Now Hoke will represent the Southeastern Conference in the freshman playoffs if Lumberton loses its makeup game with West Lee; or if Lumberton beats West Lee and then Hoke wins the toss of the coin to break the tie between the two teams. But after that the Bucks' scoring machine went into high gear blitzing Lumberton with a 21-point scoring burst while holding Lumberton to 13 in the third. In the final period, the game was close all the way to the end of regular time, and the teams went into the overtime period tied 60-60. In the extra period the Bucks jumped to lead, 64-60, but a three-point play and another foul brought doom to the Hoke girls. Then they missed a shot in the final 10 seconds, and Lumberton got the rebound. The Bucks tied up the ball for a jump ball but time ran out. In the Scotland game, Sheila Southerland of Hoke led all scorers with 20 points, and her teammate, Dela Pridgen, scored 17.
