

Midget Rams, Redskins Win Games

The Midget Football League continued play November 3 with the Rams defeating the Packers 7-0.

The game was scoreless in the first half. As the hard-hitting and good defensive plays continued in the third quarter, the Packers fumbled the ball on their 27-yard line. Terry Brasier recovered the fumble for the Rams and ran it back 53 yards for a Ram touchdown. Robert McKay ran up the middle for the extra point.

McKay also had runs of 6 yards, 5 yards and 8 yards for the Rams.

Other outstanding players for the Rams were James V. Locklear who recovered a Packer fumble, Chris Kinell tackled a Packer running back for a 3-yard loss, and Michael McGowan sacked a Packer quarterback for a 3-yard loss.

All players on the defense and offense of the Rams played an outstanding game also. The Packers didn't give up.

The Packers had a great chance to score when Charles McMillian recovered a Ram fumble on the Packer 14-yard line but the Packers could not push it across the goal line. Leading players for the Packers were Mickey Oxendine with runs of 8 yards and 18 yards, Ronnie Bullard carried the ball 7 yards for the Packers. Packers teams recovered a Ram fumble on their 11 yard line and another one on the 25 yard line but failed to score.

The action continued November 4. The Redskins defeated the Steelers 12-0. The Steelers held the Redskins scoreless in the first quarter.

Leading player for the Redskins was Charles Douglas with runs of 7 yards and 5 yards. Douglas returned a Steeler punt 40 yards for a Redskin touchdown. Extra point was tried but failed.

Douglas recovered a Steeler fumble for the Redskins. Adell Baldwin sacked a Steeler quarterback for a 3-yard loss. Earl Locklear stopped a Steeler running back for a 3-yard loss and Gerald Oldham sacked a Steeler quarterback for a 5-yard run for a touchdown. Extra point attempt was tried but failed.

The Steeler defense stiffened and didn't allow the Redskins to put any more points on the board.

The Steeler offense and defense played outstandingly but the offense could not put any points on the board. The Steelers were on the Redskins' 2-yard line but could not push the ball across the goal line.

Each of these meetings will be held in the Recreation Office. For each team interested in entering their appropriate league, a team representative must attend the meeting for their group.

Rules, regulations, schedules and requirements will all be discussed at each of the organizational meetings.

The Church League is a new league this year and is intended for adult men from current 9th graders to those 29 years of age. To participate in this league you must be a member of the church you are playing for.

A roster for each team will be required along with the signature of the minister.

For more information on any of these programs, please contact the Recreation Office.

Hoke Ends Season With Loss To Scots

The Hoke County High School Bucks ended their 1980 football season Friday night with a 52-6 loss to Scotland County's squad on the Scotland field.

Oxendine scored Hoke's touchdown with a 63-yard run in the final period. The pass attempt for a two-point conversion failed. Oxendine's was the longest run of the night.

The Fighting Scots' Anthony Floers scored the first touchdown, then teammate James White followed with two, and a team safety made the score 24-0 by the end of the first quarter. Scotland scored two more touchdowns in the second period, then its final 14 points in the last quarter.

The game ended Glenn Draughon's first season as Hoke's head football coach.

The Bucks lost nine and won one. Six of the losses were to Division IV 4-A opponents, and the lone victory was over a non-conference squad, South View.
