

Wolfpack Seniors, All Stars In Benefit

The seniors from N.C. State's basketball team will be participating in a benefit basketball game for the American Cancer Society of Hoke County.

Heading the team from N.C. State will be 7'5" Chuck Nevitt and 1980 standout Art Jones. Others slated to play include Scott Parzych, Emmett Lay and Max Perry. Harold Thompson, a former Hoke High standout and currently a sophomore on the N.C. State basketball team, will be on hand to coach the State team but will not play due to NCAA regulations.

Their opponents will be the Hoke County All Stars, a team consisting of former high school and/or college players. Coaching the All Star squad will be Stanley Callender. Others slated to play include: George Maynor, George Drawhorne, Rudolph Maynor, Marcus Brown, Mike Sutton, Tony Austin, Bryan Hales and Parnell Miles.

The game is scheduled for Tuesday night, April 13, at 7:30 at the Hoke High gym. Tickets are $3 each and can be purchased in advance at the following schools and businesses: Hoke High, Upchurch Junior High, Turlington Elementary, West Hoke Elementary, South Hoke Elementary, Scurlock Elementary, The Medicine Shoppe, Hoke Drug, Southern National Bank, United Carolina Bank, Western Auto, Edinborough Drug, and Homes and Land Realty.

Last year's game was a sellout, so if you plan to attend, get your tickets early.

A raffle will be held during halftime at which time, a television set and 3 red and white basketballs signed by the N.C. State team will be given away. Also during halftime, the State players will be available to the fans for autographs.

All proceeds from the game will go to the American Cancer Society to help its research to find a cure for this disease.

EX-HOKE STAR-- Harold Thompson, former Hoke High basketball star, now playing for North Carolina State's Wolfpack, will be at the Hoke All Stars - Wolfpack Seniors Hoke County American Cancer Society campaign benefit game Tuesday night but won't play. He's got lots of State eligibility left, and NCAA rules prevent undergraduates from playing in postseason games, on penalty of losing their eligibility.
