THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1982
Read Mark 9:33-37
The executives finished dining. The speaker rose and pointed to the door: "If Shakespeare should come into this room," he said, "we would all stand up. But there is one Other. If Jesus Christ should come in, we would all kneel down and touch the hem of His garment."
It is interesting how our posture telegraphs a loud message. We think of bigger as better. A standing ovation symbolizes a supreme compliment. We speak of "climbing the ladder." Yet Jesus turned all this upside down. He revolutionized our longings by starting a movement which requires its members to become servants. Jesus said, "If anyone wants to come with me he must forget himself, carry his cross, and follow me." "If any one would be first he must be last of all and servant of all."
Greatness in God's eyes is a door through which all may pass, and it is entered through servanthood.
PRAYER: Almighty God, whenever we are tempted to yield to seeking stature in the eyes of others, may we turn our minds toward how we can please You. Amen.
THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Greatness comes through servanthood.
