewood, Mrs. Martin Beach and Mrs. Willis Hood.

Mrs. William Lamont won the club prize and Mrs. Hood was winner of the visitors prize.

On Friday Mrs. Senter entertained with a bridge luncheon.

Spring flowers were used in the living rooms where three tables were arranged for luncheon.

The high score prize went to Mrs. W. L. Howell Jr.

Mrs. Senter was again hostess on Tuesday evening for dinner and bridge. Tables were laid for 12 guests.

The prize was awarded to Mrs. J. H. Austin.

Mesdames Risher,

Copper

Mrs. Tom Risher and Mrs. Sam Copper were hostesses for a bridge and stork shower Thursday evening honoring Mrs. Neill McFadyen Jr.

The Copper home was decorated in a green and yellow color motif and the same color note was used in refreshments. The hostesses served cake squares, decorated with tiny storks, nuts and coffee before the bridge game and bridge mix, mints and Cokes during play.

A table, centered with an open yellow umbrella tied with green ribbons, held the shower of gifts.

Mrs. N. A. McDonald received the high score prize, Mrs. Dave Russell the bingo prize, and Mrs. Jay Woodard the consolation.

Piano Students

Give Program

Piano students of Mrs. W. D. McLeod presented the program for the Home Life Department of the Raeford Woman's Club last Tuesday night at the Civic Center. Mrs. Wilton Wood was program chairman.

The program was as follows: Dangerous Journey and Mexican Hat Dance by Suzanne Jordan, Wagner's Pilgrim's Chorus from Tannhauser by Jane Austin, Sonata Rondo Movement, Lickner, by Charlene Averitt, Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 Liszt by Beth Wood, and Sonata Allegretto movement Kuhlau by Julie Kicklighter.

Chairman Mrs. John Best opened the business meeting with the reading of the Club Collect.

New officers installed which included Mrs. Ed Manning, chairman, and Mrs. J. B. White, secretary.

Reports from standing committees were heard; the planning committee presented the program and hostess committees for the coming year.

Hostesses Mrs. M. A. Maxwell and Mrs. Donald Yates served dessert and coffee.

Mrs. Talmadge English won the door prize.

Cathy McNeill was weekend guest of Becky Davis of Columbia, S. C.
