Miss Money, Mr. Humphrey Wed In Antioch Presbyterian Church

Miss Regina Sue Money and James Richard Humphrey were united in marriage in a candlelight double ring ceremony at the Antioch Presbyterian Church, Saturday, February 5, at 2 p.m. The Rev. Charles C. Ansley officiated.

Palm trees formed the background for two nine branched-candelabums with white silk chrysanthemums and red carnations.

A program of organ music was presented by William Daniels. Mr. Daniels also sang "The Wedding Song," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Wayne Cribb, chose for her wedding a gown featuring a camelot bodice, long sleeves of lace, a full skirt with three rows of gathered lace and a fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white silk chrysanthemums and red silk carnations.

Miss Maria Peavy of Red Springs was maid of honor, and Mrs. Billy Morrison of Raeford, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Candace Maye, Charlotte, Cynthia Humphrey, Shannon, Sherry Pridden, Red Springs, and Lynn Sumakaris, Fayetteville. They wore dresses of red crepe featuring camelot sleeves and bodice with a full skirt, and carried identical bouquets of a white chrysanthemum centered with a red silk carnation and red and white streamers.

Davie E. Humphrey, father of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were David E. Humphrey, Jr. and Robert Humphrey of Shannon, brothers of the groom, Mitchell Underwood, Red Springs, Jamie Boles, Aberdeen, and Jim Butler, Shannon.

The bride's mother wore a full length dress of Burgandy crepe with chiffon and lace jacket. The groom's mother wore a full length dress of Dusty Rose crepe with chiffon full length cape. Both wore shoulder corsages of white silk Ruben lilies.

Mrs. Humphrey is the daughter of Mrs. Shelby Jean Money of Route 1, Red Springs, and a graduate of Hoke County High School.

Mr. Humphrey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Humphrey of Route 1, Shannon.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Betty Peavy, Mrs. Grace Bowen and Mrs. Helen Bunnell.

The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Doris Lytle, punch was

N.C. Symphony Volunteers Attend Statewide Meeting

Local North Carolina Symphony chapter officers Mary Archie McNeill, President, Hoke County Chapter, and Mary G. Senter teamed up with chapter heads from around the state at a two-day conference held at the Institute of Government in Chapel Hill on February 9-10.

The purpose of the confederate/workshop, held annually, is to update chapter volunteers on the year's activities and to share ideas for the upcoming subscription drives and concert promotions in each of the 34 chapters.

In addition to discussions on chapter finances, box office procedure, publicity and fund-raising given by the symphony staff, volunteers heard reports on the state of the symphony from Executive Director Tom McGuire, Chairman of the Board of Trustees Nancy Faircloth, and Secretary of Cultural Resources Sara Hodgkins. General Manager Hiram Black offered a brief preview of the upcoming season, which will feature a year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of Johannes Brahms' birth.

Volunteers relaxed and compared notes Wednesday evening over a steak dinner at the Country Squire Restaurant in Chapel Hill. Guest speaker for the evening was Herbert Hazelman, composer and member of the original North Carolina Symphony.

Also in attendance from Hoke County were, Caroline Parker, Helen McLaurin and Thelma McAllister.
