Hoke Boys, South View Girls Win

Hoke High's boys' varsity made it three wins in six games for the season Friday night by beating South View 45-43, in the Hoke gym.

The Hoke JVs made it four wins in a row in their last five games, downing South View's juniors 57-53.

The Hoke girls, however, lost 64-41 to the South View girls, their fourth defeat in six games.

The Hoke squads played Seventy-First's at Seventy-First Tuesday.

The Hoke boys' varsity will play Union Pines at Hoke at 7 p.m. Friday.

The winning margin was provided by Michael McLean's layup after point guard Eldred Blue stole the ball 30 seconds from the end.

The Bucks left the court with a second to go, unaware that a pushing foul had been called on South View. They returned five minutes later and played out the last second.

South View's Rafael Hernandez was the game's highest scorer with 18 points. Greg Hollingsworth led the winners and was second highest with 14.

The summaries:

Boys' varsity:
SOUTH VIEW -- Hernandez 18, Shaw 2, Gilmore 9, McDowell 2, Lucas 6, Love 6.

HOKE -- M. McLean 6, Blue 12, Hollingsworth 14, F. McLean 11, Thomas 2.

South View 16 10 10 7 = 43
Hoke 14 16 6 9 = 45

Sabrina Barnes of Hoke was top scorer in the girls' game, sinking 19 points, followed by Sharon Carter of the winners with 18.

In the JV game, Easterling of Hoke led the individual scoring with 18 points. McCoy was high for the losers with 13.

Girls':
HOKE -- Love 10, Monroe 6, Barnes 19, Blue 2, Adams 4.

SOUTH VIEW -- Faircloth 12, Carter 18, Womack 11, McLaughlin 8, Smith 9, and Sheares, Lowery and Autry 2 each.

Hoke 8 10 11 12 = 41
South View 9 17 18 20 = 64

Hoke Frosh Down East, West Lee

The undefeated Hoke High Ninth Grade girls' basketball team won two more games this week, stretching its record to five wins for the season.

The Hoke girls downed West Lee 64-45 after overcoming a West Lee lead in the first period. They smothered East Lee 67-24 in the other game.

West Lee jumped out to an 11-5 lead and kept the lead through the first quarter. Hoke was on the short end of an 18-12 score at the end of the period. The Buckettes did better in the second period, outscoring West Lee 18-12 to finish the half with the count knotted 29-all.

The second half, however belonged to the Buckettes as they outscored West Lee 35-18.

Sheila Southerland led Hoke with 28 points, while Dela Pridgen and Lisa Smith had 19 and 12 respectively. Lisa Kershaw 3 points and 16 rebounds, and Anne McMillan 6 points and 13 rebounds.

In the East Lee game, the Buckettes never trailed. The first team played only the first quarter, the subs playing the rest of the time. Lisa Smith and Sheila Southerland had 16 points each while Lisa Kershaw had 12 point and 15 rebounds. Dela Pridgen had 10 points, and Anne McMillan had 6 points and 13 rebounds.

The Buckettes were scheduled to play Wednesday afternoon at Reid Ross.

Senior Citizens

The Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission will sponsor a Senior Citizens ceramic class planned for the first of January. The class will meet on Wednesdays in the Recreation office from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on January 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, and 31. There will be an $10 fee per person and a $100 fee for the instructor. Contact the Parks and Recreation office to get your name on the list.

Ladies' Volleyball

Ladies, it's volleyball season once again. Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission will sponsor a Ladies' Volleyball League this winter.

There will be an organizational meeting on Thursday, January 14, 7:30 p.m. at the Recreation office. All interested teams should have a representative present. To be eligible you must be 18 or have graduated from high school. Rules, regulations and schedules will be discussed. If you are interested in participating and do not have enough ladies for your own team you are encouraged to attend the organizational meeting. Contact Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission for more information.

Men's Liniment Basketball

Basketball for the Liniment League is just around the corner. Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission will hold an organizational meeting for all interested teams and individuals on Monday, January 4, 7:30 p.m., at the Parks and Recreation office.

To be eligible for this league you must be at least 30 years of age.

All church groups, civic clubs, or just neighbor friends are encouraged to get a team together and join the Men's Liniment Basketball League.

Contact the Parks and Recreation office for more information.

Youth Basketball

Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission reminds all parents of the following meeting times and dates for all interested basketball participants (all start at 5:30 p.m.):

Boys, 7-9 - Monday, January 4; boys, 10-11 - Tuesday, January 5; boys, 12-13 - Wednesday, January 6; and girls, 9-11, Thursday, January 7.

Each group will meet in the J.W. Turlington gym. On the above days each youth will be assigned to a team and will meet with his or her adult coach.

Youth basketball this year will have games at 5:30 and 6:15 in order to accommodate our adult working coaches and interested spectator parents.

Anyone interested in playing basketball this year and who has not signed up is encouraged to contact Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission at 463 or attend the organizational meeting as mentioned above.

Your age as of January 1, 1982, will determine which league you must participate in.

Also, parents or other friends interested in coaching are urged to contact the Parks and Recreation office.

Women and men coaches are needed.

Teal Oil Leads Final Standings

Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission Men's Volleyball League enjoyed the season's final regular-season matches on Thursday.

To open the night's action, the Naturals downed 401 Gulf 15-6, and 15-1. Harold Livingston and Gary Culp led the Naturals with 21 serving points. 401 Gulf was sparked by John Smith and Paul Jones.

The pairings at 7:15 saw Teal Oil defeat Bad Co. 15-2 and 15-13. Cecil Campbell and Jimmy Teal together gathered 19 serving points for Teal Oil, while Mitchell Cox and Jerry Long set Bad Co.

The third-round match went to Carter's Pig-N-Chicken over 401 Gulf 15-3 and 15-4. Carter's Pig-N-Chicken enjoyed excellent efforts from Greg Davis and Eddie Ramsey. Dickie Lippard and Johnny Melton directed 401 Gulf.

Competition at 8:45 paced the Kiwanis Club against The Naturals. The Naturals collected the victory 15-9 and 15-12 on super serves from Dan McGougan and Mike Wood. Terry Houston and Don Rust picked up 10 of the Kiwanis Club points by excellent serving rounds.

The concluding match of the night went to Bad Co. over the Spikers 15-12, 13-15, and 15-12. This match was the only one of the night to go three games. Bad Co. overpowered the Spikers by great efforts from Ken Koonce and Dwight Jackson. James Gillis and Tommy McColl led the Spikers.
