Change

Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission is offering a Holiday Season Cake Decorating class for all interested participants. The first class was held December 2, and classes will continue on December 7, 13, with the last class meeting to be determined at the December 13 meeting.

If you missed the December 2 meeting you may still join by bringing the $10.00 fee to the next class. (Supplies will be additional). For a list of supplies needed please contact the Parks and Recreation office at 5-5603.

Senior Citizens To Christmas Shop

Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission is interested in providing to our Senior Citizen's a Cross Creek Christmas Shopping trip if there are sufficient numbers desiring to attend. If you are interested, contact the Parks and Recreation office at 5-5603. We anticipate the trip-taking place the week of December 12.

When calling please state your choice of day and phone number where you may be reached. There would need to be at least 25-30 available to attend and willing to pay the $3.00 transportation charge. Deadline for contacting the Parks and Recreation office is December 7, 1982.

4-H Youth Committee Puts Goals Together

The 4-H and youth committee of Hoke County held a meeting on November 29.

The purpose of the meeting was to establish a pathway to the committee's first goal. At a previous meeting, the committee set their first goal as developing leadership.

Several suggestions were given, and many were discussed in detail.
