

Mrs. Whitley Dies Tuesday; Funeral Today

Funeral service is to be conducted Thursday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Raeford Presbyterian Church for Mrs. Beulah Funderburk Whitley, 73, who died Tuesday afternoon at a Fayetteville nursing home. The service is to be conducted by the Rev. Cortez A. Cooper, pastor, and burial will be in Raeford cemetery.

Mrs. Whitley was the widow of H. W. B. Whitley, attorney of Raeford, and had been in declining health for about a year. She had been recently transferred from a Pinehurst hospital to the nursing home.

Surviving are two sons, Robert of Philadelphia, Pa., and Edwin of Raeford; two daughters, Miss Mary Hazel Whitley of Raeford and Mrs. Paul Whetstone of Shelby; seven grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. B. K. Laney of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Lee Medlin of Monroe.

Sandhills College News

Dr. James J. Altendorf, dean of instruction at Sandhills Community College, has announced the appointment of three new instructors who will assume their duties with the beginning of the fall term.

Ray E. Martin, Morgantown, W. Va., Miss Sallie Sheek, Winston Salem, and Larry C. Wilson, Hickory will join the faculty of the department of technical - vocational education which is headed by Henry I. Rahn.

Mr. Martin has been named instructor in civil engineering technology, a two-year educational program to be initiated at Sandhills this fall.

Miss Sheek and Mr. Wilson will both teach courses in the two-year business education program at the college.

According to Dr. Altendorf the 1969 fall quarter at Sandhills begins with the orientation of new students September 8-10, registration September 11-12, and the first classes scheduled for Monday September 15th.

Sandhills Community College has received $21,796 from the Frederick J. Kennedy Memorial Foundation of Boston to supplement faculty salaries this year, and also an annual pledge of $13,032 for the next three years to support instructional programs in health and food service training.

Announcement of the gift was made Friday by Dr. Francis Owens, Pinehurst, a Trustee of the Kennedy Foundation and also a member of the Board of Trustees of Sandhills College.

The grants to Sandhills are a continuation of the late Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy of Southern Pines and Brockline, Mass. who gave generous sums in support of the college during her lifetime. The Frederick J. Kennedy Memorial Foundation, named in honor of her father, was established to support numerous charitable, religious and educational institutions which were her main interest for many years.

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (Romans 12:21, RSV)

A person cannot grow flowers simply by hating weeds. When a gardener sets out to grow flowers, that becomes his main purpose. Eliminating weeds becomes a secondary thing.

Most of us are concerned about many thriving and victimizing evils: selfishness, exploitation of persons, prejudice, various kinds of enslavement. We sometimes reach the point not only of hating these things but also the persons doing the evil. Experience has shown, however, that hate by itself eliminates no evil. It often leads rather to bickering, rioting-even war.

Jesus counseled us to love our enemies, to do good to those who spitefully use us. Paul said it in these words: "Overcome evil with good."

Jesus and Paul are not giving us idealistic or impractical advice but pointing the way to deal realistically with the varieties of life and the nature of man. We do win our enemies more often with love than in any other way.

PRAYER: O God, in a world abounding in evil, make us aware of that which is good. May this awareness not dull our sensibilities to the needs of those caught in the clutches of evil nor diminish our eagerness to help those enslaved.

MEN IN SERVICE

U.S. Air Force Major William F.H. Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Page of Aberdeen, recently took part in a successful strike mission 15 miles northeast of Tay Ninh City, Vietnam.

Major Page and three fellow F-4 Phantom pilots were credited with destroying eight enemy bunkers and 50 meters of trench.

The major flies with the 12th Tactical Fighter Wing based at Cam Ranh Bay Air Base.

A graduate of Statesville High School, he was commissioned upon graduation from the U.S. Military Academy where he earned his B.S. degree. Major Page holds an M.S. degree from North Carolina State University.

His wife is the former Judith A. Bintliff.

U. S. Air Force Sergeant Steve E. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stevens of 1304 McArthur St., Lumberton, is on duty with the 4258th Strategic Wing at U-Tapao Airfield, Thailand.

Sergeant Stevens, a Strategic Air Command air armament mechanic, supports B-52 Stratofortress bombers which daily attack Viet Cong targets and KC-135 Stratotankers which provide refueling to fighter, bomber and reconnaissance aircraft conducting the air war over Vietnam.

He was assigned at Columbus AFB, Miss., before arriving in Thailand.

The sergeant, a graduate of Littlefield High School, attended Worth Business College.

His wife, Judy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex G. Floyd of 85 Jerome St., Lumberton.

Local Business

Retail advertising in department stores in larger cities has had a startling effect on the sale of shoes in the United States.

Over 27 per cent of the money paid for shoes in the United States last year was for foreign imports—mostly from England and Italy. The shoes cost the stores more than the American product. They are made by individual craftsmen instead of being mass produced. The retail advertising emphasizes quality and styling to such an extent that even lower income groups buy the higher priced foreign products.

Although there is no evidence that the foreign shoes are any sturdier or more comfortable than mass produced counterparts, the hand-crafted shoes do look different. It is this difference which advertising is selling at a higher per unit profit for the retailer.

Any retailer, regardless of size may learn something from the competition for the shoe market. If a difference can sell shoes, it can sell a location, special services, exclusive products, and the personality of any retail store or business.

Every retailer exists because his business is in some respect different from his competition. It should be the objective of his advertising to sell unique advantages.

But one thing seems certain: a unique advantage is likely to go unnoticed until it is publicized through advertising.

Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q - How long does one have to serve in Viet-Nam to be eligible for the G. I. Bill to return to college, and how much would a married veteran with no children receive each month?

A - Actual service in Viet-Nam itself is not a requirement for benefits (including educational assistance) under the G. I. Bill. The law requires that the veteran must have at least 181 days active duty, any part of which occurred after Jan. 31, 1955. (Active duty for training purposes cannot be counted towards the 181 days.) A veteran in full-time training (at least 14 semester hours) would receive training allowance of $155 monthly if he has one dependent.

Guardsmen In Ft. Stewart For Encampment

The local headquarters company of the 2nd Battalion of the 252nd Army Division left early Saturday for their annual two week encampment, being held this year at Ft. Stewart, Georgia. The local unit, headed by Capt. Daniel Baker, is spending the entire two weeks in the field along with Company A of Laurinburg, B of Sanford, C of Southern Pines, and the other headquarters units in Red Springs and Lumberton. The battalion, commanded by Colonel Ed Newton, usually spends one week in the field and the other week carrying out administrative duties.

The 1969 training session is scheduled later in the summer than usual. The battalion usually has its summer camp in the first part of June.
