Brookshire-Altman Vows Spoken Saturday At First Baptist Church

Miss Deborah Lynne Altman and Garry Lynn Brookshire of Raleigh spoke their wedding vows at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church of Raeford. The Reverend Billy Beaver officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Maj. and Mrs. William Terral Altman, Sr., (Ret.) of Raeford. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alta B. Heatwole of Whispering Pines and the late Thomas A. Brookshire.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Sandra Futtrell, organist, of Southern Pines and Miss Jane Sellars, vocalist, of Raeford.

The altar was graced by floral arrangements of white snapdragons and carnations, blue and yellow daisies, yellow statice and gypsophylla, placed on colonial columns, against a background of brass candelabra and shaefflera plants.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white polyester organza fashioned with sweetheart neckline, delicately laced to the empire waistline and full skirt ending in a sheer ruffle and extending into a chapel train. The bodice featured an overlay of scalloped Chantilly lace which also graced the deep cuffs of the bishop sleeves. Her chapel veil of lace edged silk illusion was held by a circular band of Chantilly lace. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, stephanotis, and blue gypsophylla and bridal ribbon made by the mother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Gayle Dew of Raleigh attended her sister as Matron of Honor. Her formal gown of yellow chiffon was designed with empire bodice and flowing skirt. The sheer overblouse featured a banded neckline, long sleeves and fitted waist, all accented by an embroidered floral design. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a design of yellow and blue daisies and peppermintia, tied with yellow ribbon.

Wearing costumes and carrying bouquets identical to that of the Matron of Honor was Miss Carol McDuffie of Raeford, Maid of Honor, and bridesmaids Mrs. Carol Altman of Raleigh, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Gayle Saunders of Rockingham, Mrs. Betsy Lowe of Raeford, and Miss Jane Brookshire of Southern Pines, sister of the bridegroom.

Mst. Brent Richardson of Randleman was ring bearer. David Blue of Carthage served as best man. Ushers were William Altman, Jr. of Raleigh, brother of the bride, Jack Cornell of Raleigh, Terry Tillman and Bobby Green, both of Carthage, and Dale Frye of Pinehurst.

The mother of the bride chose a formal gown and matching jacket of pink dacron and white orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a formal gown of turquoise crepe, and she also wore a white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the fellowship hall of the church.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will be at home at Sumter Square Apartments in Raleigh.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County School and attended University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She is a graduate of Sandhills Community College where she received an Associate in Applied Science Degree in Health Occupations. She is employed as a Respiratory Therapist at Rex Hospital in Raleigh.

The bridegroom was graduated from Union Pines High School and attended Wingate College. He also is a graduate of Sandhills Community College where he received an Associate in Applied Science Degree in Health Occupations. He is employed as a Respiratory Therapist at Wake Memorial Medical Center in Raleigh.
