

Nicholson-Perry Nuptials Spoken In Virginia Church On Saturday

Miss Elizabeth Starr Perry and Bryce Talley Nicholson, were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at six o'clock, Saturday evening, at the Oak Dale Baptist Church, Greenwich, Virginia. The Reverend Jeffery Wright officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett K. Perry of Nokesville, Virginia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William E. Jones of Raeford and the late John F. Nicholson, Sr.

Music was presented by Edna Lee Armstrong and vocalists Paige Manuel and Kenneth Foster. Vocal selections included "And I Love Her," "More," "Song of Ruth" and "The Lords Prayer."

The setting for the ceremony featured the chancel bordered with white cathedral candles entwined with sprengeri, bakers fern, babies breath, and lily-of-the-valley. A fifteen branch candelabrum graced the center of the altar, flanked by colonial pedestals with basket arrangements of white gladioli, starburst pompon and gypsophilia. A double profile kneeling bench completed the setting.

Hurricane globes covering white candles, with lilly-of-the-valley and greenery were placed in the windows of the church. The pews were draped with white aisle ribbons and accented by bows clustered with bridal flowers and greenery.

The bride escorted by her father, and given in marriage by her parents wore a formal gown of chiffonette, over satin with a fitted bodice of Alencon lace and tiny seed pearls. The full skirt was flounce feathered into a cathedral train, bordered with matching lace.

She wore a Juliet cap with a waltz length veil of silk illusion featuring a mantilla effect with Alencon lace appliques. Her cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, lilly-of-the-valley, stephanotis, sweetheart roses and ivy were carried on a white Bible given to her at age twelve by her parents.

Miss Jean Acey of Norfolk, Va., sorority sister, served as maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of grape silesta, with flounced bodice, an ivory lace collar, long sleeves trimmed in matching lace and bishop back with flared skirt.

Bridesmaids were Miss Edie Parkins of Halifax, Va., Kelly Edmonds, Elizabeth Payne both of Norfolk, Va., Kathy Chelena of Vienna, Va., sorority sisters of the bride. They wore rose gowns styled identical to the one worn by the honor attendant. Arm bouquets of starburst pompoms in shades of grape and rose, laced with babies' breath, and ivy accented with matching ribbon complemented their dress.

John F. Nicholson, Jr. of Durham served as his brother's best man. Groomsman were Lewis Elliott, Ken Leaman, and Cecil Talley of Halifax, Va. and Dwayne Perry, of Nokesville, Va., brother of the bride.

Jason Joyner, cousin of the bride of Elizabeth City and John Nicholson III, nephew of the groom, of Durham, were ring bearers.

Caroline Patterson of Elizabeth City, cousin of the bride was flower girl. She wore an ankle length white silk taffeta and lace dress, and carried a white wicker basket filled with rose petals.

Kevin Hollowell of Manassas, Va. and Stacey Joyner of Elizabeth City, cousins of the bride, served as program ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a wine silk gown, with sheer lace trimmed V-yoke, standup lace collar, bishop back, lace cuffed long sleeves and softly gathered skirt. A corsage of white cattleya orchids was pinned at her shoulder.

Mrs. Jones chose for her son's wedding a formal gown of teal silesta. The dress featured a V-neckline accented by pleated peaked lapels, fitted waist and flowing skirt. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Norvell Hollowell of Edenton, wore a silk navy gown and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Warren Manuel of Nokesville, Va. directed the wedding.

After a wedding trip to the island of Curacao, in the Caribbean, the couple will reside in Halifax, Va.

The bride is a graduate of Old Dominion University, Virginia. The groom is a graduate of East Carolina University and they are both in management at Burlington Industries in Halifax, Virginia.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Fairfax Gun and Rod Club in Manassas, Va. by the brides' parents.

Floral arrangements of pink and burgundy and lighted tapers decorated the party area and tables. The buffet table was covered with a white linen tablecloth and centered with an arrangement of burgundy and pink roses, flanked by a pair of silver candelabra and white tapers. Baked Virginia ham, Swedish meatballs, chickenntets, watermelon carved basket filled with fruits, assorted salads and candies were enjoyed buffet style.

Cabaret tables were placed in an area of the party room with a champagne fountain and smaller tables of finger foods.

Centering the room was the wedding cake placed on a round table with floor length lace cloth, complemented with bridal bouquets. After the bride and groom served the traditional first slice, Mrs. Millard Joyner and Mrs. Charles Warner Jr. aunts of the couple served the cake.

Mrs. Emmett Bunch and Mrs. Roy Hollowell poured the fruit punch. Around 200 attended.

REHEARSAL DINNER

On Friday night, at eight o'clock in the evening Mr. and Mrs. William E. Jones, parents of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Nicholson, Jr. brother of the groom hosted a dinner at the Ramada Inn in Manassas, Va.

Upon arrival, the bride-elect was presented an orchid corsage and the groom-elect a red rose boutonier.

The bride and grooms table was covered with a white linen cloth and skirted. An antique white and pink bowl held a center arrangement of pink carnations, Dutch iris, pink and burgundy roses and babies breath. Two five branched silver candelabra entwined with ivy, burgundy silk flowers, laced with babies' breath and tied with pink satin ribbon were placed on each end of the table.

Round tables with white table cloths were set up throughout the room. Each place was marked with burgundy napkins tied with pink satin ribbon and babies' breath. A tall wine glass with wine fluted candle and silk wine daisies tied with pink satin streamers completed the decoration.

A three course dinner was served buffet style. Guests included members of the wedding party, friends of the bride and groom and out of town families.

The couple presented gifts to their attendants, ushers and others assisting in the wedding during the evening.
