

FOG ACCIDENT -- These two cars collided in one of the three separate collisions in the thick fog on U.S. 401 and on a 1.2-mile stretch 4.2 miles south of Raeford. The drivers were injured and were taken to Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville, State Trooper Scott Burgess, the investigating officer for the three accidents, reported. The injured were Diane Santora of Pineville, driving the Oldsmobile at left, and James William Ross, a Raeford taxi driver, but neither was believed injured seriously. A "Jaws of Life" tool was required to free Ross from his car. No charge was filed, Burgess said. (Photo by Pam Frederick).
