404 Holds Blue And Gold Banquet

Pack 404 held its annual Blue and Gold Banquet the night of February 25 at Raeford United Methodist Church.

Each den worked on projects to decorate its table at the banquet where they entertained their parents. Webelos Den 1 placed first for its table decoration, Den 2 finished second, and Webelos Den 2 was third.

Awards also were presented during the evening to individual Cubs.

The Upchurch Junior High School Chorus, directed by Ann Freeze, with Chris Watkins playing accompaniment, sang for the audience.

The Pack expressed its gratitude to the following businesses for making the banquet a complete success: Radio Shack, Faberge, House of Raeford, Rowland's, Calico Corner, Home Food, Theresa's, Hoke Drug Co., Western Auto, McLaughlin Co., Howell Drug Co., A&P, Michael's, Shoe Chest, B.C. Moore's, Macks Stores, and Howard Clothiers.

CUB OF YEAR -- Dusty Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson, is being congratulated by the Rev. Billy Beaver for being selected Cub of the Year. Dusty is in Webelos Den 2 under Leader John Currin.

Cub Den 2 with Leaders Dianne Stee and Paul [unclear] tied with Webelos Den 2 for Den of the Month.

Members of Den 3, winner of the Attendance Award, with their leader, Theresa MacDonald.

Webelos Den 2 with Leader John Currin, tied with Cub Den 2 for Den of the Month.
