

Four Retire From Burlington Here

Four long-service employees recently retired from the Raeford Plant of Burlington Industries.

These employees have a combined record of over 100 years unbroken service.

Those with at least 10 years unbroken service who are age 55 or older receive a Retirement Bible with their name and service record printed in the front.

Those with 25 or more years unbroken service receive a Retirement Plaque engraved with their service record and signed by the Chairman of the Board, William A. Klopman.

Charlie F. Burke began work with the Raeford Plant in 1952, as a Mechanic No. 2 in the Maintenance Department. He remained in the shop his entire career. Since 1965, Burke has held the position of Maintenance Technician No. 1, Machinist.

Preston Moore also began work in the Maintenance Department. In 1959, he started as a plant service man. Through the years he worked in several capacities. In 1975, he was appointed as Maintenance Technician No. 11 where he served until his recent retirement.

Nellie M. Woodcox's unbroken service dates back to 1954, when she began work as a Winder Tender in the Winding Department. Over the years Mrs. Woodcox was an operator on a number of types of Winding and Twisting machines. For the last 12 years, she has been a Volkman operator.

Mary C. Rose began her unbroken service record in 1962, in the Winding Department as a Ply-Winder Tender. In 1968, she transferred to the Preparation Department where she has worked as a Backwinder until her recent retirement.

In the absence of Dr. David Sutton, Pastor of Galatia Church, Mr. George Whipple was guest speaker for the morning worship service the past Sunday.

Mr. Whipple is from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and is currently a third year student at Union Seminary in Richmond, Virginia. He is now serving the First Presbyterian Church in Rockingham as a student-in-ministry. He has also served as a chaplain at Emary University in Atlanta, Georgia. He brought an excellent message to the congregation.

Dr. and Mrs. David Sutton will return from summer vacation Monday, August 23rd. Dr. Sutton will be back in the pulpit Sunday, August 29th.

The Youth Group of Galatia Presbyterian Church have returned from a wonderful camping trip to the mountains. Mr. and Mrs. John Gillis and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKethan chaperoned the group and all report a good time.

Sandy Grove United Methodist Church had their annual family picnic Saturday August 21st at Rockfish Methodist Youth Camp. Swimming, canoeing and various games were enjoyed and was concluded with a picnic supper on the pavillion. It was well attended and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Tabernacle Baptist Church sponsored a "Hee-Haw" last Friday evening in the Fellowship Hall at the Church. Various church members portrayed the actors and musicians on the Hee-Haw television program. It was well attended and a real good evening of entertainment and laughs!

The Youth Group of Tabernacle Baptist Church presented a musical program Sunday evening, directed by Mrs. Archie Barringer assisted by other ladies of the church. The program was real enjoyable.

Mrs. Grady English visited her sister, Mrs. Arthur Lee Watson and Mr. Watson last week.

Mrs. Amos Grant, Jr. spent several days the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Dennis Davis and Mr. Davis of Selma. Mrs. Davis had a foot injury from a freak accident while at the beach the previous weekend. However, Mrs.

Davis is recuperating nicely and will be back to her teaching job that begins this week.

Mrs. Alton McCulloch was admitted to Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville the past Sunday for tests and possible surgery.

Mrs. "Chip" Rooks recently returned from spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Patterson in Tifton, Georgia. While there she also visited her husbands parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Rooks also of Tifton.

Little Matthew Rooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. "Chip" Rooks celebrated his third birthday with a party at home the past Sunday afternoon. He had a birthday cake decorated with cowboys and race cars made by his mother and homemade ice cream. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Short and children, Curtis, Kathryn and Traci of Fayetteville.

Elbert Dees has been released from the hospital and is back home again.
